INCREASE.—Messrs. Vandeyke & Wank, are now building an addition to the Keystone Hotel, opposite the depot in this place. It will be a well-appointed building when finished, and will accommodate a much larger number of guests than heretofore.

THE DEMOCRATIC PAPERS have indignantly fallen violently in love with the Chicago platform, and are greatly exercised lest the Republican party shall snatch something of an advance by the retention of the fifth month of the year.

THOSE OF our subscribers who intend changing their place of residence on the 1st of April, will be obliged by notifying us when they want their paper delivered to. Please state where you move from, as well as where you move to.

THE citizens of Sunbury will be treated with a visit from the original Magician and Ventriquist, Signor Billa, from Philadelphia, with his learned Cigar Birds, on Wednesday next.

A NEW AND GOOD IDEA.—John E. Smick, merchant of this place, makes the following offer: After the expiration of the date of this paper, 20th inst., he will give to each of his customers a part of the value of five dollars, which present shall be drawn for by those of his customers, who during that time shall get clothing at his establishment to the value of not less than fifteen dollars.

STRAIN FERRY.—We observe that our member, Mr. Kane, read in place a bill incorporating the Sunbury Steam Ferry, which passed the House.

A CAMP of the P. O. S. A. was organized at this place on Wednesday evening last. The Camp was instituted by members of Washington Camp, No. 88, of Renova, Pa.
