For advertising rates and other information, apply to the office of the Sunbury American, No. 32 Park Row, New York, or 6 State Street, Boston, or to the agents for the Sunbury American in other cities, and are authorized to take Advertisements and subscriptions for us at our lowest rates.

Non-paying subscribers.—We shall continue to cut off weekly all subscribers of long standing and doubtful responsibility, who make no effort to pay. If their paper stopped they will know the reason.

An apprentice wanted.—A boy about fifteen years of age, desiring to learn the printing business, can have a good chance of applying at this office immediately. One from town that can board himself, preferred.

General C. T. James, the inventor of improved rifled guns and of projectiles, has been killed by the explosion of one of his own shells.

Robert Coleman, proprietor of the Iron-ore Furnace, Luzerne County, was killed. One of his workmen volunteered this substitute, and received $2000, with the guarantee from Mr. Coleman that, in the absence of the substitute, his family was to receive a sum each week equal to what the deceased earned as a laborer. In addition to this, Mr. Coleman stipulated to pay to the wife of the man three times as a substitute, a sum of $2000, in case he should be killed in battle, or die by any of the diseases incident to the camp.

The public debt.—The representations are in some quarters that the public debt is reached by two hundred millions, whereas the correct figure is only one hundred and fifty millions, and it is now less than six million and six hundred millions. This amount includes the entire indebtedness of the Federal Government, and includes the interest on the bonds issued, but not the interest on the bonds of the various States, which will amount to twenty millions of dollars.

The Philadelphia inquiry.—The Philadelphia inquiry into the conduct of the military operations in the West, has been adjourned until the 25th inst. The report of the committee will be published in the course of the month. It is expected that the report will be a severe one, and will reflect credit on the military operations in the West.

IMPORTANT FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Twenty Thousand Rebels Advancing on Yorktown.

General Wise in Command.

Fortress Monroe, Oct. 24.

News has just reached me through a rebel in which I place full credence, that the rebel General Wise is advancing on Yorktown with twenty thousand men. His main body has reached New Kent Court House. His army is composed entirely of conscripts. I do not think they can be depended on, or they would have been sent to the assistance of Lee or Johnston.

A WARNING TO WISE. If there is anything in a man, the rebel general will show by wisely keeping behind the reach of the slumbering lions that lie crouching upon our ramparts at Yorktown.

WHAT THE REBELS DESIRE. In my opinion, it is the intention of the rebels at present merely to occupy the works in front of Williamsburg in a position which, with very little skill, can be made equally as strong as that at Yorktown. This would render an advance of ours in that direction one of no ordinary magnitude. THEN COMMERCE TO DESTRUCTURE.

This advantage secured, and West Point and the Rappahannock in their undisturbed possession, they hope to renew their contraband traffic with their Baltimore friends during the coming winter. The smuggling of the latter will amply compensate them for the temporary suspension of their foreign trade, during the stormy seasons.

WHAT WE CAN DO AGGRESSIVELY. Can anything be done, and if anything, what, to foil this bold movement? In my opinion, it can be thwarted by sending a small but well disciplined force up the river to occupy a position perpendicular to the rebel base, and under the protection of our guns. This movement would be hailed with delight by many in the rebel camp, and would, doubtless, have a beneficial effect on the health of the garrison generally, which is susceptible of improvement.

WHAT WE CAN DO DEFENSIVELY. The Union forces at Yorktown are under the command of Major General Nagler, of your city, a talented officer, in whom his associates have every confidence. His command embraces a force of — men, and of best batteries of artillery, the precise number I withheld for special reasons. The position is very strong. In thorough order of defence, and I regard it improbable that he will attempt to take the fortification by storm, or even by a siege at present.

AVAILABLE CASUALS ARE THE ARMY OF YORKTOWN.

The stomach, gut, and Valley City, which in the neighborhood of New York, will cooperate with the land forces.

The brigade of troops guarding the Gunston Point batteries, including a company of artillery of the 104th Pennsylvania, and the 100th New York regiments, are to be used effectively against the enemy, at five minutes' notice, if required.

In addition to this, Yorktown, as all your readers are aware, is but a short distance from this city, while we are not far from at all, under command of Major General Peck. Look out for active times.

Fortress Monroe, Oct. 24.

The steamer John A. Warner left last evening with a flag of truce for Alaska's Landing. She was expected to remain till the steamer Express arrived, with some three hundred Confederates prisoners from Washington for Richmond, but owing to some misunderstanding the Express arrived at noon, today, with all the prisoners, and laden with grain and coal. The Warner will be here tomorrow from Alaska's Landing, and is expected to bring down several hundred prisoners.

From Washington, October 22.

The indications in all quarters are such as to give assurance that both the army and the navy will not much longer remain inactive. The fact will encourage a plan of operations, of a more aggressive character, than the one which is in contemplation at the present time.

The program of the army, of course, an early movement of the army to the Potomac. There have been several reconnoissances during the past week on the southern side of the Potomac, and much valuable information obtained concerning the positions of the enemy, and of the Blue Ridge, and General Peck's attack upon Petersburg, seems to be the plan adopted. McClellan is bending every effort to the organization of these forces, all of which will be under his command.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. The letter of your paper's report, concerning the introduction of negroes into the region has had a bad effect. Story has obtained a general currency, though doubtless without any basis in fact. It is a pity that such a story should be so widely circulated. It is a pity that such a story should be so widely circulated. It is a pity that such a story should be so widely circulated.

FROM HARRISBURG. Harrisburg, Oct. 25, 1862.—Camp Sibley is again crowded with soldiers. The rebel militia are now about being organized into regiments, the lines of which have been nearly all selected by the men. The Anderson cavalry troop have been sent to Kentucky, and will have left in a day or so. Their horses will be replaced by those of Louisville. The Militia have here been constantly drilled by persons who have been drafted into military service, and who claim exemption for the benefit of the public trust, the following decisions are published.

FROM CHARLOTTESVILLE. The steamer Eugene from below, reports that the rebels have possession of the Peninsula near opposite Island No. 10. The negroes of Helena are unwilling to be sent north, neither do they want to go back to slavery. They readily consent to work for wages, and arrangements are being made by which they are to be paid fifty cents per day, except in cotton picking, when they will be paid seventy-five cents. When severed from their homes, great activity among the rebels in the vicinity of Helena, Vicksburg and Holly Springs. They evidently contemplate an attack soon, but at what point is not known.

Joe Johnston. It is said to have twenty thousand troops at Little Rock, and the number known to be at Holly Springs is said to be about seventy thousand.

The rebels are crossing their forces from Arkansas and Mississippi at Vicksburg, and are making every preparation for an attack at Holly Springs. The place is being strongly fortified.

A rumor here to-night that they are moving north, is probably incorrect. The people east of Memphis, near Germantown, are said to be suffering for the necessities of life. Cotton is their only support, and this has been all destroyed by guerrillas.

The Federals have possession of Gloucester. This is admitted by the Grounda Agent. Flanagan is elected Governor of Arkansas over Rector.

Lieut. George Willich, 30th Ohio, just from Bolivar and Jackson says it was reported at Jackson on what seemed to be good authority, that Price had crossed the Hatchie with fifty thousand men and was marching in the direction of Bolivar.

Gen. Flury is also reported in the same neighborhood with 2,000 men, this rumor is considered highly probable by military authorities.

An accident on the Mississippi Central Railroad at Duck Hill: Last Sunday two trains collided, causing the death of thirty-five men and fifty wounded—most of them soldiers from various southern regiments.
