THE ODD FALLOWS' CHLURRATION, in this piace, on Saturday next, the 4th of July, promises to be a grand attair. The Committee of Arrangements have extended invitations to about eighty Lodges and Camps, and a large portion of them have already notified the committee of their intentions to be present. Several bands have been engaged for the

Since the invitations were issued by Fort Augusta Lodge No. 620, there have been added to the Committee of Arrangements committees from Sunbury Lodge No. 203 and Fort Augusta Camp No. 140. The joint committees are working unceasingly to perfect their arrangements.

Past Grand Townsend Himes, of Lodge No. 620, has been appointed Chief Marshal, and has named the following Brothers as his staff: -Bro. J. S. Angle, of Lodge No. 620, Aid Commanding First Division ; Bro. A. N. Brice, of Lodge No. 203, Aid Commanding Second Division; Patriarch Em'l Wilvert, of Camp No. 140, Commanding Third Division; Special Aids-Brothers Past Grand E. M. Bucher, of No. 203; J. E. Terrington, of No. 620; and Patriarch John Clark, of Camp No. 140.

The following is the programme decided upon for the occasion:—The visiting Lodges will be received, There appears to have been an unusually large will escort them to their quarters and take charge of upon their arrival, by a reception committee, who number of persons killed by lightning, this season, them, while the Marshals of the visiting Lodges and Camps will report themselves personally at the more than usually faithful in chronicling such dis- Head Quarters of the Chief Marshal and Staff, second story of Haupt's new building, for instructions.-The grand procession, in honor of the Grand Lodge Court House, on Monday and Tuesday last. At 2 o'clock the procession will form in the same order, and at the point they separated, and march to the Court House, the use of which the County Commissioners have generously offered to the Committee, there to be addressed by Past Grand Sire James B. Nicholson, and other eminent speakers of the order. The procession will then form and march to the sepstate division Head Quarters and dismiss in time for the 4.10 P. M. train.

STRAWBERRIES.—This delicious fruit is now abundantly supplied in our markets. The fruit is, however, not so abundant in all localities. Strawberry festivals are now the order of the day, which, with cake and ice cream, constitute the main staple of modern festivals at this season of the year.

As a general thing fruits are not as generally cultivated as they should be, though we are fast beginning to learn its value. There is nothing more wholesome than fruits eaten in season. The small fruits, strawberries, raspberries, and others, may be eaten with sugar, but cream or milk should be avoidriver, which grow two or three feet in length, pre- ed if the question of health is to be consulted. It is also better to eat it in the morning, say for brenkspecimen was taken to the Blockbouse, in a large fast, than later. The old adage that "fruit is gold in the morning, silver at noon, and lead in the evening," is a trueism new universally acknowledged. Episcopal Church held their Strawberry Festival, in In the use of sugar for small fruits, fine pulverized should be used, instead of granulated, as it is not only better, but decidedly more economical, as any one can learn by making the experiment. Only that portion which is melted in the mouth is tasted, their Festival, in the hall of the Court House, on the remainder, perhaps one-half, is swallowed undissolved. Confectioners understand this matter. The vulgar idea that fine pulverized sugar is adulterated with flour is without foundation. If it were so, a test is at hand; a teaspoonful dissolved in a glass of water would soon detect its presence. If pure the water will became perfectly clear. If adulterated, the flour will be deposited at the bottom

Christopher Oberlander, who reside in the classic locality of Swampoodle, commenced the week by having a difficulty about a woman who had, by turns, lavished the wealth of her affections upon both. The result was that Oberlander caught Clush by the collar, and in the struggle that followed, both fell back on the lounge. Oberlander became sick, and was taken up stairs and laid in bed, where he soon died. A jury was empanneled and an examination held, Justice Cramer acting as Coroner .-The testimony developed the fact that deceased was subject to a disease of the heart, and the physicians who made the post mortem examination-Drs. Pollock and Treadway-were decided in the opinion that death was caused by disease of the heart, as they found that oscification had taken place to an extent lishments for the supply of provisions is one from sufficient to produce death when laboring under great excitement. THE MIDDLECREEK RAILROAD.-The work on the Middlecreek Railroad is progressing finely. About two-thirds of the road, between this and Selinsgrove, has been graded, and the appearance of the state of affairs has a favorable aspect. We can no longer see any just reason why the road should not be built. Sufficient money can be secured to get the road in running order between this place and Selinsgrove, which is about one-fourth of the distance. After capitalists from abroad see that our people are in earnest about the matter they will lend us a helping hand. Engineer Arms informed us that he had partly made arrangements with a party to furnish a locomotive for the road on liberal terms. Every day brings with it something new which adds to the success of the undestables. The the distance. After capitalists from abroad see that which adds to the success of the undertaking. REMEDY FOR THE CURRANT WORM .- Our friend, H. Y. Friling, Esq , informs us that he has tried successfully the application of sifted coal ashes (white ash coal) to the leaves and stalks of current bushes, which had the desired effect of killing the FURNITURE ROOMS troublesome current worm. The morning is the best time to apply the ashes, when the dew is on the teaves. One application is generally sufficient, al-though Mr. Friling has found two or three necessary in one or two cases. The ashes should be sifted over the branches until the leaves are white, when the worms will "curl up" immediately.
