SATURDAY, OUTOBER 20, 1866.

Local Affairs. THE TRAINS were delayed several times, the past week, by slides in the narrows, below this place.

CHOLERA .- We regret to learn that Mr. V. bler, proprietor of the U. S. Hotel at Williams port, died suddenly of cholers, on Wednesday evening last, having been taken ill in the forenoon of the same day Mr. D. and Mr. Long, from Lock Haven, who also died of cholera last week at that place, had but recently returned together from a visit to New ADVERTISED LETTERS .- The Post Office Department at Washington has instructed the different Post Masters in the United States not to advertise the list of letters remaining uncalled for in all offices of the second class, consequently the lists from the Post Office at Sunbury will not be advertised hereafter. Manuscript lists will be posted in the office for the inspection of the public.

TWO VALUABLE FARMS POR SALE,-Our old friend, Elida John, Esq., having purchased property in the West, offers for sale two valuable farms, one containing 110 acres and the other 90, situated in Shamokin township, this county. These farms are well improved, and besides the dwelling houses, have all the necessary outbuildings. Persons wishing to purchase good farms, and near the coal region, will do well to call and see the property. See advertisement in another column.

APPLES.—The crop of apples were seldom ever more abundant in this place, than the present season, though in some localities, distant from the river, they are said to be scarce. We saw, some days since, in the yard of Mr. Sol. Brocious, of this place, eighteen barrels of very superior apples, among them the maidens' blush, belle-fleur, doctor apple, and other fine varieties. Mr. Brocious gathered from the 6 or 8 trees, planted by himself, in his small lot, over one hundred bushels of very choice fruit, and realizes as much clear money as some small farmers, and with little or no labor.

PAVEMENTS .- A large amount of paving has already been done in this place under the late ordinance, but there is yet much more to be made to com plete the work. Some of the stone paying is well laid, others indifferent. Properly, the stone should be squared, but this is objected to on account of expense. But no stone should be put down without being dressed to a strait edge, so as to make close joints. At the present high price of stone, no small pieces should be counted in, to fill out irregular shapes.

NARROW ESCAPE .- The Shamokin Herald of last week, says that on Monday, 8th inst., a son of Daniel Yost attempted to pass in front of a train of empty cars that were being pushed up the Big Mountain railroad to the different collieries, when he was knocked down. Fortunately, he fell between the rails, and at the direction of the brakesman lay perfectly quiet while the moving cars passed over him. The engineer was notified and stopped the locomotive before it reached him, or be would have been crushed to death by the dust pan. He escaped with but a few slight bruises. This instance affords another warning to those who rush carelessly in front of moving trains.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE .- Our neighbor of the Gazette has been informed of an extraordingry case of a living animal inside of a human being lately developed in Lower Augusta township. _ Adam | John E. Smick's tailoring establishment, on Fourth Rowe, of that township, had, for some twelve or street, and examine his fall goods. fifteen years, been in bad health, being troubled with internal pains and a general prostration of his dy that was recommended to him-the sakes of the before the police court for creating a disturbance, Catawba grape vine taken with wine-and eventu- and the fine inflicted used up all the money. ally evacuated a dead blacksnake measuring about from him, which occurred several months ago, Mr. Rowe has rapidly regained his health.

Union JOLLIFICATION AT LEWISBURG .- OUR Lewisburg friends had a jollification at that place on Tuesday night last, over the result of the late elections. A large number of houses were brilliantly illuminated, and the streets were crowded with people. An invitation having been extended to the Union citizens of this place to participate, about one hundred and fifty persons were present from Sunbury. The steamer "Ira T. Clement" was engaged for the occasion. The boat left here about 8 o'clock and returned about midnight. It was a most delightful moonlight excursion, and all seemed to and do not need it," is very often the objection made ings there was a torch-light parade through the different streets of the town. Congratulatory speeches were made by Prof. Loomis, of the University, and our esteemed Congressional representative, Hon. Geo. F. Miller.

THE CHOLENA.-A timid gentleman meeting a octor, in Sunbury, the other day, the following colloquy took place : "Doctor, what shall I take for the cholera?" "The cholera? Have you got the sholera ?" "No." "Well, take the cholera first." We would much rather take a pair of those splendid Boots or Shoes which Harry Thacher has for sale at his store, in Market street, Sunbury. THE LATE ELECTIONS. - It was thought and hoped that the election would quiet the politicians and give us some peace. But they are like old Boreas, who, not content with giving us the "equinoctial," has, as the brokers say, "resumed operations," and commenced blowing again for nothing, for all we can see. If any blowing is wanted just now, it is about the splendid Fall and Winter Suits selling at the Continental Clothing Bayaar, corner of Third and Market, Sunbury. We would further add that the Continental has just been supplied with the greatest stock of Fall and Winter Clothing that has ever been brought to this place.

A MISTAKE IN A BARBER'S SHOP .- A laughable mistake occurred in a Baltimore barber's shop, recently. Two gentlemen hung up their coats and sat down to be shaved at about the same time. One of down to be shaved at about the same time. One of them, for whom the operation was completed first, arose, and by mistake donned the other one's coat, in the pocket of which was a wailet containing $2,500. Off he walked, but a policeman soon overtook him. When the charge against him was explained he became greatly alterned about the safety of his own coat, in the pocket of which was the sum of $5,000. Explanations followed, coats were exchanged, and each found his money safe. It is unnecessary to add that both of these valuable coats were manufactured at the celebrated tailoring establishment of Mr. Jacob O. Beck, Fourth street, Sanbury.
