From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shosemaker, Eq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when undering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottless of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident retter and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had may fell for sir months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank thad and my triend for directing to the use of them.
