R ye. Sir.—I never drink;
r and I are exceedingly moral—
Aren; we. Roger?—See him wink!
Well, samething hot, then,—we won't quarret.
He's thirsty, tee.—see him ned his head?
What a pity. Sir, that dops can't talk!
He understands every word that's said—

And he knows good milk from water-and-chalk. The truth is, Sir, now I reflect,
I've been so sadly given to grog,
I wonder I've not lost the respect I wender I ve not lost the respect
(Here's to you, Sir !) even of my dog.
But he sticks by, through thick and thin:
And this old coat, with its empty pockets,
And rags that smell of tobacce and gin,
Ble II follow while he has eyes in his sockets.

There isn't another creature living
Would do it, and prove, through every disaster,
So fond, so faithful, and so forgiving.
To such a miscrable thankless master!
No, Sir!—see him wag his tail and grin!
By George! it makes my old eyes water!
That is, there 'something in this gin
That chokes a fellow. But no matter!

We'll have some music, if you're willing,
And Roger (hem! what a plague a cough is, Sir!)
Shall march a little.—Start, you villain!
Stand straight! Bout face! Salute your officer!
Put up that paw! Dross! Take your rifle!
(Some dogs have arms, you see!) Now hold your
Cap while the gentleman gives a trifle,
To aid a poor old patriot soldier!

March! Halt! Now show how the rebel shakes, March! Halt! Now show how the rebel shakes,
When he stands up to hear his sentence.
Now tell us how many drams it takes
To honor a jolly new sequaintance.
Five yelps.—that's five; he's mighty knowing!
The night is before us, fill the glasses!
Quick, Sir! I'm til.—my brain is going—
Some brandy,—thank you,—there!—it passes

Why not reform? That's easily said:
But I've gone through such wretched treatu
Sometimes forgotting the tasts of bread,
And scarce remembering what mean meant, That my poor stomach's past reform;
And there are times when, mad with thinking,
I'd sell out heaven for something warm
To prop a horrible inward sinking.

Is there a way to forget to think?

At your age, Sir, house, fortune, friends,
A dear girl's love,—but I took to drink!—

The same old story! you know how it ends,
If you could have seen these classic features.—
You needn't laugh, Sir; they were not then
Such a burning libel on God's creatures:
I was one of your handsome men!

If you had seen men, so fair and young.
Whose head was happy on this breast!
If you could have heard the songs that I sung
When the wine went round, you wouldn't have

That ever I, Sir, should be straying
From door to door, with fiddle and dog,
Ragged and penuliess, and playing
To you to-night for a glass of grog!

She's married since,—a parsons wife;
'Twas better for her that we should part— Twas better for her that we should part—
Better the soberest, prosised life
Than a blasted home and broken heart
I have seen her? Once, I was weak and spent
On the dusty read; a carriage stopped;
But little did she dream, as on she went,

Who kissed the coin that her fingers dropped ! You've set me talking, Sir; I'm sorry; It makes me wild to think of the change! What do you care for a beggar's stary?

Is it amusing? You find it strange?

I had a mother so proud of me?

Twas well she died before—— Do you know.

If the happy spirits in heaven can see.

The rulu and wretchedness here below?

And glass, and strong, to denden This pain; then Roger and will start.

I wender, has be such a lumpish, leaden,
Aching thing, in place of a hear?

He is sad sometimes, would weep, if he could,
No doubt, remembering things that were,
A virinous kennel, with plenty of food,

And himself a sober, respectable cur. I'm better now; that glass was warming,— You ruscal! limber your lazy feet! We must be fiddling and performing

We must be hadding and performing
For supper and bed, or starve in the street.—
Not a very gay life to lead, you think?
But soon we shall go where lodgings are free,
And the sleepers need faciliter victuals or drink;—
The sooner the better for Roger and me!

WHAT GRAPES TO PLANT,-"The Hartford Prolife, the best early grape ripens here the 10th of Angust—fruit of large size bunches medium, flavor rich, sweet, musky -vine hardy, strong grower, and enormous ly productive. The large size of the fruit, earliness and productiveness, will always make it a favorite, and they will always command a good price in the market.

"The Delaware. This is a small, pale red grape, of most delicious flavor, pronounced by many, the best of all grapes—ripens here from the first to the middle of September. The vine is of slow but healthy growth, and so far, has proven perfectly hardy and healthy, and will grow and do well on any Is for sale by all Druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents. good dry soil. No home should be without a Delaware grape vine.
"The Concord. This will prove the most popular of all grapes in this section of the untry-its large size, both in bunch and berry, rich, sweet flavor-its sturdiness of growth, perfect hardiness and adaptation to our soil and climate, are qualities, which, combined must have weight. We have seen good three year old vines produce from twenty-five to fifty pounds of this magnificent fruit without extra care. The last season was one that tried the grape to the utmost, on account of its wetness but the Concord, in low and very rich soil, ripened its fruit perfectly; which shows that it may always be relied upon."

A RASPBERRY WRINKLE.-According to a correspondent of the London Cottage Gardener, the raspherey can be successfully transplanted when the succors are from twelve to sixteen inches high. He selects the strongest succors, of course, takes them up carefully, and like a sensible man endeavors to get a portion of fibrous roots with them; plants them together triangular, ly nine inches apart, spreading the roots out nicely, as every decent cultivator would out nicely, as every decent cultivator would do, waters them, and they get along swimmingly. We think it probable that this valuable horses nearly worthless. procedure will give them a little better start than if allowed to stand until fall or spring and then transplanted,- Germantown

HOW TO PROMOTE DOMESTIC HAPPINESS.

Said Mrs. Smith to Mrs. Brown,
As they were waiking through the town,
"Where do you do your shopping?
That dress you're in, so neat and fine,
That when I see it, really mine
Looks positively shocking."

"I'm sure your husband, Mrs. Brown-Now don't be angry, pout and frown— Is not so rich as mine. And yet you can afford to buy. Just twice as much, or more than I, And how, I cannot divine."

Says Mrs. Brown to Mrs. Smith : "The reason you'll be startled with,
It is so simple, clear—
You buy on credit, I for cash,
I buy bargains, you buy trash,
I cheap, while you pay dear.

Whene'er you want a dress or shawl, A collar, hose, or what-not, call At the cheap Maxmorn Store, They'll sell you goods so very low That you will cease to wonder so. How much rich goods I've wore.

"My husband, as you truly say, Is poorer, far, than yours to-day, And yet I can buy more, Because each dollar of his few Is, to me, just as good as two,
At the cheap Mannorn Stone.

So satisfied was Mrs. Smith With Mrs. Brown's new arith-metic, which did convince The first, and opened so her eyes, She hasn't ceased to patronige The Manmorn ever since.

And now, when you chance to meet Her husband, Smith, upon the street, Around the corner coming, His face is lighted with a smile, His step clastic—all the while A pleasant tune he's humming.

Ladies, if like effect you'd see In your dear spouse, which you and he,
I'erchance, nee'r saw betiere,
Just Mrs. Brown's prescription try,
And all your list of Dry though buy
At the cheap Mannorn Storm.

CATHARTIC PILLS

CATHARTIC PILLS
OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Their certificates are published in my American Almanae, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

For COSTIVENESS.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of PILES, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

For Dystresta, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the heartburn, bodyburn, and souldown of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

For a Four Stomacu, or Morbid Inaction of the Boseels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the system.

For Nemvousness, Sick Headache, Nausra, Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear these and their kindred disorders because your stomach is foul.

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, and all Billow Affections arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhoza, prevails. Feverish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colle, bilious diarrhoza, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

Rheumatism, Gout, and all Inflammatory Feters are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Fills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the howels gently, but freely.

As a Dinner Pill, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take, and certainly none has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinner pill is employed. LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious

A Large Assortment of EVANS & WATSON'S

Self-Adjusting Clothes Wringer Simple, Economical, Durable, and is not Liable to get out of Order.

The Self-Adjusting Clothes Wringer, is one of the greatest improvement of the nineteenth century, and has only to be known and tried, to come into general use. The saving of clothes, in pressing out the water between two rubber rolls, instead of wringing or twisting, will amount to enough in a short time, to twisting, will amount to chough in a short time, to pay for a machine.

Every one is aware, that the twisting or wringing of clothes, stretches and breaks the fibres; but this machine presses them so evenly, that a newspaper thoroughly scaked, can be wrung, without breaking it in the least, and it works so easily, that a child twelve years old can operate it without trouble. Hot water does not injure the rolls, and woollen goods can be wrung out of boiling water to prevent fulling, which cannot be done by hand.

In Starching, it is invaluable, especially on large articles, such as Ladies' Skirts, &c., as it leaves the starch in the clothes perfectly even. It will wring the largest bed quilt or the smallest pocket hand, kerchief, drier than can possibly be done by hand, without alteration in less than one-eigh the time. The machine is so simple that it is not liable to get out of repair.

The machine is so simple that it is not liable to get out of repair.

The great improvement in this, every every other Wringing Machine yet invented, is, its Self-Adjusting arrangement, requiring no alteration, so wring a handkerchief or bed quilt consequently, the most ignorant servant can oderate it.

The machine is made of wood, and so arranged, that no iron can possibly come in contact with the clothes, thereby avoiding all danger of injury to the clothes, by iron rust.

This is the most simple and effective Clothes Wringer yet invented. Those purchasing can use them two weeks, and if they are not perfectly satisfied, return them, and their money will be refunded.

SALAMANDER SAFES.

GREAT FIRE AT READING, PA. February 12, 1862. Gentlemen—It gives me much satisfaction to inform you that in the severe fire which, on the morning of the 4th inst., entirely destroyed all my stock and materials, I had one of your Salamander Fire Proof Safes. After enduring an intense red beat for seven hours, the Safe was opened, and the Books and Papers were preserved in an umblemished condition. I shall need another Safe as soon as I get in order.

Yours, most respectfully, with which you may sew from the finest cambric to the heaviest cloth, without change of feed, needle, or tension—they have not been disappointed.

Thus having developed the adaptability of our machine for all kinds of work, we have made snother step in advance, and by several important changes in our "No. 3 Medica Machines." have produced a "Tatlohisa Machines." which we confidently claim to be the "BEST TAILORING MACHINE" yet introduced, sewing the coarsest linen thread with as much case as the common cotton—and when required may be used to do the very finest cambric work, with 150 or 200 cotton—thus combining in one compact form, every quality required in either a FAMILY OR MANUFACTURING MACHINE.

We have had our Machines before the public long enough to establish their reputation. Dozens of others who started with flying colors—have fallen by the wayside; "and "soon the places that knew them will know them no more." Step by step has the Pinkle & Lyon Machines won its way to public favor; its success is established, and henceforth our aim shall be, as it has in the past been, to still further improve, simplify and reduce the cost of our machines. We shall, in a few days, issue a new price list. For further particulars address.

In the changes brought about by the war, no one thing has played a more important part than the "Sewisse Machine". Without it three-fourths of our soldiers would to-day be cholhed in anything discoming the soldiers would to-day be cholhed in anything discoming the soldiers would to-day be cholhed in anything discoming the soldiers would to-day be cholhed in anything discoming the soldiers would nobly have they responded. Not content to make only so many gurments as their hands could accomplish, they have called the "Sewing Machine" to their and, and by it have rolled out the soldiers Coars, Pants and Shirts, at a rate assonishing to themselves. Knowing that this work could not long continue, many thoughtful, pradent housewises were careful to select the machine of all others, which would do the heavy army work, and when done with that, then to be used as their Pamily Machine, and in selecting one of the
