AGEST FOR DR. SHEMUCKER'S HISTORY .-- We are pleased to see that Mr. M. D. Bostian, has been appointed an agent for the sale of Dr. Schmucker's History of the Rebellion , and is now canvassing Sun-bury, Northumberland, Point, Upper and Lower Augusta townships. Mr. Bostian participated in many of the battles, in which, he lost an arm, he is now endeavoring to maintain his family by the sale of their history. We hope he will meet with success-

The ADVERTISING — We can excuse a man in bu-siness who does not advertise if he has nothing to advertise; but renders must know that the busines, man who throws out his sign in the newspaper, and is not ashamed of his stock of goods, can alway furbish a befter quality at lower prices than those who the the the basines that the busines are as the formation of the advertise of the basines and is not ashamed of his stock of goods, can alway furbish a befter quality at lower prices than those who, either through shame or penuriousness, never let the public know what they have or what they are doing .

TPACENOWLEDGEMENT .- Messrs. Philip Clark and A. F. Clapp have placed us under obligations for some choice cuts of venison, which they captured for some choice cuts of venison, which they explored last week. As they are the most skillful hunters in this section of country, and gentlemen who can ap-preciate the life of an editor, we hope their future efforts in hunting tours may never be less successful efforts in hunting tours may never be less successful

TT BAGGAGE CAR BURNED .- Ou Sunday morning last, about 4 o'clock, a serious accident occurred to the Erie Express Train at Chilisquaque, a mile of so below Lewisburg station. By some accident, as 96-TAKE-1500N0TICE 478 yet unexplained, the baggage car caught fire and was totally consumed, together with all the baggage of the passengers. The train was stopped, and the locomotive and other cars separated from the one which was on fire, and in this way no damage was sustained by the passengers, nor were the other cars injured. The amount of loss is unknown.

The Sunbury American. by the Muney Lawfairs, that the religious denomi-by the Muney Lawfairs, that the religious denomi-nations of that place done the handsome thing with their elergymen last week. The first was a donation to the Pastor of the Episcopal church, on Thanks giving evening, comprising of groceries and provi-sions (f all kinds, a.d a put) : containing $100. The other took place at the residence of the Pastor of the Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon The ladies taking advantage of the absence of Mr. & Mrs. Life, for the afternoon, took possession of the house and re-furnished the study and their bodroom with elegant new furniture, the cost of which was several hundred dollars. This is just as it should be. No class of men are more poorly paid than our ait us the amount due us, though it may be elergymen, while none are more deserving of the largest liberality on the part of those for whom they labor.

IP IT IS COMING !- Christmas, the anniversary of the birth of the Savior, will be celebrated one week from next Monday. As usual, it will be an occasion of mirth, and hearty congratulation, but the events that have transpired within the past year, will render the coming Christmas a day of unusual rejoicing and merry-making. Everybody will be presenting gifts to their friends, and everybody (no allusion, of course, to editors and printers.) will receive tokens of respect and good will, from their generous acquaintimees. The hearts of the little folks will be made gial by their good triend Kriss Kringle, who, in makin ; his annual round with his tiny reindoer team will deposit the usual supply of Christmas goods in the will retund the money. Send thirty cents for an oil colored photograph. receptacles provided for the same.

The windows of our dealers are already presenting to passers-by a most attracting display of holiday goods, and everybody can be supplied, at the moderate expenditure of a few greenbacks. To all who are in want of goods for the coming "Christmas and New Year, we cordially commend those who advertise in our columns, and we invite attention to their respective cards.

peace with God, to be ready when Re called for me. On the 27th of January, 1863, my husband called on Dr. Schenck, 32 Boad street, New York, and stated to him my case, with a request for him to call and sea me, which he did, and examined me with the respiremetor. When he was about to go I acked him if he could curve ne? His reply was: "I can not tell, both loogs are discassed, and the bronchial tubes are affected us both sides." And yet he scenned to think there were lungs enough left to ef-fect a care if the diarrhos could be stopped. He said in order to do this, he would wave to give Man-drake Pills in small doses at first, is carry off the morbid matter, and then, with astringens, he hoped to check it, which he did, but the constant coughing, night sweats, and duarrhes had prestrated one so dual he was afraid my vital powers were too much pro-And a great variety of fancy goods and jewelry.
