BROKE AN ARM .- A little daughter of Mr. Benj. Wheeler, on Spruce street, broke her arm by falling from a wagon on which she was playing. The practice of children hanging unto wagons on the streets is much indulged in. We hope this may be a warning to others.

NEW CABINET ORGANS. -Several new styles of Cabinet Organs have been received at the Music Store of H. B. Masser. These organs are from the best makers in the country, and are warranted for five years. Organs of any other make will be furnished if desired, at lower rates than traveling agents can sell them.

C. Rallway Company's ground, at the lower end of this borough, to-day (Saturday,) between the Star Club of Sunbury, and the Union Club of Watsontown, this county. There will be three games played at different times, after which the championship will be announced. These games will no doubt be interesting.

The peaches offered in market thus far are of an inferior quality, and range high in price.

TRAVELING GAMBLERS .- These gentry are becoming not only numerous, but bold in their operations. The green horns are, of course, always ready to be cheated. A caudy lottery was recently opened in this place. The bait used to catch gudgeons in this establishment was ten lington. cents worth of candy, in a box costing the buyer fifty cents. Some few persons would occasionalbut few gambling concerns in which the gambler | D. Bohner. fleeces his victims more effectually than these petty gamblers. The authorities should look after these fellows.

MR. W. M. CRANE, agent for Hoofland's Bit. Peters. ters, gave us a call on last week, the effects of which will be seen by reference to our advertising columns. As we have known Mr. C. M. Evans, the proprietor of the establishment, for a long time as a live man, and one who knows the value of printers' lak, we were not disappointed in Mr. Property of Charles Bollek. Crane as a live agent who understands the interest of his employer.

A House Kullen,—A horse belonging to Mr. | Shamokin. Henry Fagely, of this place, was found dead on Sunday morning last, in a ditch which had been dug to drain the water off a lot belonging to Dr. Awl, adjoining J. B. Lenker's brick yard. The herse had been put in the lot to graze, and is supposed to have been rolling near the ditch and rolled into it on his back. The ditch was about 18 inches in width and about three feet in depth. The horse, when found, was fairly wedged in with his feet projecting upwards. Mr. Fagely paid one hundred and ninety dollars for the horse a few months ago.

A DESERTION.—We learn that an employee of the P. & E. R. R., residing on Fourth street, this places in his last issue : place, named Walter Bowers, halling from Lan-caster, but latterly from Hagerstown, Md., deserted his family and cloped with another woman from Renova. He left an affectionate and worthy wife and two interesting children in a destitute condition. No cause is assigned for his bad behavior towards his family, nor was there any suspicion of anything of the kind previous to his departure, he having always manifested great affection for his wife and children. His family are kindly looked after by neighbors. The gay lothario was last seen with a woman at Tyrone, Blair county, Pa-, and it is supposed they have gone westward.

A LABOR UNION MEETING .- R. F. Trevellich, President of the National Labor Union, delivered an address in Fry's Hall, in this place, on Tuesday evening just, according to previous an-nouncement. The ball was probably half filled by citizens drawn there through curiosity, and a few members, including some of the Democratic candidates, who, it appears are all members of the Union. Among the most prominent, we noticed Mr. Gallagher, candidate for Legislature, J. C. Silvius, who has abandoned manual labor and is engaged in establishing Unions in the delegation from Danville entered numbering some ten or fifteen persons, headed by their President, who has also cast aside the hammer and auvil, and taken up a gold headed staff to point out to his followers the road to success in the Labor Union cause, giving others a chance to labor for him. Mr. Trevellick's address was well studied and do-SEWING MACHINES.-Miss Caroline Dalius is livered, after repeating it several hundred times throughout the United States within several years past. His views are highly tinetured with modern Democracy, and his whole argument was which are constantly on hand and sold at rea- similar to that of the Commune of Paris, viz: "A division of property on Saturday night, feast and rlot on the Sabbath, and nothing left on Mouday." In touching upon the important question of interest to the laboring classes, the tariff, he avoided giving an explanation, considering it a topic of little account. His apparent hobby is to pass laws to compel capitalists to divide. To loan their money at 3 per cent .. and would be obliged to our friends if they would and dividing equally between the poor, bringing make prompt settlement, as we are not in circould be accomplished, but we fear that his gigantle efforts will end in smoke like all the previous chimeras of that character. But so long as he can find dupes enough to maintain him without laboring, by fleecing the working classes out of their earnings to pay him for preaching instead of working, it will be all right enough so long as the laboring classes do not discover

A TRIP TO DANVILLE.-Having occasion to the opportunity of a ride over the D. H. & W. R. R. Seeing that our friend Dr. Jeffries, admitted by all who travel with him to be a thorough railroader, polite and accommodating, having charge of the train, we felt ourselves safe, and proceeded to watch the grand panoramic cenery as we glided over a smooth rail along the cast bank of the north branch of the Susquehanna. The car was pretty well filled with passengers, who appeared to be absorbed in the picturesque scenery along the route. The river is interspersed with islands, and the scenery of the arrounding country is delightful. The road is well laid and the track smooth, and with the splendidly furnished passenger coaches makes it me of the most pleasant routes to travel over along the river. We were forcibly impressed with the march of improvement along its line. Just outside the Borough limits we noticed that a handsome brick round house is being erected. PERSONAL. - A. G. S. C. F. C. A. F. M. C. S. A few hundred yards further north, a number of men were engaged in building a siding to the river where shipping wharfs are being erected for the loading of boats. A number of new houses have been put up along the line. At Riverside, opposite Danville, we found that a large number of dwellings have been erected this uremer, principally of frame, and the place already makes quite a townlike appearance. The ing flattering notice of some of our business SUNBURY .- We had occasion to visit Sunbury last week, on business, and were favorably impressed with the thrift and enterprise exhibited by the inhabitants. Our former townsman, N. F. Lightner, seems to be doing an excellent business and certainly deserves the support he receives. The publishers of the Gazette and American we found at their posts, faithfully plying the quili. They are both industrious and worthy members of the frateruity. The value of these papers is sufficiently attested by the constantly diminishing majority of the democracy of Northumberiand county. Mr. Haas, of the Central Hotel, is decidedly one of the best landlords in this section of the State. He understands exactly how to make his guests feel at home. With a table laden with the most substantial edibles—clean and comfortable rooms—and situated in the centre of business, no wonder his house is a popular resort. We are under obligations to Mr. Dunham, of the Central, for his generous hospitality. QUICK WORK AND FRESH TEA. -On Tuesday norning, Messrs. Waterman & Beaver received direct from China via. Pacific Mail Steamship to San Francisco, Pacific R. R. and Empire Line from Chicago, fifty chests of fresh and excellent teas, only forty-five days from the flowering land. This is an instance of the rapid progress we have made in the last few years in facilities for transportation. The Pacific R. R. Is the connecting link which has placed China at our back door .-Fortunately we were obliged to drink stale teas cured one or two years previous and from which the aroma had, in a great measure escaped. Now the leaves are gathered in May-cured about the first of June and placed for sale in the stores in July. - Danville American.

A SAD RUMOR .- Considerable excitement prevalled for a time, in this place, on Sunday last, caused by a report that a man had been shot at Bacher's Brewery during the afternoon. After an investigation it was discovered that quite a number of persons had been pie nicing at the brewery during the day, and many of them had the cloven foot which is kept concealed from the been "shot in the neck," caused by imblbing too much beer, who were considered invalids for the time being. The parties who had repaired visit Danville during the past week, we embraced to the undertakers to get a glimpse of the dead body, were not only hoaxed, but they became slightly vexed.

THE ORDER OF RED MEN .- The Improved Order of Red Men is reported to number about 12,000 members in this State, 3,000 having been paid during the last year. $26,000 was paid out for relief. THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR AUGUST .- A Very at-The Lady's Friend for August.—A very attractive number—full of good, fresh stories that people like to have for summer reading, and bright with illustrations of all kinds. The steel plate, "The Carrier Dove," seems to represent a fair Parisian lady in the besieged city, receiving a message. There is the usual Colored Fashion Plate, and numerous wood cuts of ladies' dress and fancy-work. The music is the Bridal Galop. An illustrated story by Daisy Ventnor leads off the literary department, and there is another by Madge Carrol. Annie L. Muzzey begins a fine serial, "Jealousy;" Eleanor C. Donnelly has a pretty poem; and with a variety of other interesting stories and poems make up a delightful number. The editorial department of this magazine is to some readers their favorite portion. Price $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). Four copies, $6. Five copies (and one gratis), $8. "The Lady's Friend" and the "Saturday Evening Post" (and one engraving), $4. By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that the long promised volume, "Fifty Years in the Magic Circle; or, The Autobio-graphy of Signor Blitz," is at last published. There is probably no person better known throughout the United States than the cheerful, kindhearted and ever popular author of this au-tobygraphy. His name and fame as Magician, Necromaneer and Ventriloquist, are household property. Signor Biliz came to this country nearly 37 years ago, having previously seen much experience and having had many adventures in the way of his profession in Germany, England, Ireland and Scotland. Other and countries have had their professors of Magie. Nostrodamus, Cagliostro, Michael Scott, Dr. Faustus and Agrippa. But these maintained that their skill came from supernatural sources, and their feats attested them a communion unfavorable to their ladividual merit. Signor Blitz avows himself limited within satural laws, and tells his administrative that their care of the communion of the communication of the care graved, of octagon shape, scaring upon its top this inscription: "Mombers of the Bar of Northaniseriand County, to Samual K.
