Messes. Evans & Warnoy,—tentlemen:—The small size No. I Salamander Safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 26th, 1558, has been subjected to a very severe test, which if withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books, together with valinable appers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and creads, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, (820,000) was in my Mill, which was destroyed on the inglit fo the 27th of July, 1960, and passed through the fiery orderit innearthed. The Safe was on the second floor, and fellto the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to in intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combination of a large quantity of ginin confined within the brick walls. After the file the Safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discoluted. This fluct was, however, to many bystanders, a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in my other words from my.

Grontos B. Astitos, No. 532 Market st., Phil'a. Rend the following from the New York Couriet:
Engineer in our city where the physician, apotherary, and evenity merebant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an claborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or entire to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schaapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases of Maderra, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Winsky, Jamasea and St. Crox Ruin, some very old and equal to any intrise country. He also had three large celbrs, filled with Brandy, Wine &c. m. casks, under Castom-House key, ready for botting. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schaapps hast year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less that two years he may be equally successful with his Brandles and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of oppo-cents in the United States, who self nothing but imitations, inous alike to human health and happiness.
