KILLED ON THE NORTHERN CESTRAL RAILROAD. -The Harrisburg Telegraph says: We learn from a gentleman of Northumberland county that a young man (our informant does not recollect his name)— a flagman on the construction train, was struck by the engine of the fast line North, on Monday eventure at Mahantango Siding, and instantly killed.

In Sunbury, on the 38th ult., by John Forns: worth, Esq., Mr. Albert Hamelin, of Benton Co., N. Y., to Miss Litzzie Shannon, of Delaware Station, N. J. An engine (as first section of the train following it) had just passed when the man stepped on the track as the regular train came along-supposing, it is thought, the first locomotive had a train attachedand was killed as described. He had been engaged at something about the train on which he was emplayed, and had not noticed the first engine passing without a train, and evidently thought it was out of sight and danger. Of course no blame can be reasonably attached to the Company or any of its employees.

A REPUBLICAN MEETING was held at Georgetown on Saturday evening last, which was probably the largest ever held in that section of the county. Towards evening the people began to come from the country, in all kinds of conveyances, to listen to our candidate for Congress, J. B. Packer, Esq. A large stand had been erected in front of A. Weld's Hotel, which was handsomely descrated with flowers, wreaths, &c., by the patriotic ladies of that place. About 7 o'clock the meeting was called to order, and A. Blasser, Esq., chosen President; J. Bingaman, D. D. Seal and J. A. Snyder, Vice Presidents; and A. Badman, Secretary.

Mr. Myers, of Harrisburg, addressed the meeting in the German language, until the train arrived from Sanbury. The members of the Union League. with their torches, then formed in procession and marched through the principal streets, headed by the Drum Corps. While the procession was moving the hotel of Mr. Wald was handsomely illuminated. After the procession arrived at the stand, the Sunbury String Band discoursed some excellent music, after which Mr. Myers closed his address.

Mr. Packer then delivered one of the ablest and most argumentative speeches that has been listened to by the citizens of our county for many years. He was followed by Wm. A. Sober, Esq., candidate for District Attorney, who delivered an able and forci-

EVERY young man should make the most of himself, intellectually, morally, socially, and physitonts. A sense of duty alone prompts us to publish cally. To do this, it is well to begin by having a new suit of clothes made by J. F. Shreffer, on the north side of Market Square, since there is no means by which more can be made of the outward appearance. It is well known that Shaeffer has no superior in making and fitting gontlemen's clothing.

THERE is an old proverb which says that contentment is the true philosopher's stone. Brown says it's very likely, for nobody has ever found either one or the other. The nearest approach to it is the fact. which was long since discovered, that the clothing made by J. O. Beck, on Fourth Street, is not surpassed in quality, cheapness, neathers, elegance of aypenrance and durability, by any in the country. A man who could not find contentment in wearing one of his suits, must be unreasonable indeed.
