ROME AND VICTOR EMMANUAL.

NAPLES, Feb. 22 - The Government bas taken possession of all the religious property at Gueta, and the garrison of Gueta has been sent to a Neapolition island. The Papal Zonaves are reported to have massacred Doctor Yatui and his little daugh ter at Collatto.

TURIN, Saturday .- Admiral Pessago has arrived of Messins, which he will summon to surrender.

Rous, Friday.—The National Committee have issued a preclamation declaring that Victor Emmanuel will soon be proclaimed King from the Capitol, and expressing thanks to France for its generous aid.

The Prench authorities have taken posseseion of the keys to the espitol. Several persons have been expelled for political reasons.

VIENNA, Saturday - It is reported that Austria, Russia and Prussia have concluded Convention to act in concert in case of a Polish or Haugarian outbreak.

Washington, March 12.

SUPREME COURT BENCH.

The President unquestionably desired to of the Supreme Court as a graceful tribute to his long services in the counsels of the country. But the Chase wing objected, and as they would have bad the power, with the aid of the Southerners in the Senate, to have mended the President not to make it.

ASSURANCES OF PEACE. Governor Seward has assured some New York merchants, who came on here expressly to inquire whether they could engage in some large business operations, liable to be affected by war, that peace was, and would be, the watchword of the Administration. Belligerent individuals may not fancy this, but they will find the recruiting office of the Southern Confederacy open in Baltimore, and they to fighting their countrymen.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO SECRE-TARY CAMERON.-This morning Judge Grier visted the War Department, and administered the oath of office to the new Secretary, Hon, Simon Cameron, in the presence of large number of the clerks and other officials. He comdained somewhat of being sore and weak, and declares he would not undertake the journey again over such roads for any sum of money. His walking dress was a pair of blue knit woolen drawers, fitting tight to the limbs, and a blue coat with brase buttons. He states that three horses were worn out on the way by the "com mittee of two" who accompanied him to see the job done, and one of the gentlemen was compelled to take the cars at Annapolis junction and came to Washington by sailway. Weston applied at tpe Clarendon House for rooms, but being full acy directed him to a boarding house, and at night, accompanied by the Massachusetts delegation, he attended the Insuguration Hall.

HIGH RAILROAD BRIDGES .- From the report of the Auditor General of Pennsylva. his, we glean the following interesting statistice: The highest railroad bridge in the State is upon the Catawissa railroad, and is 128 feet high. The Media bridge, on the West Chester and Philadelphia railroad, is 101 feet high. The highest bridge on the Pennsylvania Railroad, is at Coatesville, and . 72 feet high. The bridge on the Huntingd u and Broad Top Road, at Stonerstown, 1 97 feet high; and the celebrated Wissabickon railroad, is but 68 feet bigh.

THE GREAT HORSE TAMER .- Mr. Rarey is astonishing the admirers of horse flesh here by his exploits with untamed steeds. He takes in hand the most savage of equines, and he usually brings them to terms in about fifteen minutes. There is nothing very remertamer. He is a good looking man with a benevolent face and firm eye, and he always presents an elegant and gentlemanty appearance, from the fact that he invariably dresses n the garments made at the Brown Stone Covous .- The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the diseases, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Congh. at the Court House, in the Borough of Sunor Irritation of the throat be ever so slight. Pentic SPEAKERS and SINGRRS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the reice.
