APPAIRS IN WASHINGTON. Washington is very quiet. The New York Regiments of Zonaves are in bad odor with the citizens, on account of their riotous conduct. They are good fighting material, but they have among them some hard cases. 'Sunbur Doesticks' definition of Zonave holds good as ment.' to them. A gentleman who witnessed the eccurrence, gave me a laughable account of the descent of three of them from a high second story window, by means of a rope, while a vengeful citizen was behind them with a sharp stick. But for all that, they will fight well when once in the field.

CHAPMAN, Snyder co., May 5, 1861.

H. B. Massen, Esq., Dear Sir :- I see semething stated in your paper about tapping the Columbia Dam. This ould be done by all means. The dam has been a nuisance to Pennsylvania ever since it was built. Shad-fishing has been destroyed along the whole river, which was worth more to Pennsylvania than all the canals ever built, and brought money than the canals ever did. Sixty years ago Pennsylvania was contending with Baltimore to keep their gill nets out or the Bay. But they are still there and stop off all the best at the rate of one pint per man, shad coming up the river. There is a law that At 5 r. M., for supper: requires the schutes at the lower dams to be so rected, as to permit fish to come up the river. But they do not obey the law, and I say any city or State that will kill and murder our soldiers, ight to have no favors shown them by our State or Government. They want to complain about their niggers, and yet try to make slaves of our poor whites along the rive, by this dam.

This would be Governor Curtin's time to enorce our rights, and Lincoln's too. I am going to commerce fishing for shad next week, but don't know whether it will pay. Thear that there is a break in the Columbia Dam which is all the setter, and I will close by saying if the Governor knew all about this dam he would attend to it. If it were not for this dam our party might catch several thousand dallars worth of shad this spring. W. G.

He says he has no office within his gift, no power to accept individual volunteers nor corpse of volunteers, no time to read applications for he autograph, and that he cannot acknowledge one letter in fifty. FORT PICKENS. Capt. Meigs states that for a long time Lieut. Slemmer had only ninety men under his command in Fort Pickens, but succeeded in concealing the weakness of the garrison from the enemy until reinforcements had SEIZURE OF THE BELAY HOUSE. BALTIMORE, May 6 — Yesterday morning at an early hour, the thirty car loads of troops from Washington, (said to be the Eighth New York and Sixth Massachusetts regiments), under the command of Brigadier General Butler, reached the Relay House, a lew miles below this city, and at once proceedto take possession of it. The troops number-ing 1800 men, were followed by their camp equipage, and had, beside muskets and small arms, several cannon and howitzers. They possession of Mr. Luckett's and Talbot's farms established a camp, and announced that if any hostile demonstration was made

There was intense excitement in the vicinity and many of the inhabitants, frightened, foolishly left, some coming to this city. WASHINGTON, May 6 .- Thomas Winans has refused to serve as one of the five Seces' sionists, and an equally ardent traitor has been nominated in this place. The Winans' young and old, already behold visions of-A triumphalarch, the a tavera sign, With garlands of bemp around it entwined. So strong is the feeling against Winans, that nothing but his speedy capture and death will satisfy the people. Senator Chandler, of Michigan, said in my hearing yesterday, that if Winans' is not hung, he will resign his seat in the United States ensuing year. Senate. Mr. Chandler complains that the Government does not accept more troops from the Northwest. He says there are now six hundred thousand in that section of the country slone under daily drill, anxolus for active

Col Colt's offer of a regiment, fornished at his own expense, is considered here as a very necessary practical exhibition of his eleventh hour repentance. Though his regiment may do the State some service, the belief that it is raised to save his own neck does not inspire us generally with an exalted idea of his patri otism. It is well known that he filled large the effect that Jefferson Davis intends taking orders of arms for the South as long as be could do so with impunity; and it is also persona, and will in consequence resign the charged upon him that he put twenty five per cent. extra upon all arms sold to the North since the inception of the present war movement. Major Anderson arrived here in company with Cyrus W. Field, yesterday moring.
