

TERMS OF THE "AMERICAN."

TERMS—TWO DOLLARS per annum. $2.00 in advance within the year. No paper discontinued until arrears are paid.

These terms will be strictly adhered to hereafter. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their newspapers from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have notified the office.

BUSINESS CARDS.

BRUNER & KASE, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, Chesnut Street, west of the N. C. and P. A. E. Railroad Depot, in the building lately occupied by P. Lamson, Esq.

BOYER & WOLVERTON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, SUNBURY, PENNA. S. D. BOYER AND W. J. WOLVERTON, respectfully announce that they have entered into co-partnership in the practice of their profession in Northumberland and adjoining counties.

H. B. MASSER, Attorney at Law, SUNBURY, PA.—Collection attended to in the counties of Northumberland, Union, Snyder, Montour, Columbia and Lycoming.

ROCKEFELLER & ROHRBACH, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, SUNBURY, PENNA. Office in Haupp's new building, second floor. Entrance on Market Square, Sunbury, January 4, 1866.

Teeth! Teeth! J. R. CRENSHAW, SURGEON DENTIST, Formerly of ASHLAND, O., announces to the citizens of Northumberland county, that he has located in SUNBURY for the practice of Dentistry, and respectfully solicits your patronage.

G. W. KIEBLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, North Side of Public Square, second door east of the Old Bank Building, SUNBURY, PENNA.

PURDY & JAMES, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, SUNBURY, PA. Office in the second story of Dewart's building, adjoining the Democrat office, on the north side of Market Square.

THE UNION, ARCH STREET, between Third and Fourth Streets, PHILADELPHIA. WEBER & RUNKLE, Proprietors.

ADDISON G. MARR, ATTORNEY AT LAW, SHAMOKIN, Northumberland County, Pa. All business attended to with promptness and diligence.

DR. CHAS. ARTHUR, Homeopathic Physician, Graduate of the Homeopathic Medical College of SUNBURY, PA. Office Hours—10 to 9—morning; 1 to 3—afternoon; 7 to 9—evening.

JEREMIAH SNYDER, Attorney & Counselor at Law, SUNBURY, PA. District Attorney for Northumberland County.

J. R. HILBUSH, SURVEYOR AND CONVEYANCER AND JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, Mahoning, Northumberland County, Penn'a. Office in Jackson township. Engagements can be made by letter, directed to the above address.

JACOBO BECK, MERCHANT TAILOR, And Dealer in CLOTHS, CASSIMERS, VESTING, &c. Fawn street, south of Weaver's Hotel, SUNBURY, PA. March 31, 1866.

G. W. HAUPT, Attorney and Counselor at Law, OFFICE in Haupp's new building, on second floor, SUNBURY, PA. Will attend promptly to all professional business entrusted to his care, the collection of claims in Northumberland and the adjoining counties.

C. A. REIMENSYDER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, SUNBURY, PA. All business entrusted to his care attended to promptly and with diligence.

JNO. KAY CLEMENT, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Business in this and adjoining counties carefully and promptly attended to.

JACOB SHIPMAN, FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE AGENT, SUNBURY, PENNA. REPRESENTS: Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co., York Pa.; Cumberland Valley Mutual Protection Co., New York; and Standard Life of Phil'a. & Hartford Co., General Accident.

TO BUILDERS, WINDOW Glass and Building Hardware, at the lowest Cash Prices. The Mammoth Store of F. FAILING.

SUNBURY AMERICAN.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING, BY H. B. MASSER & CO., SUNBURY, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, PENNA.

NEW SERIES, VOL. 4, NO. 45. SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1868. OLD SERIES, VOL. 28, NO. 45.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

The following are the rates for advertising in the American. Those having advertising to do will find it convenient for reference:

INTRODUCED INTO AMERICA FROM GERMANY, in 1835.

HOFFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, and HOFFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, JAUNDICE, Diseases of the Kidneys, ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Read the following symptoms, and if you find that your system is affected by any of them, you may rest assured that you are afflicted with one of the most important organs of your body, and unless you are checked by the use of powerful remedies, a serious and, in some instances, a fatal disease will be the result.

Constipation, Flatulence, Tumor of the Liver, Headache, Dizziness, Vertigo, Stomachic Pain, Indigestion, Sour Eructations, Bitterness of the Mouth, Grimacing of the Face, Swelling of the Feet, Dropsical Swelling of the Head, Hiccups, or Difficult Breathing, or any of the following symptoms, such as Choking or Suffocating Sensations when lying down, or when rising in the morning, or when sitting up in bed, or when walking, or when riding, or when driving, or when engaged in any of the ordinary duties of life.

Hoffland's German Bitters is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts of the most powerful and most valuable medicinal plants, which have been prepared by a scientific chemist. These extracts are dissolved in a pure and healthy wine, and the result is a medicinal beverage of the most valuable character.

Hoffland's German Tonic is a compound of the most powerful and most valuable medicinal plants, which have been prepared by a scientific chemist. These extracts are dissolved in a pure and healthy wine, and the result is a medicinal beverage of the most valuable character.

Consumption. Thousands of cases, when the patient supposed he was afflicted with Consumption, have been cured by the use of these remedies. Extreme emaciation, debility, and cough are the first symptoms of this disease, and if neglected, it will lead to a fatal termination.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Remedies, and can be administered with perfect safety to a child three years old, or to a delicate female, or a man of ninety.

Blood Purifiers. These remedies are the best for purifying the blood, and curing all diseases arising from impurity of the blood. They are the most powerful and most valuable remedies for this purpose.

THE COMPLEXION. Ladies who wish a fair skin and good complexion, free from a yellowish tinge, or a redness of the face, should use these remedies occasionally. The Liver is in perfect order, and the complexion is clear and bright.

CAUTION. Hoffland's German Bitters are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the wrapper. Beware of cheap imitations, and always buy of the original bottles. All others are counterfeits.

READ THE RECOMMENDATIONS. FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, March 16th, 1867.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, August 1st, 1867.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D.D., Pastor of the Third Baptist Church, Philadelphia. DR. JACKSON—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to commend your medicine, and I have no hesitation in doing so.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Old Issue Over Again. Dearly as the American people loved Peace, most of them feared that the War would end too soon.

It is better that men should die than that principles should be destroyed. For such reasons many of us fear that the War will end too soon. After Ball Run the whole North repudiated the idea of indigence; the Union could not treat with victorious Rebellion.

It is ended? No. From all parts of the South and from many men in the North comes the cry for a new issue.

Some men would have us inaugurate a new issue, and they are to-day, and the whites of the South know it, but they are misled by the politicians.

Oh, sir, you could not have touched a topic that would thrill more hearts than this of Peace? How simple the topic seems!

But there is a difference. In 1860 the country was warned that Rebellion would follow the election of a Republican President.

What! Shall a man give up his rights? In a free country, a native-born American, and be afraid to stand up for his rights?

Define and authenticate your rights, and then, if you can make me happier, use them generously, and even forego them!

Yet, there may be cases in which a little law will be useful to a neighborhood. If some strong and arrogant man dominates, by yielding to him, he has come to think that he can have everything his own way.

It is best to keep your secrets to yourself; you may then feel sure they are yours, and that you are not arousing the jealousy of others or creating fears in your own mind.

Profane swearing never did any man good. No man is richer, or happier, or wiser for it. It commands no one to any society. It is disgusting to the friend, abominable to the good; insulting to those with whom we associate; degrading to the mind; unprofitable, needless, injurious to society.

General Longstreet.

General Grant's CHOICE FOR THE PRESIDENCY. The New York Tribune relates an interview with General Longstreet, in this manner:

Yesterday a chieftain of the late Rebellion, General James Longstreet, arrived in New York. Since he has accepted the situation, and has used his influence to counsel and guide his people, and to lead them safely back to an enduring peace.

Reporter—Do you think we will have better days in the Southern States? General Longstreet—Assuredly. The cotton crop has been very large this year, and we will soon have capital of our own to work upon.

Gen. L.—I cannot say as to that; but I believe that if he is elected it will open all those old issues, and we will have trouble; but I don't think he will be elected.

Gen. L.—In some cases that is bad—for instance, where an action involves an accumulation of negroes generally are ignorant upon intricate matters of business.

Gen. L.—I advise my friends to accept them, and come into the Union, and try to bring about peace and prosperity. I told the people of Alabama if they would not be guided by the politicians they would come out all right.

Gen. L.—I do; the crops are large. The cotton crop is worth $200,000,000. That is a step towards bringing about the desired result. Chase was my man. I think if nominated he could have been elected, and the Southern people would rally about him.

A DISAGREEABLE BEDFELLOW.—Three gentlemen, while in Providence, on business, stopped at one of the best hotels of that place and asked the clerk to prepare a room for them.

Our friend, who had promised to sleep with the stranger, quickly disarmed himself of his outer garments, and after seating himself on a chair beside the bed occupied by the dandy, commenced to scratch his head vigorously.

Go TO FARMING.—A good living is what comparatively few men succeed in making in village or city life, and yet nothing is more easy of accomplishment on the farm.

It is necessary to say our friend slept alone that night. The dandy started on hearing this, quickly dressed himself, and with an expression of disgust on his countenance, left the room.

COULDN'T TELL.—A darkey was examined in a Washington court, recently, to prove the identity of a white man. "Did you see the man?" asked the attorney.

"Yes, sah, I see him." "Was he a white man?" "Dunno, sah." "Do you say you saw the man and can't say whether he was white or black?" "Yes, sah, I see him, but dere's so many white fella's callin' derseives niggers around here I can't tell you from toder!"

Such a Love Letter.

We have read love letters heretofore, and, maybe, have written one or two; but for sublimity we never saw anything to compare with the following which we clip from an exchange:

MY DEAR SALLY:—Every time I think of you my heart flaps up and down like a churning dasher. Sensations unutterable joy caper over it like young goats upon a stable floor and thrill thro' its spindly needles through a pair of tow linen trousers.

Reporter—Do you think we will have better days in the Southern States? General Longstreet—Assuredly. The cotton crop has been very large this year, and we will soon have capital of our own to work upon.

Gen. L.—I cannot say as to that; but I believe that if he is elected it will open all those old issues, and we will have trouble; but I don't think he will be elected.

Gen. L.—In some cases that is bad—for instance, where an action involves an accumulation of negroes generally are ignorant upon intricate matters of business.

Gen. L.—I advise my friends to accept them, and come into the Union, and try to bring about peace and prosperity. I told the people of Alabama if they would not be guided by the politicians they would come out all right.

Gen. L.—I do; the crops are large. The cotton crop is worth $200,000,000. That is a step towards bringing about the desired result. Chase was my man. I think if nominated he could have been elected, and the Southern people would rally about him.

A DISAGREEABLE BEDFELLOW.—Three gentlemen, while in Providence, on business, stopped at one of the best hotels of that place and asked the clerk to prepare a room for them.

Our friend, who had promised to sleep with the stranger, quickly disarmed himself of his outer garments, and after seating himself on a chair beside the bed occupied by the dandy, commenced to scratch his head vigorously.

Go TO FARMING.—A good living is what comparatively few men succeed in making in village or city life, and yet nothing is more easy of accomplishment on the farm.

It is necessary to say our friend slept alone that night. The dandy started on hearing this, quickly dressed himself, and with an expression of disgust on his countenance, left the room.

COULDN'T TELL.—A darkey was examined in a Washington court, recently, to prove the identity of a white man. "Did you see the man?" asked the attorney.

"Yes, sah, I see him." "Was he a white man?" "Dunno, sah." "Do you say you saw the man and can't say whether he was white or black?" "Yes, sah, I see him, but dere's so many white fella's callin' derseives niggers around here I can't tell you from toder!"

Green Corn and Chickens.

The great question, one of them, now agitating fashionable society, is the wearing places in, "Is it proper to eat green corn from the cob and take chicken-bones in the fingers?"

MY DEAR SALLY:—Every time I think of you my heart flaps up and down like a churning dasher. Sensations unutterable joy caper over it like young goats upon a stable floor and thrill thro' its spindly needles through a pair of tow linen trousers.

Reporter—Do you think we will have better days in the Southern States? General Longstreet—Assuredly. The cotton crop has been very large this year, and we will soon have capital of our own to work upon.

Gen. L.—I cannot say as to that; but I believe that if he is elected it will open all those old issues, and we will have trouble; but I don't think he will be elected.

Gen. L.—In some cases that is bad—for instance, where an action involves an accumulation of negroes generally are ignorant upon intricate matters of business.

Gen. L.—I advise my friends to accept them, and come into the Union, and try to bring about peace and prosperity. I told the people of Alabama if they would not be guided by the politicians they would come out all right.

Gen. L.—I do; the crops are large. The cotton crop is worth $200,000,000. That is a step towards bringing about the desired result. Chase was my man. I think if nominated he could have been elected, and the Southern people would rally about him.

A DISAGREEABLE BEDFELLOW.—Three gentlemen, while in Providence, on business, stopped at one of the best hotels of that place and asked the clerk to prepare a room for them.

Our friend, who had promised to sleep with the stranger, quickly disarmed himself of his outer garments, and after seating himself on a chair beside the bed occupied by the dandy, commenced to scratch his head vigorously.

Go TO FARMING.—A good living is what comparatively few men succeed in making in village or city life, and yet nothing is more easy of accomplishment on the farm.

It is necessary to say our friend slept alone that night. The dandy started on hearing this, quickly dressed himself, and with an expression of disgust on his countenance, left the room.

COULDN'T TELL.—A darkey was examined in a Washington court, recently, to prove the identity of a white man. "Did you see the man?" asked the attorney.

"Yes, sah, I see him." "Was he a white man?" "Dunno, sah." "Do you say you saw the man and can't say whether he was white or black?" "Yes, sah, I see him, but dere's so many white fella's callin' derseives niggers around here I can't tell you from toder!"

Green Corn and Chickens.

The great question, one of them, now agitating fashionable society, is the wearing places in, "Is it proper to eat green corn from the cob and take chicken-bones in the fingers?"

MY DEAR SALLY:—Every time I think of you my heart flaps up and down like a churning dasher. Sensations unutterable joy caper over it like young goats upon a stable floor and thrill thro' its spindly needles through a pair of tow linen trousers.

Reporter—Do you think we will have better days in the Southern States? General Longstreet—Assuredly. The cotton crop has been very large this year, and we will soon have capital of our own to work upon.

Gen. L.—I cannot say as to that; but I believe that if he is elected it will open all those old issues, and we will have trouble; but I don't think he will be elected.

Gen. L.—In some cases that is bad—for instance, where an action involves an accumulation of negroes generally are ignorant upon intricate matters of business.

Gen. L.—I advise my friends to accept them, and come into the Union, and try to bring about peace and prosperity. I told the people of Alabama if they would not be guided by the politicians they would come out all right.

Gen. L.—I do; the crops are large. The cotton crop is worth $200,000,000. That is a step towards bringing about the desired result. Chase was my man. I think if nominated he could have been elected, and the Southern people would rally about him.

A DISAGREEABLE BEDFELLOW.—Three gentlemen, while in Providence, on business, stopped at one of the best hotels of that place and asked the clerk to prepare a room for them.

Our friend, who had promised to sleep with the stranger, quickly disarmed himself of his outer garments, and after seating himself on a chair beside the bed occupied by the dandy, commenced to scratch his head vigorously.

Go TO FARMING.—A good living is what comparatively few men succeed in making in village or city life, and yet nothing is more easy of accomplishment on the farm.

It is necessary to say our friend slept alone that night. The dandy started on hearing this, quickly dressed himself, and with an expression of disgust on his countenance, left the room.

COULDN'T TELL.—A darkey was examined in a Washington court, recently, to prove the identity of a white man. "Did you see the man?" asked the attorney.

"Yes, sah, I see him." "Was he a white man?" "Dunno, sah." "Do you say you saw the man and can't say whether he was white or black?" "Yes, sah, I see him, but dere's so many white fella's callin' derseives niggers around here I can't tell you from toder!"

MISCELLANEOUS. One large white cabbage, beans, green tomatoes, gherkins, and green peppers (the veins to be cut out) finely minced, and placed in separate vessels; salt them, and let them stand twenty-four hours; squeeze them through a sieve; mix all together, and flavor with mustard seed, spice, cloves, black pepper and horseradish; pour on scalding vinegar; cut up two large onions, and throw in; let them stand twenty-four hours; then pour the vinegar, and fill up with cold.