

TERMS OF THE "AMERICAN."

TERMS—TWO DOLLARS per annum. $3 50 if paid within the year. No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid.

JOB PRINTING.

We have connected with our establishment a well selected JOB OFFICE, which will enable us to execute, in the neatest style, every variety of Printing.

BUSINESS CARDS.

G. W. HAUPT, Attorney and Counselor at Law, OFFICE in Haupt's new building, on second floor, Entrance on Market Square, SUNBURY, PA.

C. A. REIMENSDYER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, SUNBURY, PA. All business entrusted to his care attended to promptly and with diligence.

JNO. KAY CLEMENT, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Business in this and adjoining counties carefully and promptly attended to.

JACOB SHIPMAN, FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE AGENT, SUNBURY, PENN'A.

FARMERS Mutual Fire Insurance Co., York Pa., Cumberland Valley Mutual Protection Co., New York Mutual Life, Grand Life of Phila. & Hartford Coun. General Accident.

BRUNER & KASH, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, Chestnut Street, west of the N. C. and P. E. Railroad Depot, in the building lately occupied by F. A. Hughes.

BOYER & WOLVERTON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, SUNBURY, PENN'A.

S. B. Boyer and J. W. WOLVERTON, respectfully announce that they have entered into partnership in the practice of their profession in Northumberland and adjoining counties.

H. B. MASSER, Attorney at Law, SUNBURY, PA.—A collection attended to in the counties of Northumberland, Luzerne, Snyder, Mifflin, Columbia and Lycoming.

WM. M. ROCKEFELLER, LLOYD T. ROBBACH, ROCKEFELLER & ROBBACH, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, SUNBURY, PENN'A.

Office in Haupt's new building, second floor, Entrance on Market Square, Sunbury, January 4, 1868.

Teeth! Teeth!

J. H. HENNINGSON, DENTIST, Formerly of ASHLAND, O., announces to the citizens of Northumberland county, that he has located in SUNBURY for the practice of Dentistry, and respectfully solicits your patronage.

GEORGE HILL, HILL & WOLVERTON, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, SUNBURY, PA.

G. W. KIEGLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, North Side of Public Square, on door east of the Old Bank Building, SUNBURY, PENN'A.

T. H. PURDY, J. D. JAMES, FURDY & JAMES, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, SUNBURY, PA.

Dr. CHAS. ARTHUR, Homoeopathic Physician, Graduate of the Homoeopathic Medical College of Pennsylvania.

Dr. CHAS. ARTHUR, Homoeopathic Physician, Graduate of the Homoeopathic Medical College of Pennsylvania.

JEREMIAH SNYDER, Attorney & Counselor at Law, SUNBURY, PA.

J. R. HILBUSH, SURVEYOR AND CONVEYANCER, AND JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

JACOB COBECK, MERCHANT TAILOR, and Dealer in CLOTHING, CASSIMERES, VESTING, &c.

WINDOW Glass and Building Hardware, at the lowest Cash Prices at The Masonry Store of R. Y. FRILING.

REMEMBER Myerly's new Picture Gallery three doors west of the railroad, Market Square.

SUNBURY AMERICAN

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING, BY H. B. MASSER & CO., SUNBURY, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, PENN'A. NEW SERIES, VOL. 4, NO. 40. SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1, 1868. OLD SERIES, VOL. 28, NO. 40.

POETICAL.

THE GREAT BOYS IN BLUE.

By G. W. Haupt. American, land of bright freedom, No longer scourged by a slave, When tyrants desecrated, never hood them, But up with the flag of the brave, It is here our ranks in dark danger, When messes of death round us flow, To bring and bear 'till strong enough, When borne by the Grant Boys in Blue.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JOCKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, JAUNDICE, ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN Tonic

Is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of the most valuable and purest ingredients, and its medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific process.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN Tonic

is a compound of the most valuable and purest ingredients, and its medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific process.

CONSUMPTION.

Thousands of cases, when the patient supposed he was afflicted with Consumption, were cured by the use of these remedies. Extreme emaciation, dry cough, and other symptoms, attendants upon severe cases of dyspepsia or disease of the stomach, are cured by the use of these remedies.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters to cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and other ailments of the stomach.

Weak and Delicate Children

are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, or to the most delicate female, or a man of infancy.

BLOOD PURIFIERS

are known, and will cure all diseases resulting from impure blood, such as Eczema, Psoriasis, and other ailments of the skin.

THE COMPLEXION.

Ladies who wish a fair skin and good complexion, should use Hoofland's German Bitters, which will purify the blood, and result in sparkling eyes and blooming cheeks.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Bitters are counterfeited. Beware of cheap imitations, and purchase only from the original bottles, which have the name of the proprietor on each bottle.

THE UNION.

Thousands of letters have been received, testifying to the virtues of these remedies. READ THE RECOMMENDATIONS. FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Price of the Bitters, $1.00 per bottle; a half dozen for $5.00. Price of the Tonic, $1.50 per bottle; a half dozen for $7.50.

POETICAL.

THE GREAT BOYS IN BLUE.

American, land of bright freedom, No longer scourged by a slave, When tyrants desecrated, never hood them, But up with the flag of the brave, It is here our ranks in dark danger, When messes of death round us flow, To bring and bear 'till strong enough, When borne by the Grant Boys in Blue.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JOCKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, JAUNDICE, ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN Tonic

is a compound of the most valuable and purest ingredients, and its medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific process.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN Tonic

is a compound of the most valuable and purest ingredients, and its medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific process.

CONSUMPTION.

Thousands of cases, when the patient supposed he was afflicted with Consumption, were cured by the use of these remedies. Extreme emaciation, dry cough, and other symptoms, attendants upon severe cases of dyspepsia or disease of the stomach, are cured by the use of these remedies.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters to cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and other ailments of the stomach.

Weak and Delicate Children

are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, or to the most delicate female, or a man of infancy.

BLOOD PURIFIERS

are known, and will cure all diseases resulting from impure blood, such as Eczema, Psoriasis, and other ailments of the skin.

THE COMPLEXION.

Ladies who wish a fair skin and good complexion, should use Hoofland's German Bitters, which will purify the blood, and result in sparkling eyes and blooming cheeks.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Bitters are counterfeited. Beware of cheap imitations, and purchase only from the original bottles, which have the name of the proprietor on each bottle.

THE UNION.

Thousands of letters have been received, testifying to the virtues of these remedies. READ THE RECOMMENDATIONS. FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Price of the Bitters, $1.00 per bottle; a half dozen for $5.00. Price of the Tonic, $1.50 per bottle; a half dozen for $7.50.

WHAT SENATOR YATES SAYS OF GEN. GRANT.

George Alfred Townsend has recently had an interview with Senator Yates, and interrogated him as to his reminiscences of Grant's military career early in the war, with the following result:

Grant, said the Governor, "came down to Springfield dressed in common working clothes. He looked very much as he does now, ordinary, taciturn, unpretentious. When he presented himself to me he said: 'Governor, the United States educated me. I want to be of use to her now that she is in danger.'"

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Pirate Semmes' Endorsement of Seymour and Blair.

Rhaphel Semmes was the first speaker at the Democratic meeting in Mobile, Ala., on Monday evening last. He is a great admirer of Seymour and Blair. He said that he was not prepared to make a speech. The notice of the meeting first caught his eye at his country place, and it induced him to come to the city and rejoice over the action of the State to the war.

How the Ex-Rebels Talked in Baltimore.

General Wade Hampton, by invitation, addressed the Democratic Association of Baltimore on Thursday night. Speaking of reasons why a son of South Carolina should make open acknowledgments to the State of Maryland, he said:

According to the Resolutions.

The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail says the following resolutions were unanimously adopted at a recent missionary meeting in one of the colored churches in that city:

Salaries of Clergy in New York.

"Those who serve at the altar shall live by the altar," says St. Paul. But the good saint had probably not the faintest idea how well some of his successors would manage to live in this way.

Look to Your Blackberries.

It is a great mistake in female education to keep a young lady's time and attention devoted to the fashionable literature of the day. If you would qualify her for conversation, you must give her something to talk about—give her education with this actual world and its transpiring events.

MR. NASHY RETURNS FROM NEW YORK.

The Adjutant General of New York, Mr. Nashy, has returned from New York, and has given the following account of his visit to the City of the Empire:

"I didn't stay in New York till the Convention adjourned, for a most excellent reason, to wit, viz: my money ran out. The Milson female with whom I was forced to board, required payment in advance, and I was obliged to leave her house with nothing but my trunk and my baggage. I had to go out for my trunk, and I had to go out for my baggage. I had to go out for my trunk, and I had to go out for my baggage."

An Unfortunate Kiss.

Not many months ago, says the Pittsburg Sunday Leader, a young divinity student of this city, modest, yet brilliant of talent, and earnest in his profession, received a call to one of the churches in the city of Pittsburg, Ohio.

Domestic Interference.

The man who wrote this evidently had a grievance: "I feel called upon to announce for the benefit of the gossips of Weedsport, that my wife left town on Wednesday, for the purpose of visiting some friends in the central part of the State."

Ladies Should Read Newspapers.

It is a great mistake in female education to keep a young lady's time and attention devoted to the fashionable literature of the day. If you would qualify her for conversation, you must give her something to talk about—give her education with this actual world and its transpiring events.

Salaries of Clergy in New York.

"Those who serve at the altar shall live by the altar," says St. Paul. But the good saint had probably not the faintest idea how well some of his successors would manage to live in this way.

Look to Your Blackberries.

It is a great mistake in female education to keep a young lady's time and attention devoted to the fashionable literature of the day. If you would qualify her for conversation, you must give her something to talk about—give her education with this actual world and its transpiring events.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

The following are the rates for advertising in the "American": For one square (10 lines), per line, per week, $1.00; for one square, per line, per month, $3.00; for one square, per line, per quarter, $7.50; for one square, per line, per annum, $25.00.

Table with 2 columns: Size and Rate. 1 Square (10 lines) per line per week $1.00, per month $3.00, per quarter $7.50, per annum $25.00.

Auditors, Administrators and Executors Notice. All persons claiming against the estate of any deceased person, must present their claims within the time specified in the notice.

Advertisements for Religious, Charitable and Educational objects, one-half the above rates. Treatments advertised for a limited time, unless otherwise ordered, to be discontinued, and charged accordingly.

NO. 40412.

That the Democratic Convention, by nominating Mr. Chase for Vice President, has taken, threatening not only their own party but the country with a serious danger, is an impression that prevails very widely. But the fact that in doing so they have also outraged the personal feelings of their own candidate, and placed him in a most unfortunate and precarious position, is not less to be remembered.

Mr. Seymour's near friends have repeatedly been assured by him, when, in former years his name was mentioned for the Presidency, that it was impossible for him to entertain the thought. The reason given was that his family were afflicted with an hereditary insanity, which threatens him also; and which he can only hope to escape by avoiding excitement and severe labor.

When the recent National Convention was about to meet, certain members of the New York delegation were anxious to make arrangements which would secure the nomination of Mr. Seymour as a compromise candidate, after the failure of Mr. Pendleton. The plan had made some progress when it was suddenly stopped by Mr. Seymour's self-denial, which is highly creditable to him as a man, but which has led to the present state of affairs.

There can be no question that Mr. Seymour, in perfect sincerity, maintained and avowed his determination not to be a candidate up to the very issue of his nomination. Does any one believe that he had been a party to a cunning scheme for springing his name upon the Convention, he would, at the moment of its success, have publicly declared that honor forbade him to accept, that his nomination would imperil his party and himself, and could be only justified as a piece of words spoken by him to the Convention?

It had, it is said, been arranged between Mr. Seymour and his New York friends, that after a few more ballots, when the names of Hendricks and Hancock should have worn the patience of the Convention, the chairman himself, in a speech from the platform, should announce that the only man who could be elected by them; and that who New York delegation should unanimously second this name, followed at once by all the states which could be trusted to join the movement.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

The following are the rates for advertising in the "American": For one square (10 lines), per line, per week, $1.00; for one square, per line, per month, $3.00; for one square, per line, per quarter, $7.50; for one square, per line, per annum, $25.00.

Table with 2 columns: Size and Rate. 1 Square (10 lines) per line per week $1.00, per month $3.00, per quarter $7.50, per annum $25.00.

Auditors, Administrators and Executors Notice. All persons claiming against the estate of any deceased person, must present their claims within the time specified in the notice.

Advertisements for Religious, Charitable and Educational objects, one-half the above rates. Treatments advertised for a limited time, unless otherwise ordered, to be discontinued, and charged accordingly.

NO. 40412.

That the Democratic Convention, by nominating Mr. Chase for Vice President, has taken, threatening not only their own party but the country with a serious danger, is an impression that prevails very widely. But the fact that in doing so they have also outraged the personal feelings of their own candidate, and placed him in a most unfortunate and precarious position, is not less to be remembered.

Mr. Seymour's near friends have repeatedly been assured by him, when, in former years his name was mentioned for the Presidency, that it was impossible for him to entertain the thought. The reason given was that his family were afflicted with an hereditary insanity, which threatens him also; and which he can only hope to escape by avoiding excitement and severe labor.

When the recent National Convention was about to meet, certain members of the New York delegation were anxious to make arrangements which would secure the nomination of Mr. Seymour as a compromise candidate, after the failure of Mr. Pendleton. The plan had made some progress when it was suddenly stopped by Mr. Seymour's self-denial, which is highly creditable to him as a man, but which has led to the present state of affairs.

There can be no question that Mr. Seymour, in perfect sincerity, maintained and avowed his determination not to be a candidate up to the very issue of his nomination. Does any one believe that he had been a party to a cunning scheme for springing his name upon the Convention, he would, at the moment of its success, have publicly declared that honor forbade him to accept, that his nomination would imperil his party and himself, and could be only justified as a piece of words spoken by him to the Convention?

It had, it is said, been arranged between Mr. Seymour and his New York friends, that after a few more ballots, when the names of Hendricks and Hancock should have worn the patience of the Convention, the chairman himself, in a speech from the platform, should announce that the only man who could be elected by them; and that who New York delegation should unanimously second this name, followed at once by all the states which could be trusted to join the movement.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.

The Democratic masses themselves ought to know exactly what their ticket means—it means Blair as President. No ordinary motive could induce the EVENING POST to touch upon the sacred and private misfortunes of a man, who has spent such an amount of his life and property in the service of his country.