

PREACHING AND POLITICS.

The Democrat notices the fact that Mr. Shanley has been relieved of his charge as pastor of the Irish Baptist church, and says it was an account of political preaching.

Our neighbor winds up his notice of Mr. Shanley with the following remarkable if not inexplicable paragraph:

"We do not say that such a position, one after having labored and toiled to bring this awful national sin into the country, can still aid in the guilt of the nation."

This justification of the rebels, and the attempt to make the North, alone, responsible for the war, is what might be expected from a Copperhead organ, but when he refers to "the monstrous robbery, betrayal and ruin of the most prosperous country in the world,"

THE COST OF CONSPIRACY.—The Copperhead organs have been dealing so much in fiction of late, that they have not only deceived their credulous readers, but have beggared themselves.

White out on a reconnaissance yesterday, we extracted the language and private papers of Col. W. D. Ingham of the 8th Alabama (rebel) regiment. The following interesting and delectable letter, written by C. L. Vallandigham, while here, was found among his papers.

DEAR CONGRESS.—Your kind note and invitation of yesterday was this morning handed me by your brother-in-law, who will hand you this in return. I would give me much pleasure to visit you and your command before leaving the Confederacy, but it is now impossible to do so.

A City in the Rocky Mountains.—The resident population of Virginia, Nevada Territory, on the 1st of July, was estimated at fifteen thousand.

The general impression is that General Mead has been suspended in the command of the army by General John Sedgwick.

We should like our Beckenridge neighbor to explain how a subordinate officer can suspend his superior in command.

The writ of habeas corpus is not and never has been suspended in the rebel confederacy.

Jeff does not take the trouble to suggest the individual, which accounts, perhaps, for the fact that he has fewer traitors in his Confederacy than we have in the North.

HEALTH OF GOV. CURTIN.—A report having gone abroad that Gov. Curtin was seriously ill, the Harrisburg Telegraph contradicts it, and says that his health, instead of being alarmingly bad, is cheerfully improving, and that he is now not only regaining his strength, but he is acquiring a physical vigor which he has not possessed for the past three years.

We have received from an army correspondent, who writes from the South, over the signature of "Fort Taylor," a communication, embracing his views and opinions of the war and its duration.

THE ELECTION.—The vote in the State of New York has resulted in a decisive triumph to the cause of the Union, by a majority of thirty thousand.

Henry Ward Beecher has addressed immense numbers of people in some of the largest towns in Great Britain.

HOW THE SOLDIERS VOTE.—In a poll of 25,027 votes given by the Ohio Soldiers in the field, Vallandigham, Copperhead, has only 928, leaving a majority for Brough.

Another Letter of Vallandigham's.—The Herald of this Trison Ax communicates the following letter from Vallandigham to a rebel Colonel—a copy of which was sent North by James Filian West, Co. A, Nineteenth U. S. V. I.

Indian Depredations on the Upper Missouri.—A special despatch from Des Moines, Iowa, says that the Indian troubles on the upper Missouri, notwithstanding the victory of Bull, are far from over.

AN UNPARALLELED FEAT IN IRON FOUNDRY.—THE TWENTY INCHES—SEVENTY-TWO TONS OF IRON AT ONE HEAT.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch of the 26th, says: "We have already noticed the fact that preparations were progressing at the Fort Pitt Works, in this city, for the manufacture of twenty-inch guns, the latter, patterns, &c., being in an advanced condition."

DISCOVERY OF A PLOT TO RELEASE THE REBEL PRISONERS.—The names of the parties arrested.

Projected Revolution in Ohio and Indiana.—An extraordinary case of treason has recently come to light, implicating several persons in this city, Columbus, Covington, and Newport.

CONSIDERABLE ATTEMPT was made in this city on Saturday night, by the arrest of Samuel P. Thomas, of Columbus, by the U. S. Marshal, and the capture of the rebel prisoners at Camp Chase.

Slave Stagnation in Kentucky.—The Nashville Union of the 27th says: "A very respectable slaveholder from Kentucky intimates to us that, within three weeks, a change seems to have come over the negroes in the southern counties of that State, and large numbers of them are running off."

PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR CURTIN.—The President of the United States by Proclamation, bearing date the Seventeenth day of October, 1863, has called for THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND VOLUNTEERS.

THE REBEL CAVALRY OPERATIONS.—General Grant's Orders.—The rebel forces under S. D. Lee, Wheeler, Boldy, and Forrest, are in the neighborhood of Decatur, Courtland, and Tusculum, on the South of the Tennessee river.

From the Army of the Cumberland, WASHINGTON, October 30.—The Star of this evening contains information that on the 27th inst., by a very brilliant movement, which was executed under the command of General Smith, Chief of Engineers, in the Department of the Cumberland, two wagon roads and the use of the river lines of supply were acquired for the force at Chattanooga, thus relieving the command of General Thomas of its chief embarrassment.

General Smith's operations at the mouth of Lookout Valley, are spoken of as a great success, and their brilliancy cannot be exaggerated.

Major-General Thomas has telegraphed to the War Department the following dispatch, dated nine o'clock yesterday morning: "General Hooker was attacked at 12 o'clock, midnight, a severe fight continued for two hours, with lighter word until 4 o'clock A. M."

Hooker reports at 7:30 this morning that the conduct of his troops was splendid. They repelled every attack made on them, and drove the enemy from every position they assailed.

Nothing additional has been received at the headquarters of the army up to noon of the 14th. An order was issued for the Tennessee River, near Chattanooga, and the result is considered of the highest importance, as it relieves Rebel obstruction to steamboat navigation to that point, and secures the means of opening up the way for army supplies.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 20.—Lookout Mountain was taken on the 28th by our troops under Gen. Hooker, with the Eleventh Army Corps, a portion of the Sixth, and the Tenth Divisions of the Fourth Corps. They met with no serious opposition.

By command of Major Gen. ROBERTSON, J. J. Reynolds, Major Gen. and Chief of Staff of the Army of the Cumberland, Division commanders will see that the above order is complied with. By order of Major-General ROBERTSON.

The freemen of Pennsylvania enlisting under this call will be attached to regiments from this State. All who are willing to enlist are requested to present themselves at the office for that purpose, to the United States Provost Marshals' recruiting and mustering offices, in their respective cities, towns and counties.
