

Local Affairs.

The snow which fell on Tuesday last was about eight inches in depth. This addition to the snow on the ground makes the delightful conditions.

Our Borough fathers have not yet wakened up to the necessity of employing a snow-plow to make paths over the crossings, and help the poor and helpless to get along.

The appointment of Daniel Burman as Postmaster at Milton has been rejected by the Senate. Mr. Burman is acting as Special Agent of the Post Office Department, at present.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS.—John E. Smiek gives notice to parties indebted to him for clothing, and other work done in the tailoring business, that they will save costs by calling upon him and making settlement of their indebtedness.

NEW HARNESSES AND SADDLERY FIRM.—A. J. Stroth, the well known saddle and harness maker of this place, has associated with him in his business Mr. John W. Farnsworth, and the new firm continues the business in the shop nearly opposite the Central Hotel. They are turning out an excellent quality of work. Stroth is still in the livery and harnessing business.

ICE BROKEN.—On Wednesday last Mr. Isaac App, of Selingsgrove, while crossing the river on the ice at this place, with two mules and a horse to his sled, when near the shore got off the track and broke through the thin ice where it had previously been cut out. By prompt assistance the horse and one of the mules were saved. The other mule was drowned. In Massachusetts ice-cutters are compelled by law to put up some grade to designate the openings made.

THE BRIDGES ON THE SHAMONIA VALLEY ROAD, between this place and Mt. Carmel, are all being rebuilt and enlarged by the Northern Central Railroad Company. The object in enlarging the bridges is to accommodate the large engines and cars for a through line of passenger cars between this place and New York. The line will make close connections, at this place, with the trains from Erie and Lehigh, and will be a short and competing line between Erie and New York. The bridges will all be completed before the first of April next.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—On Monday night last, about 9 o'clock, a man who was lying across the railroad track was run over and cut in two, near Watonsville, by a freight train. He was not seen until struck by the engine. His remains were taken by the train to Williamsport. On his person were found but one dollar in money and a certificate to Joseph H. Kline, the name of the unfortunate man, for a third class passenger's license, issued at Middletown, Snyder county. The deceased is said to be from Selingsgrove. His body was still warm when found.

THE RAINS OF 1867.—By the record kept at the Philadelphia Hospital, in Philadelphia, it appears that the rain fall, at that place, during 1867, was 61 inches. This amount of rain exceeds the rain fall of any other year on record. In 1859, however, 58 inches fell. The fall in June has never been but once exceeded, and that for July was 4 inches more than had ever fallen in a month. The least amount for any one month was 2 1/2 inches, in 1825. The average of thirty years is 4 1/2 inches.

DRS. WENGERT & CO., Lung, Throat, Heart and Blood Physicians, can be consulted at all hours of the day, at the Sunbury Home, Georgetown, Northumberland Co., Pa. Tuesday, January 25th, to Monday, February 2d, 1898, whenever they will call on all who are sick or ailing, with any disease or complaint, and be examined with Stethoscope Electricity. They readily detect the stages of the diseased organs of man, and will tell their patients frankly whether a cure can be effected or relief given. Their rooms are generally crowded in the afternoon.

THE BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Sunbury Mutual Saving Food and Building Association, held on Friday evening, Jan. 17th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Vice President—John M. Caldwell; Secretary—J. Walter Buecher; Treasurer—H. Y. Friling; Collector—J. M. Haupt.

Directors—Emanuel Wilner, F. R. Lightner, J. W. Friling, Levi Schuchler, H. T. Menager, Jacob Shipman, Ira T. Clement, John G. Markle, Valentine Dietz, M. C. Gearhart, John Hase, John Clark, D. C. Dinsinger, N. F. Harz, William H. Miller, George B. Caldwell, Townsend Hill, and K. B. McCoy.

At a meeting of the Directors, on Monday evening last, the following officers were elected: President—Townsend Hill; Trustees—John G. Markle, John W. Friling and Ira T. Clement.

Examining Committee—John G. Markle, John W. Friling and Valentine Dietz.

THE NORTHEASTERN COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—We have been furnished with a portion of the proceedings of this body, which has been in session at the Court House, in this place, during the past week, for publication, but prefer giving them entire next week.

The attendance is said to be unusually large and the proceedings more than ordinarily interesting. The commodious and elegant accommodations afforded them in the new Court room was, of itself, a great attraction. Besides this, in the evenings, the proceedings were entertained by excellent musicians in the gallery, by the Sunbury String Band, accompanied with a cabinet organ.

Among the principal strangers in attendance was Professor Sanders, of New York, with specimens of his school books. The Professor complimented the Institute, and said, among other things, that the chamber they occupied was the most spacious and elegant Court room he ever saw.

Addresses were delivered during the evening sessions by Professors Miles, of Williamsport; Sanders, of New York; Schneider and Rev. Mr. Bergart, of Sunbury, and on Thursday evening by Prof. Allen, Prof. Coburn, and others. These lectures contained many good points, but some of them were entirely too long-winded. Few men have sufficient ability and genius to justify a lecture of more than one hour in its delivery. As a general rule a lecturer, after writing his lecture, should resolve to expunge freely and endeavor to condense the whole into about one-half the original space. The meetings of the Institute have been well attended, and seem to be satisfactory to all concerned. Whether they are of any great pecuniary value or not, they are certainly commendable as a social and pleasant reunion, tending to encourage and promote cheerfulness and good feeling among the teachers of the profession.

Shamonia Coal Trade.

FRIDAY MORNING, 10th inst., between 2 and 3 o'clock, a fire broke out in a room in Mr. H. A. Stuber's residence, in Shamonia, in which Mrs. S. has her stock of millinery goods, and when discovered the smaller was burning and the room filled with smoke. Mrs. S. was made aware of the fire on passing through the entry, by observing smoke issuing from under the door, and upon attempting to enter, found the room densely filled with it. She closed the door and gave the alarm, which brought assistance in time to extinguish the fire before it caught into flames. While but little was lost, the damage done to the stock by the smoke and water is estimated at over $700, on which there is an insurance of $250 in the Columbia Company. How the fire originated is not definitely known, but the general supposition is that it was carried in a cloth thrown under the counter, after being used to dust the stove.

THE SHAMONIA COAL TRADE.—The amount of coal shipped from the Shamonia coal region over the Shamonia division of the Northern Central Railroad, during the year 1897, was 485,897 tons, against 557,106 tons in 1896, a decrease of 71,209 tons. This does not, however, give the entire production of the region, from the fact that during the year the Enterprise road has been extended to four collieries, and carried from them the following amounts:

Table with 3 columns: Colliery, Tons, Cwt. Enterprise, 22,107 17; Lenoir, 38,070 10; Total, 60,177 27.

From which deduct decrease by Northern Central Road, and it leaves the total product of the region for the year 1897 as 545,997 tons. In 1896, besides taking into account the shipment from the Beliance colliery, which may be set down at 20,000 tons.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE PHILA. & ERIE RAILROAD.—The Muncy Luminary says that on Monday evening of last week Mr. Jonathan Bower, of Clinton township, Lycoming county, was instantly killed at Montgomery Station, on the Phila. & Erie Railroad. It is reported that Mr. Bower was doing some hauling about the Station with two horses and a wagon, and while crossing the track in the evening, the gravel train came along at a rapid rate, and as it passed by several persons who were present, without blowing the whistle or giving the usual signal at stations and crossings, instantly killing Mr. Bower, and so much injuring both horses that they had to be killed to put them out of their misery. Mr. Bower was the main support of an aged father and a sister. His age was about 50 years.

THE NEW MASONIC LODGE at Watonsville. WATONSVILLE, Jan. 21st, 1898. EDITOR AMERICAN:—The solemn and impressive ceremonies of constituting Lodge No. 401, A. Y. M., at Watonsville, on Thursday last, was unanimously looked by the neighboring Lodges, and all passed off pleasantly. Your townsmen, Rev. W. C. Cremer, represented the old Sunbury Lodge with credit to himself and honor to the fraternity, and although we cannot boast of the quantity of the representatives of No. 22, we were well pleased with the quality.

Bro. Cremer acted as Grand Chaplain, and also made a very nice little speech, (acting for the W. M.) in relation to the reception of a very fine letter presented to the Lodge by the ladies of this place. The following are the elected officers of our Lodge.—Joseph Hoppelster, W. M.; J. H. Foller, S. W.; Dr. John Gosh, J. W.; R. H. McCormick, Secretary; George Durso, Treasurer. The appointed officers are—J. W. Muffley, S. D.; Franklin McWilliams, J. C.; John Sittler, S. M. C.; Joe R. Seiler, J. M. C.; Isaac Metzger, Purveyor.

Editor's Table.—"THE BLUE-COATS, and HOW THEY LIVED, FIGHTED AND DIED FOR THE UNION; WITH SKETCHES AND INCIDENTS IN THE GREAT REBELLION," is the title of a handsome little volume, just issued by Jones Brothers & Co., Philadelphia, Pa. There is a certain portion of the war that will give us into the regulations, but this is not in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or official narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the war, and the heroic action of the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the soldiers, the beginning of the war, the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form. The volume is profusely illustrated with over 100 fine engravings, by the first artists, and its contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, duty, scout, bivouac, siege, and battle-field, with thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drillery, comical and ludicrous anecdotes, etc., etc. Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art. It is just such a volume as will find numerous purchasers in the work-department, who are seeking to act as book agents should add to their list.

THE LAST FEIKERS, FOR FEBRUARY.—A beautiful steel engraving, representing the killing of Moses in the bush, opens this number of the "Queen of the Monthlies." The double steel fashion plate is as refined and elegant as usual, and most strikingly attractive. It is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or official narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the pathos of the war. Business Notices.

Business Notices.—A gentleman who has had a large number of blank forms, ready printed, which we sell at ten cents per copy. As the season for leasing property is at hand, and as a large number of them will be required, we are able to supply the demand. We have them printed with and without the exemption clause.

THE PRICE OF LUMBER.—Patrick Henry truly observed that "Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty." He might as truthfully have said that to become wealthy is to practice economy by purchasing your Boots and Shoes at Wm. H. Miller, the Excelsior Store, Market Square, Sunbury.—Money will be saved by buying from him, as he has the cheapest and best in market. Call and see him.

APPAIRS AT WASHINGTON still seem to be in a muddle, and the heads of statesmen are somewhat perplexed. When matters are made straight, we may expect things to go on swimmingly, (though rather a cool comparison this of a man wearing) and not more blazes, just like a man wearing a suit of winter clothing at J. F. Shaffer's Merchant Tailoring establishment on Market Square. He looks at the goods, asks the price, pays the money, and takes them away, well satisfied that he "might go farther and fare worse."

DOWN THEY GO.—Prices are down 40 per cent. at J. O. Beck's Merchant Tailoring and Clothing establishment, on Fourth street. He has just opened a splendid assortment of goods, which he will make up to order, in the best manner, and at the lowest prices.

NEWS.—Look out for the new Winter styles of Cloths, Casimeres, &c., at the Continental Clothing Bazaar, Market Square, Sunbury. Slaymaker is determined not to be outdone, in point of cheapness, beauty and durability of his goods, by any one in the county.

GRAND FURNACE.—If you want to see a grand array of richly tinted and Hockley pictures, walk up to Beryl's Gallery. Some taken few days ago, in tone, correct likeness and artistic finish, are certainly very superior specimens of art. Beryl's popular Gallery is in Simpson's building, Market Square.

CHEMICAL FACTS.—At the least among the cheering news is the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, showing such a healthy state of the finances, which must place our financial reputation abroad on a par with our physical fame. Not less cheerful is it to see brisk trade at Faust's fashionable Hat and Cap Emporium, in Market Square. He has the finest stock of goods ever brought to this section of the county.

MARRIAGES.—At Bontempsport, Iowa, Tuesday Evening, Dec. 21st at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. A. Laubach, Mr. L. D. GOSLER, formerly of this place, and Miss ANNA M. CHENEVELL, of the former place.

Are the best in Use, FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS: They are more simple and durable, easier kept in order, make a stronger and more elastic stitch, a framer and more beautiful seam than any other. They sew all fabrics from two common grades, require no re-winding of thread, fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation, and though every fifth stitch is cut the seam will not rip.
