This Company, National in its character, offers. Than any other place. by reason of its Large Capital. Low Rates of Premiune and New Tables, the most desirable means of menting life yet presented to the public.

mude as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Musual Companies, and avoid all the complication and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so upt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the Income-Producing Policy and Return Premium Policy. In the former FINEST ASSORTMENT, of the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten par cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter, the Company agrees to return to the neured the total amount of money he has poid in. is addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they alreay have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company. Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or to its General Agents. Local Agents are Wanted in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies, with suitable endersement, should be addressed to the Company's General Agents only, in their respective districts. GENERAL LOUNTS
