CP WARN WEATHER .- The weather has been not only warm, but hot and oppressive. On Satur-day the thermometer stood at 1001; on Sunday, at 100; on Monday, 99; on Tuesday, 991; and on Wednesday, at 96. So many consecutive days of excessively hot weather has seldom been experienced. On Wednesday evening we were visited by a fall of rain, which has somewhat cooled the atmosphere, rendering it more pleasant and agreeable.

17 Lost .- On Saturday last, in Market street, a fine linen handkershief, with the initials C. V. R marked in red, on the corner. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

157 Rev. J. F. Porter, of the M. E. Church, for merly of Shamokin, died at Hazelton, Luzerne county, on the 11th inst. Mr. Porter was a popular and worthy minister of the Gospel.

FESTIVAL AT SHANOKIN .- The fair and fes tival held at Shamokin by the ladies of the Re. formed Church, closed on Wednesday night, the 11th inst. Throughout it was well patronized, the gross receipts amounting to $1500.

Pic-Nic .- The Sunday School of the Presbyterian Church, of this place, held a pie-nic on Bird's Island, on Thursday last. The party, which was quite a large one, was conveyed to and from the island by the steam ferry boat.

TE ANOTHER FIRE IN WILLIAMSPORT -We learn that the large flouring mill of Brown & Co., in Wilwhiamsport, together with a large amount of grain, was entirely destroyed by fire on Friday last. The loss is estimated at $30,000, which is partially covered by insurance.

CLAIN AGENTS .- Our readers should be cautious how they trust claim agents, for pensions and bounty, with whom they have no acquaintance .--Lawyers and agents at home are always to be preferred. Congress has passed no late law allowing pensions or boanty. The State grants a pension only where the applicant swears that he is oppressed with poverty.

DEATH BY DROWNING .- On Tuesday evening last, about 6 o'clock, a little boy, son of Alex. Ray, was drowned in the river at this place, below Grant & Bro.'s wharf. It appears that the little fellow was wading in the water, and it is supposed fell, and was drowned. The water where the accident orcurred is very shallow, not being over two feet in depth.

STREET RAILWAY .- Our Northumberland neighbors are urging the propriety of building a passenger street-railway between this place and Northumberland, a distance of two miles, including the bridges. The project, we think, is feasible, and might perhaps be made to pay. It would certainly be a great convenience.

LTP ANOTHER MARTYR .- Sergeant Wm. F. Cox. aged 22 years, son of D. C. Cox, of Lewisburg, died on the 11th inst., from disease contracted in the prison pens of the South. He had been a member of the 112th heavy artillery, was captured in the Wilderness campaign, and suffered imprisonment of the most horrid description for more than a year, from the effects of which he lingered in constant misery, resulting altimately in death.

SASH STOPPER AND LOCK .- We refer our readers to the advertisement of J. Wilver, Jr , who has secured the right for this county to manufacture anasbeek's celebrated sash stopper and lock -- united, is just We have examined several windows where they have been nut up, and have found them as represented. been put up, and have found them as represented. game with the Susquehanna club, of this place. We learn that the game will be played to-day, (Saturday.) in the afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock, on the grounds of the Keystone club, above town, near the Augusta Hotel. The Baltimore club is a first-class one, and, of course, our boys do not expect to beat them, their object in playing being merely to obtain instruction and amusement. Should the adopted unanimously : Resolved. That we heartily endorse and re-affirm the resolutions adopted by the Union State Conven-tion, on the 7th of March Ingt. Resolved, That on the important political question of the hour, the Union men of Northumberland County firmly maintain the principles that prompted resistance to accessing and armed treason; for which resistance to seconsion and armed treason; for which more than 300,000 brave men laid down their lives; and which must be upheld if we wish to preserve Republican institutions on the continent, and do Republican institutions on the continent, and do justice to the heroic sacrifices made by the loyal people of the United States to subdue armed resis-tance by ungrateful sons to the authority of the

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of Congress on the question of reconstruction, and while reassfered is the stransferred itself to all she said and did. The power of Divine grace was manifest in giving completeness to her character. Her qualities, subordinate it on the firm and dignified position it has preserved, coming in conflict as it has with the Executive of the nation in this matter, we believe that the plan upon which the Union members have unted, is just, equitable and necessary, and that between all by an overwhelming majority. Resolved. That we owe a debt to the defenders of Resolved. That we owe a debt to the defenders of our flag that we cannot repay. The fallen heroes who offered up their lives that their country might live, shall be held in honored remembrance, and the living shall be recipients of our lasting gratifude. Resolved. That in the crisis of public affairs, full of grateful recollections of his marvellous and memo-rable services on the field of battle, we turn to the ex-ample of unfaltering and uncompromising loyalty of Lieut. Gen. GRANT with a confidence not the less identificant and unchaken because the particular of our set of the services.

The ladies of New York have introduced "crutches"-invisible affairs worn for the purpose of keeping their shoulders well up. The top of the crutch fits under the arm, whilst the piece of sta which forms the body of the crutch is firmly fixed in a convenient receptacle located in a certain portion of a lady's attire, which we will suppose that a new kind of "stay" law forbids montioning. Gentlemen who buy the elegantly fitting coats made by Mr. Jacob O. Beek, 4th street, between Market and Chesnut, have no use whatever for this new inven tion, for Beck's coats "keep well up to the shoulders" without the aid of the invisible "crutch."

13 Mrs. Lucretia Mott, the celebrated Quaker reacheress, in a recent Sunday lecture, said the time was fast approaching for women to ask higher recognition of their powers in all the various relations of life. She thought there ought to be more equality in the marriage relation ; that women ought not to be required to promise to "obey." If the stong-minded old lady ever visits this place she will, no doubt, demand a higher recognition of the superior qualities of the boots and shoes disposed of at Wm. H. Miller's Excelsior Boot and Shoe Store

In this place, on Tuesday, 17th inst., ALEXAN-DER D., son of Alexander and Matilda Ray, aged 2 years. 5 months and 25 days. In Shamokin, on the 13th inst., Mrs. SALLIE, wife of John H. Dowces, Esq., aged 26 years, 7 months and 17 days. The deceased was an exemplary and most estimable lady, whose excellent qualities endeared her to many friends. Her funeral, on Sunday last, was largely attended by friends from this place, by spc-cial train. andidate for Congress. Mr. E. Wilvert offered the following which was PACKER, daughter of S. J. and R. B. Packer, aged years. The decensed was the oldest daughter of the late Samuel J. Packer, Esq., and sister of J. B. and S. J. Packer, Esqrs., of this place. She was a lady of more than ordinary intelligence and nequirements, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her for excellence of character. But that fell destroyer of so many of the best and fairest of the land had long since marked her as a victim of his insidious but unerring power. She bore her afflictions with calmner and christian resignation, and her passage from earth to eternity was so gentle that none were conscious of the moment when the vital spark had fied.

[The following obituary notice of Mrs. Smith, widow of the late Rev. Wm. R. Smith, many years pastor of the Presbyterian Church, in this place, will be read with interest by her numerous friends in this neighborhood :] Mrs. Smith was born near Northumberland. Pa April 9, 1796, the eldest daughter of John and Re-becca Boyd. The names of her father, Captain Boyd, and of her maternal grandfather, Colonel Bull, hold an honored place in Revolutionary memory. At an early age she became a follower of Christ, and on the 10th of October, 1822, she was married to the Rev. William R. Smith, then recently 1822, sho was ordained and installed pastor of the united congre-gations of Northumberland and Sunbury. Useful and beloved, she continued to reside here until the close of 1831. After a residence of about two years in Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Smith returned to Pennsylva nia. Mr. Smith supplied various churches within the bounds of his Presbytery, and in 1837 became stated supply, as in 1847 he became pastor of his original charges, in which relation he continued with great usefulness until he was removed by death in 1840. In 1854, Joirs. Smith, following her son, re-moved with her family to Peoria, Illinois, and uniing with the Second Presbyterian church, continued in that connection until her death. Such are the brief outlines of a most beautiful life. "None knew her but to love her." Her character was transpa-rent; she was the child of the light and of day; and SAMBURG FOR HEALTH.-We have now a are and excellent pative vintage, Speer's Samburg Port wine, made from the Portugal grape by Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey.

It is said to be the most reliable wine in the market and guaranteed to be exclusively prepared from the Samburg grape, without admixture of sugar or alcohol. Physicians prescribe it as superior to Port in debility, languor, and in cases of prostration of strength. It is also an excellent restorative for indigestion. Numerous letters have been written by lawyers, lecturers, and distinguished divines speaking in high terms of approbation of the healthy and invigorating properties of Speer's Samburg Port wine. W. A. Bennett has procured some, four years old, direct from the vineyard.

EDWARD WILSON, fruits of faith, showing her life to have been hid with Christ in God-to have been pervaded through and through by religious principle, and to have been actuated, first of all, by these notives which are drawn from a regard to God's will, as the son's su-preme law, and his Infinite Self as its chief joy preme law, and his infinite Soil as its chief joy — She was a person of great sagneity of mind. Her long experience as a pastor's wife tanght her valua-ble lessons. In the new life to which her removal West introduced her, her continuous influence in society, in church, in schemes of benevelence, and circles of prayer, has been most blessed. An atmos-phere of holimess surrounded her; the light of wisdom shone in her face; and her character, united to her years fitted her to sit as an interpreties of the heat years, fitted her to sit as an interpretress of the book years, fitted her to sit as an interpreterss of the book of Providence to troubled souls, and to all an exem-plar of the graces of the religion of Jesus, not the least of which, as St James says, is "the meckness of wisdom." Mrs. Smith was a woman of great faith, and therefore eminent for prayer. Her own house, week after week, was a scone of application, where kindred spirits met around a common mercy-seat. She was a constant attendant at the daily prover median and as emicrules in the provention to the where kindred spirits met around a common mercy-seat She was a constant attendant at the daily prayer-meeting, and as uniformly in her place in the anotuary of worship. The practical fruits of such a piety must have been great ; consequently we find the woman of three score years and ten side by side with those of more youthful vigor and fire, in every work and labor of love. Her venerated form was over seen entering the place of sickness and the house of mourning. We beheld her, almost to her very death-bed, wending her way to neglected quar-ters of the city, and breaking to famishing souls the bread of life; and in the sterner times of the past five years, animated by an interest unusual to one of her years in the tremendous struggle of our nation for its life, she was constant in her labors for the soldier, whom she honored and loved. In the en-joyment of a serene old age she wassuddenly stricken down by apoplexy. She did not leave a dying tos-timony of her faith in the Saviour. Was it necessar-ting added to such a life would be git added to gold. She died as God would have her die, and the unearthly beauty of that now vanished face told us of the spotless holiness of the disembo-died spirit which, as from a childlike slumber, awoke to glory and to the presence of the Redeemer. Her remains were followed to their last resting place, in our beautiful cemetery, by a large concourse of friends, and at sumet on Sturday evening—the vening. remains were followed to their fist resting place, in our beautiful cemetery, by a large concourse of friends, and at sunset on Saturday evening—the very day and hour when her husband was committed to his grave—beneath the shadow of the sanctnary where he had so long preached Christ, we laid her down to rest till the resurrection.
