This Distressing Affection—which renders Life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indegences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost somer by those failing into improper nabits than by the prudents? Discusse of Imprudence.

When the miguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful discusse, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befreend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid discusse make their appearance, such as ulcerated sure throat, discussed mose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and cattennias, progressing with frightful tapidity, till at lest the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful discusse becomes a horrid object of commiscration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that "Deadly Poison, Mercury," run the constitution and make the residue of life miscrable.
