

COUNTY AUDITORS' REPORT.

A friend wishes to know when the County Auditors' Report will be published, as it should have been, he says, before now. We are unable to explain the cause of delay.

In justice to the members of the M. E. Church of the Lewisburg station, we copy the following resolutions from the Lewisburg Chronicle, in relation to the disloyal vote of their late Pastor, Rev. J. W. Hedges.

Resolved, 1. That it would have been eminently gratifying to our membership, had Mr. Hedges pursued the course adopted by the ministry of the town generally, viz: a bold, unequivocal, and decided expression of sympathy with an approval of the policy of the Government.

In their retreat the Rebels abandoned everything. A special despatch from Cairo to the Tribune says the boats commenced running to New Madrid to-day. The river has fallen four feet in the last two days, which greatly facilitated the operations of General Pope.

Hon. Emerson Etheridge arrived this evening from Paducah. He has telegraphed to a large number of citizens who were driven away by the Rebel troops to come down and return with him to their homes. They will probably leave to-morrow.

CHICAGO, April 8. A private despatch received in this city to-night from one of General Grant's staff says: "We have fought and won the hardest battle ever fought on this Continent."

NEW YORK, April 9. The special despatches to the Herald give many particulars of the terrible conflict at Pittsburg Landing. The Rebel General Albert Sidney Johnston was killed by a cannon ball, and General Beauregard had an arm shot off.

The following are among the number: Brig. Gen. Wm. H. Wallace, killed; Colonel Ellis, Gen. Grant's adjutant, killed; Colonel Briggs, Ninth Illinois, killed; Major Goddard, Fifteenth Illinois, killed.

which were sent to General Buell, who had again commenced to drive the Rebels. About 8 o'clock, P. M., Gen. Grant rode to the left where fresh regiments had been ordered, and finding the Rebels to be wavering, he sent a portion of his body guard to the head of each of the five regiments, and then ordered a charge across the field, himself leading.

The cannon balls were falling like hail around them. The men followed with a shout that sounded above the roar and din of the artillery, and the Rebels fled in dismay and never made another stand.

THE BATTLE OF YORKTOWN. FORTRESS MONROE, April 9, 1862. The line of battle was formed about 10 o'clock. Herd's Sharpshooters in the advance. As the various columns arrived on the ground, they at once began to take their respective positions.

A CRITICISM.

MR. PERCY.—The publication in your last number of a verse (it is proper to call it so) of "Carrier's Address" in the Sunbury American, received a recollection of it. I read it at the time it appeared, and then thought it one of the most contemptible pieces I ever read.
