Dangerous Counterfeit $100
National Bank notes are in circulation. They are exceedingly well executed, and will deceive the majority of persons into whose hands they fall. The engraving is very fine, and the printing as perfect as it could be done. These notes are on the Central National Bank of New York, and on the Ohio National Bank of Cincinnati. Twenty-dollar bills, altered from fives on the First National Bank of Boston, are also in circulation.

MARBLE YARD.—Mr. Wm. M. Daugherty, proprietor of the Sunbury Marble Yard, has a splendid variety of monuments, tombstones, &c., at his establishment on the north-west corner of Market Square. Some of the designs made by Mr. Daugherty are beautiful, and attract a great deal of attention. He is an experienced marble cutter and should be patronized by those who desire to purchase anything in his line of business. Mr. John A. Taylor, well known in this place and vicinity as a superior workman, is connected with this establishment.

Almost A Fire.—On Monday afternoon last the building in which the American office is located narrowly escaped destruction by fire. Some boy threw a fire-cracker upon the roof, which, being very dry, ignited. The alarm was promptly given, and with the application of a few buckets of water the fire was put out. A MONSTER BEAR ON A RAID .- On last Monday evening a young man named Samuel Graver, and two brothers named Lawson, residing near Lawson's farm, in Armstrong township, about eight miles from this city, heard a very unusual commotion among Upper Augusta—Jacob Sessholtz and H. G. Kline.

Lower Augusta—Elias Emerich, Isaac Martz and locality, armed with an axe. and accompanied by their dogs, they perceived an enormous bear amusing himself with one of the porkers by catching it and letting it go, much the same as a cat trifles with a mouse. He allowed them to approach quite close to him, and when they were on the point of cutting at him, he deliberately walked off. They pursued him so closely that he took refuge up a tree, from which they soon dislodged him by the aid of the dogs He now started toward the mountain, but they kept so close in his rear that he again sought safety in a tree, but was brought down as before. In this way he arrived at the mountain, and again Took his position in a tree. They, however, finally brought him down, and determining to bring matters to a climax, surrounded the tree, and as soon as he reached the ground, "went for him," and succeeded in cutting him severely in the ribs. At this juncture one of the dogs sprang upon him, but bruin Sunbury, E. W .- Dr. D. W. A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleeding of the lungs, cored himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his midicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others, induced him to hazard the experiment.
