

THE "HUMORS" AND BOORISHNESS OF THE GAZETTE.

The editor of the Gazette, last week, in commenting on the illustrations of the Democrat, intending to represent ourselves among other Republicans, could not resist the opportunity that enabled him to give us a back-handed compliment by enlarging on what the Democrat and Selins-Grove Times had to say of us, but we fear in a spirit much less manly and candid. We never received, and certainly never expected anything complimentary from our neighbor, but while he had something clever to say of all the others referred to, the smallest modicum of magnanimity, if he ever was conscious of such a virtue, should have shielded us from his Partisan arrows, however harmless they were, on such an occasion.

No use is more expeditious in beating about the bush than the editor of the Gazette, and to "hint a fault or hesitate dislike," is not applicable alone to the hero of Poppe. Those who know us will testify that, in our columns, we never indulged in personal attacks, covertly or otherwise, except in self-defense. We envy no one, not even our neighbor the editor of the Gazette, and we trust "our enlargement," as he terms it, will find no parallel in the fable of "the frog and the ox," personally or pecuniarily.

We did not deem it necessary to make an apology, because we did not reach home in time to vote, though we traveled one night to do so, for the reason that it is a personal right, the exercise of which no one has a right to question. But since the editor of the Gazette has seen proper to refer to the matter, we do not hesitate to say, that we think it decidedly less reprehensible not to vote at all than to vote on the wrong side, or even to labor under the suspicion of having done so, a suspicion so general that, in effect, it is almost equivalent to a fact.

The disclaimer that he asks no favors (patronage) from Mr. Leisinger, and that he would decline them if offered, is putting it on rather thick, and is, to use his own language "too absurd to take hold of people who have the slightest knowledge of human nature." If the editor of the American has "never done any serious damage to any political party," he has at least been shrewd enough not to injure his own, which is, perhaps, more than can be truly said of the Gazette, which, by its erratic course, has been charged with having damaged all the various parties to which it has belonged.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—According to the returns received by the Secretary of State at Harrisburg, the result of the recent election in Pennsylvania is officially reported to be that for Supreme Judge, Geo. Sharswood, Democrat, received 367,746 votes, and Henry W. Williams, Republican, 266,824 votes, a Democratic majority of 922. Last year the Republican vote was 307,274, and the Democratic vote 290,096, a Republican majority of 17,178. Comparing this year with last, the total vote has fallen off 53,320, of which 30,450 are on the Republican side, and 22,870 on the Democratic side. This falling off is largest in counties that go strongly for one or the other party, such as Allegheny, Lancaster, Berks, Monroe, Luzerne and others, but there is also a moderate falling off noticed in all parts of the State. Except there is a Governor or members of Congress, involving some decided issue either National or State, it seems the vote will not come out. While we heartily deprecate this apathy we cannot see how it is to be remedied. If even the county of Allegheny, in which Judge Williams resides, had thrown as heavy a vote for the Republican candidate for Supreme Judge, this year, as it did for Gen. Geary, last year, Williams would have had a majority of 653.

SOUTHERN SETTLEMENT.—The unfortunate results of our late elections are beginning to show in the South. The evidence does not come from one State or section, but from all, and is marked in a higher spirit among the late rebels, and a greater determination to carry their own measures in their own way. And these measures are, all of them, naturally hostile to the end which loyal men desire to see attained, and to those political results which we consider essential to the pacification of the South, and quiet and increased business over the whole country. In Louisiana the effect has been as patent as anywhere. There all that has been gained is threatened with loss. In Florida and Arkansas, and Alabama and Texas, we hear that those who were quiet and agitated by hopes of a revulsion which will restore them to power, and so encouraged, are unwilling to concede anything to the necessities of the period. The same is true of Virginia. The late rebels have not failed to construe the results here as was prophesied. The fact deserves to be noticed, as a proper attention may yet save us from all of the stormy consequences which threaten the future.

SOUTHERN ABANDONMENT.—It is curious to see how the reasoning of political writers—more anxious to establish some particular crochets of their own than to get at the truth—often comes round in a circle. The Charleston Mercury is very severe on the people of the North for disregarding the Constitution. "There can be no stability in the Government of any country," it says, "with every citizen possessing the right to resist its laws whenever they deem it expedient to do so." That is precisely what we insisted on during the rebellion. The great object of the war was to prevent "resistance to the law," and to establish the Constitution as the supreme law of the land. The work, moreover, was pretty thoroughly done.

Most of the workmen employed at the Antietam National Cemetery have been discharged. 100,000 copies of the last annual agricultural report are now being printed by the government. Advice from Montana, dated the 8th inst., state that the Flathead and other Indian tribes threaten an outbreak.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 22.—Hawhurst, from Alexandria, and Nickerson, from Alexandria and Fairfax, both Radicals, are selected to the convention. The majority for the convention in Alexandria is 500. The blacks voted for Radicals and the whites for Conservatives, with few exceptions. Dispatches to the Alexandria Gazette from Louisa, Culpeper, and Orange, indicate that the counties have been tried by the Radicals.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Secretary McCulloch yesterday pronounced as false in every particular the statement published in an afternoon paper, of this city, on Friday, that upwards of one million of counterfeit 7.30 bonds had been circulated, and that the headquarters of the counterfeiters were in Philadelphia, and the bonds printed there. Up to the closing of business hours yesterday, about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the counterfeit bonds had been discovered and reported to the Treasury Department. It seems probable that the investigation made, and that the issue of the counterfeit bonds is of recent date. This is important to bondholders, for it will be safe to conclude that bonds purchased prior to the date of the issue of the counterfeiters are genuine.

THE PRESIDENT VS. CONGRESS. It is understood that President Johnson pretends to be exceedingly annoyed at the publication in the Boston Post of the substance of a conversation held between him and its correspondent, in which he (the President) avowed his determination to resist with all the means in his power, in case Congress should attempt to suspend him before impeachment. There is no doubt that Mr. Johnson did use this language, and desired to have it published in order that the country might understand his true position. It appears now, however, that he is a little alarmed at the strong language employed, and is disposed to back down or disavow it entirely.

LATEST FROM EUROPE. GARIBALDI'S ESCAPE REPEATED. FLORENCE, Oct. 21.—The reports that Garibaldi has disappeared from the Island of Caprera are reiterated, and seem to meet with no contradiction. RESIGNATION OF RATAZZI. Ratazzi has resigned, to be succeeded by General Menabrea. GARIBALDIANS STILL IN THE PAPAL TERRITORY. Some bands of the insurgents remain in the Papal territory, and the evacuation was not complete as was previously reported. SPEECH OF RATAZZI.—PROCLAMATION OF GARIBALDI. FLORENCE, Oct. 21.—Midnight.—Ratazzi addressed a large crowd of people, to-night, who were making a demonstration in favor of Garibaldi, and declared in the most emphatic manner that King Victor Emmanuel would maintain the honor of the nation in the crisis. Garibaldi has issued another proclamation which adds to the prevailing excitement. He exhorts the people to persevere in their patriotic struggle, and bids them to hope that the national honor may yet be redeemed.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—Evening.—Official assurances have been given that the Government will not find it necessary to send a military expedition into Algeria, and that the force which had been massed for that purpose will be dissolved. The Bourse is greatly relieved, and Rentes are buoyant. THE PENIAN TRIALS.—AN INFORMER SHOT. DUBLIN, Oct. 21.—The trials of General Nagle, Colonel Warren, and other prominent State prisoners, implicated in the Fenian conspiracy, commenced on the 21st inst. before a special commission. It is said the United States Government will provide for the defense of Nagle and Warren. Informer Reilly has been shot and badly wounded, near this city. The military stock recently been fired upon in the night, but none hurt. The authorities are engaged in vigorous search for the perpetrators.

THE SIEGE OF HUMAITA. MONTEVIDEO, Aug. 29. POSTSCRIPTUM FROM THE SEAT OF THE WAR.—An engagement has taken place between a train of the Allied troops and a detachment of the enemy. The Paraguayans have 150 men killed and a great many wounded; an officer and about 300 soldiers have been taken prisoners. The passage of Curupaity has been forced; the squadron has effected the passage without being affected by the numerous torpedoes, which the skill of the pilots enabled them to avoid. The shipping news from the port of Montevideo is cheerful character. At the time of the departure of the mail boat, news had come in, stating that the bombardment of Humaita continued, and that the steamboat Tamadai, which had her machinery damaged, is repaired and ready again for action. FROM THE PLAINS. PROGRESS OF THE INDIAN BUSINESS.—THE COUNCIL—DESIRE FOR PEACE—ISSUE OF PROVISIONS—WAR PARTIES ALL IN. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19.—A dispatch to the Republican, dated Medicine Lodge creek, October 17, says the Indian business progresses slowly, and there is a good prospect that a treaty will be made and a lasting peace established. A council will commence on Saturday, October 19, lasting four or five days. Runners had been sent out to notify the outlying bands. Yesterday the Dog Soldiers, with their chiefs, Tall Bull, White Horse, Little Bear, and Gray Head, came and had an interview. They professed a desire for peace and promised to come to the council. The Penetichel Commanches or Honey Eaters, under Spence Brocade and the Noconoes of Warriors, under their chief, Horseback, reached here on Wednesday. They came from Texas, three hundred miles south of the Little Arkansas. Superintendent Murphy yesterday issued a week's provisions to five thousand Indians. Every Southern Cheyenne lodge will be at this point to-morrow, making from seven to ten thousand Indians present. All the war parties are in, except a fragment consisting of twenty men, who left their party in the Smoky Hills. They had to visit the Northern Cheyennes. A letter of the Hon. Henry W. Williams late Republican candidate for Supreme Judge, to the editor of The Press, dated Pittsburgh, October 12th, contains the following good counsel: "Instead of being discouraged, the loyal citizens should grid up their loins for the next year's Presidential contest, resolved on victory; and, if true to themselves and the principles for which they have made such sacrifices of blood and treasure, they will assuredly succeed."
