ansaue Woman Kills Her Four Little Children and Aged Mother.

BALTIMORE, April 21 .- A horrible tragedy occurred in this city this afternoon about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Catharine Marsh, residing with her mother, father and four young children, at No 99 Central avenue, proceed to school No 13, where her son James, eight years of age was a pupil. She called him into the yard, enticed him behind a shed and cut his throat with a knife, which she borrowed a few minutes before from a neighboring shop.

She then went home hurriedly, and there killed her three remaining children, William, aged 6 years; Mary, aged 5 years, and George, aged 4 years, in the same manner. All three of them appear to have expired almost instantly. The poor creature pext attacked her aged mother, who is fatally injured, and cannot recover.

At the coroner's inquest this evening the testimony went to show that Mrs. Marsh is hopelessly insane.

Mrs. Nelly Dyer the mother of Mrs. Marsh, made an ante-mortem statement. She says her daughter came into the house excited, and went into the yard, where two of the children were playing, and killed them, and then cut the throat of the elder of the three in the room in the house where she (Mr. Dwyer) was. Mrs Marsh then It w rushed upon her mother.

Mrs. Dwyer says she could not prevent the catastrophe, as she was paralyzed with horror at the sight of the children gasping THE PRICE OF COAL.—The Pottsville for breath. She said that there was no cause for the tragedy.
