REMARKS. SHAMOKIN DIVISION. S. C. R. W. LEAVE ARRIVE.

Accident Insurance Tickets can be had of J. Shipman, Ticket Agent at the Depot.

Focal Affairs.

SEWING MACHINES.—Miss Caroline Dalius is the agent for the sale of the three best Sewing Machines in existence, viz: "The Improved Singer," "Grover & Baker" and "Domestic," which are constantly on hand and sold at reasonable prices.

STOVES.—Three second hand heaters and stoves, nearly as good as new for sale at half price. Enquire at this office.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—A desirable property on Spruce street, Sunbury, Pa., a house with seven rooms and other conveniences. Inquire of A. N. Rice, Esq.

WANTED.—An active boy, about 16 years old, at the Mineral R. R. and Mining Company's office, on Third street, adjoining Fry's Hall. One who can write himself generally useful will find a good situation.

JUDGE ROCKEFELLER will hold his first term of Court in this county, in January next.

PHILIP PHILLIPS, the popular author and singer, will give an evening of Sacred Song at the M. E. church, in this place, on Wednesday, the 8th of November. Smith's American Organ will be used.

WILL POWELL.—During the past week immense numbers of wild ducks and geese have passed over Sunbury, on their way to winter quarters in Southern bays and rivers, and we hear that several of our sportsmen have been successful in bagging quite a number. This exodus certainly means approaching cold weather.

We are happy to state that the Rev. S. J. Milliken, Pastor of the Presbyterian church, at this place, has recovered from his late illness while on a visit to his friends in Blair county, and has returned to his charge on Thursday last. He resumes his labors by holding service in his church to-morrow (Sunday), at 10½ o'clock, A. M., and also in the evening.

BLVD TOM.—The citizens of this place had the pleasure of listening to the greatest musical folly of the age, BLVD TOM, on Tuesday evening last. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity. The performances on the Piano were truly wonderful, and gave general satisfaction.

OUR BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.—The regular monthly meeting of the Fort Augusta Building Association was held on Thursday evening last. The old Sunbury Mutual Association will hold its monthly meeting this (Friday) evening.

SHOT IN THE HAND.—On Thursday morning at a son of C. D. Wharton, and aged about 14 years, shot himself in the right hand by the accidental discharge of a pistol, which he was handling unbeknown to the family. This is another arming to boys carrying fire arms without the knowledge of their parents.

AID FOR THE CHICAGO SUFFERERS.—A collection was taken up in St. Matthew's (Episcopal) church, of Sunbury, on Sunday last, for the relief of the homeless sufferers by the great fire in Chicago. Fifty dollars were collected, and forwarded to the Mayor of Chicago.

MOSE SAW MILLS.—We learn that parties are negotiating for ground in Sunbury, on which to build two large saw mills next season. We certainly hope it is correct, and wish them success procuring sites for their mills.

AN alarm of fire was given on Monday evening about 7 o'clock, caused by a brilliant light over an eastern part of the Borough from the burning hills along Shamokin creek. The steam fire engine was promptly brought out ready for action, but finding the fire to be at some distance from town, the company did not proceed further than Market street.

PER neglect of the Democrat says that he had forty-two new names on his subscription within three weeks and lost but one. Neighbors, will you please state whether the new subscribers belong to the list in the black book, which was to be kept to note down the names of the Democrats who refused to vote for the obedient ticket. If so, there is a prospect of an eight hundred more of the same kind.

WORKING INTO OFFICE.—Amos Vestine, Esq., a duly sworn and installed into the office of my Commissioner last week. We presume that the first business of the new board of Commissioners will be to appoint a clerk, who will fill his absence, be competent to attend to the duties of the office.

A notice that our old friend Elias Brodhead, veteran hunter of this place, is occupying an apartment in front of our office, dealing out his customers some of the choicest beef in ket. On Saturday last, we noticed some of finest beef on his table that has been offered to citizens for a long time. His sausage and ling looked most tempting. Having the station for many years of making the most table sausages, he is determined, since the ket is established, to excel all his past efforts since his customers.

A HAPPY REUNION.—We are much gratified at the manner in which the result of the late election is taken by both political parties in this county. No demonstrations of joy are indulged in except in a private way, in which neighbors and friends go together to congratulate each other. Such rejoicings are principally on the victory of right over fraud and corruption, and all honorable men which will be remembered in the political history of the county—the rescue from the hands of designing demagogues of the offices, which will in the future be filled by men of political and moral integrity. One of these happy meetings occurred on Friday last, at the residence of our highly esteemed friend, Jacob Seasholtz, Esq., of Upper Augusta township. Mr. Seasholtz has long been known throughout the county as a staunch Republican, and as the honest friend of his honor Judge Jordan. The result of the late election is being discussed in the personal friendship of both himself and Judge Jordan, to give proper expression of his feelings, he extended an invitation to his friends to partake of a dinner at his residence. About 10 o'clock the guests arrived, and as buggy after buggy came in front of his door, they were most hospitably received by Mr. Seasholtz, his inestimable lady, and his sons and daughters, who are too well known throughout the county for their generous hospitality, on all occasions, to need any further comment. The Squire's venerable countenance assumed a degree of happy expression as he recalled to mind the many friends, and the mingling in cordial friendship of his friends, though politically at variance in honest sentiment for years, mutually rejoicing in common with himself over the vanquishment of partisan dishonesty, and individual chicanery, was truly an event to be remembered during the balance of his life. Such life-long Democrats as the Hon. A. Jordan, Hon. Wm. L. Dewart, Geo. W. Zeliger, Esq., Geo. Hill, Esq., Ex-Sheriff D. Beckley, Dr. R. H. Awt and others, and among the Republicans Hon. J. B. Paeker, Hon. W. M. Rockefeller, Jos. Bird, Esq., Capt. C. J. Bruner, Dr. J. B. Mawser and others, who have been political antagonists, uniting upon a common platform to be against the corrupt influence of politicians, who were slung at positions for which they were wholly unqualified, was an event that probably never before occurred in the political history of Northumberland county.

The Squire's residence was thrown open to his guests, who appeared at once to enter into the pleasant employment of making each other happy. About 2 o'clock dinner was announced, and the party surrounded the festive board, which was laden profusely with all the luxuries of the season, and after a blessing, offered by his honor Judge Jordan, to Him who rules over all, for His bountiful supply, the guests done ample justice to the many choice meats set before them. After dinner the Hon. Wm. L. Dewart offered a toast to the host and hostess, which was responded to by Mr. Seasholtz, who said that he was overjoyed to have his friends honor him with their presence on this festive occasion, and that he united with them in their expression of regret that the term of office of his friend Judge Jordan was so near at hand, but rejoiced that his place would be filled by one in every way worthy; that he had been on the most intimate terms with his honor for over fifty years, and that during that time they had been connected by business relations, and he always found him to be a man who was honorable in every way, which was the cause of his election in life. That he remembered well the time when he struggled through hardships to maintain himself by the practice of the law, and that he felt proud that he had assisted him, step by step, until he reached the pinnacle of his profession, the law. Now, that he was about to retire, he had also the gratification of knowing that his successor would act honorably, and follow the footsteps of his predecessor. He then appealed to the young men of the legal profession present, to take for their guide the example set forth by those who had been exalted to so high a position in their profession, so they too might gain that confidence and esteem which the gentleman referred to had gained.

The Hon. Judge Jordan, was then called upon, who rejoiced to say that upon his retirement from the office of President Judge, he was much gratified to know that his place would be filled by one who had been his pupil, and whose life and character was irreproachable. He had watched his career from boyhood, and was proud to know that the people had elevated him to that position, which he was able to fill with honor and success. He then referred to his start in life, and the hard struggles through which he passed in his early career as a lawyer, and that he had always found a steadfast friend in Mr. Seasholtz, upon whom he could always rely. That during his term of twenty years as President Judge, he endeavored to fulfill his duty honorably and impartially; that if he had erred, he asked Him who presides above to forgive. That during all that long period of years he never allowed partisan feelings to overcome his better judgment, and he endeavored to mete out justice alike to rich and poor, regardless of religion or politics. Now that he had come to that stage of life allotted to man, over three scores and ten, when it becomes necessary to resign his place to others, he rejoiced that his desk would be occupied by one whom he knew would act as ably as himself, and that as his career with his friends was shortening and about to close, it would be but a little while ere he would leave them.

Some happy remarks were then made by Judge Rockefeller (Hon. Wm. L. Dewart, Hon. J. B. Paeker and Geo. Hill, Esq., and after spending some time with the Squire and his family, the guests here and there, and left for their homes with the hope of soon having another such a happy reunion.

A ROOM.—Messrs. Frilling, Bowen & Engel are moving for the permanent establishment of a Room Company to improve the old boom property owned by them in the West Branch, a short distance above Northumberland. We are informed that the site is good, and the water is abundant, but that several heavy timber trees in this place, have been arranged to take hold of the mill and make it a steel fast. The advantages of a boom at the point designated, cannot but be of great benefit to the lumbering business in this neighborhood, and will prove a good investment to the stockholders of the company.

BULKY OF CHICAGO.—We are happy to note that considerable of an amount of money has been forwarded by the citizens of this Borough. Churches, Secret Societies and individuals have given freely. The employees of the different railroad shops and railroad employees along the line of the different railroads containing here have subscribed a days' wages, and citizens in every town and village are contributing freely to raise a fund for the relief of the sufferers from the late conflagration in the West.

FAVORABLE ACCIDENT.—Mr. Jacob Bieri, an old and highly respected citizen of this place, while on his way to visit a home in Pine street near the Lutheran church, was struck by a beam and fatally injured, so that he died the next day.—Doubtless comfortable.

THERE is more truth than fiction in the following proverb of John Billings:—"Most men will search for a hole in the bucket to see a boy drag a heavy sled up hill for the bucket's pleasure of riding down again. But it appears to me that the boy is not to be seen by the side of a young man who wears a hat and a coat and drinks up his wages on Saturday night."

A piece of land situate in Lower Augusta township, containing one acre and 40 perches, whereon is erected a dwelling house and out-buildings, the property of Henry S. Culp. A lot of ground in the Borough of Sunbury, whereon is erected a two-story dwelling house, the property of David Druckenmiller.

Four lots in Cakes' addition to Sunbury, the property of Joseph Conrad. A full-line of Ladies' Misses' and Child's Morocco Shoes to be had at Gibson & Furman's Boot, Shoe & Trunk Store.

ENVOY.—In the world's opinion success is considered the test of ability, and to him who achieves it the honors of the general public are showered and with a lavish hand. But few reach the desired goal in the face of difficulties that constantly beset the business man, but still less are the number when encumbered with serious disasters superadded to the incidental discouragements. Among the latter, who are prominently an example, stand the firm of Messrs. J. E. Caldwell & Co., Jewelers, 302 Chestnut St., Phila. Serious conflagration in the winter of 1869, swept away in a few hours the realization of years of labor, thought, and care. With a courage that rose in direct proportion to the difficulties to be surmounted, they resolved to again tempt their fortunes, and with the resolve came naturally that elasticity of industry that begets a triumph. The sympathy of a feeling public was with them, and their friends, by kind words and more substantial tokens, bid them God speed. The result is before us. On the great thoroughfare of our beautiful city, among the palaces of industrial art, none exhibit greater tokens of prosperity than can be perceived in their superb establishment. Articles of vertu from all parts of the civilized world crowd their cases and shelves. Silver ware of most exquisite patterns, and for every purpose, for the table and the toilet, are here in profusion. The tastes of amateurs in rare gems can be thoroughly satisfied, for the complement covers every conceivable range of quality and price. As much attention has been directed to imported fancy goods, Messrs. Caldwell & Co. have taken pains in their selection of this class of ware, and present in their stock some of the choicest of Vienna goods. They are in Russia leather, gilt bronzes, cut glassware, &c. The taste in real bronzes has improved so rapidly within the past few years, that the supply could hardly keep pace with the demand. In those goods this house possesses a beautiful assortment, well worth an examination. Upon a recent visit, beside the innumerable beauties that called forth our admiration, we were shown the new Coramandor ware, splendidly mounted in gold, one of the first importations into this country. Want of space shortens our notes on this thriving and deserving firm, and we must conclude by wishing them all the prosperity they so abundantly deserve.

NORTHUMBERLAND AHEAD.—We think Northumberland county is entitled to the premium on crops in one season. In the upper end, where the hail storm made much havoc, Mr. John Tweed raised two crops of apples, and now, here in Milton, we have the second crop of potatoes for this season raised on the same ground, by Mr. Enoch Tilden. The second crop of potatoes are as large as usual, measuring from 6 to 10 inches in circumference, and of excellent quality. The first crop raised was composed of the Early Rose variety. The second crop was composed of Early Rose and the ordinary varieties, all doing equally well. Mr. Tilden deserves a premium, certainly.—Miltonian.

A SURE cure for Corns—by buying your Boots and Shoes at Gibson & Furman's, 87 Market St.

The Graduating Class of Princeton College each year have a custom of planting, on class grounds, a tree of the same name as their college, with imposing ceremonies and orations. It is left to grow as a remembrance of the class, and is planted on the day that the roll of the class is called for the last time. We learn with gratifying pleasure that our young friend and neighbor, Mr. Lewis Dewart, son of the Hon. Wm. L. Dewart, of this place, has been selected by his class mates of the senior class to deliver the Ivy oration on the approaching occasion. We congratulate the class upon their selection as we feel confident Mr. Dewart will fully meet their expectations.

DRAMATIC PERFORMANCES.—Marston & Stone's Dramatic Alliance gave two of their interesting entertainments in the Opera House, at this place, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The hall was full on both nights, and the performances elicited great applause throughout. On the first night, "Faust, the Crickets," was played, in which Amy Stone assumed the principal character, which was personated in excellent style. The balance of the characters were also well represented, making the entertainment very interesting. On Thursday evening the beautiful drama, in five acts, entitled "Pearl of Soul," or, "Mother's Prayer," was performed. This exhibition, besides entertaining, was of a highly educational literary taste, and was conducted in a remarkably natural style, which, so far as we can learn, gave satisfaction. The most essential thing wanted to make such entertainments still a better success, is a spacious hall, with good stage and scenery. We hope our moneyed men will soon follow the example of some of our neighboring towns, and have one erected suitable for all worthy exhibitions—calculated for amusement as well as instruction—that may close to stop at this place.

SELLING OUT AT COST.—Owing to the falling health of one of our firm, we have determined to close out our extensive Stock of Goods at Cost. Don't fail to call and secure bargains, as we do not usually mean business, and will sell at and below cost for cash, all goods now in our store.

WE will give parties who may wish to enter in this business a good chance to buy the entire stock on reasonable terms. MOORE & DISBROWER. This Sunbury Mercantile Store will probably be finished as far as laying the rails is concerned by the time our readers will peruse this paragraph. Superintendent Brown, in the face of drawbacks and difficulties that would have discouraged most men, overcame all obstacles, and will, we hope, soon see it in complete order. Through trains will run to a few days, and freight charges will be less than at the usual time. Travellers' Gazette.

A COLLECTION of money was lately taken up among the employees of the Northern Central Railway Company, for the relief of the Chicago sufferers. The following was received in response to despatch to the Mayor of Chicago, by E. L. Dabary, notifying him to draw on him for $600.00, Oct. 19th. To E. L. Dabary, Ass't. Supt. N. C. R. W. Heaven bless your employees. Will draw it on the order of the Chicago relief and Aid Society. F. B. MASON, Mayor.

THE COMPANIES represented by L. M. Yoder, have stood the test at Chicago. They were the first to pay losses. They pay 100 cents for every dollar of their losses. If you have any property to insure go to Yoder. We ask fair rates for security against loss by fire, and will pay all claims promptly. L. M. YODER, Ins. Ag't, Sunbury, Pa.

ANOTHER STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—A movement is being made by our citizens to purchase another Steam Fire Engine, to be owned and controlled by an independent company. It is to be located in the East Ward. This movement is to be commended, and we wish the projectors success, for a good fire department is what is needed in a progressive town like ours, and with a steamer in both wards, Sunbury will be equal with any of her neighbors to protect her property from destruction by fire.

FOUR hand-made French calf sewed Boots, go to Gibson & Furman's.

OWING to the heavy losses sustained by the Lyons Lign Fire Insurance Company, by the great fire at Chicago, the Board of Directors met on Thursday last, and ordered an extra assessment to be made on the premium notes, of 10% per cent.

BUSINESS NOTICES. Our friend Thomas G. Nott, mercantile tailor, opposite our office, we notice is again receiving a new supply of goods, such as cloths, cassimers, vestings, and gentlemen's furnishing goods generally. He is also establishing a trade in the shirt business, which will be made up to order, in the latest style, and intends keeping a full supply, so that a gentleman can procure a thorough outfit at his establishment. All who prefer him will agree with us that he is the proper person to make a move in that direction as he is fully competent, and will have the best in market.

LADIES' and Children's Fancy Fairs, at John Farber's Popular Fair Emporium, 718 Arch St., Philadelphia. His stock of Fancy Fairs for Ladies' and Children is very large, and none can fail to be suited.

GOING.—The large lot of Boots & Shoes, one hundred cases of Gum Shoes, are being rapidly sold at the Excelsior Boot & Shoe store of W. H. Miller. They are the finest lot ever exhibited in Sunbury, and all who avail themselves of the opportunity to purchase now will be fortunate.

During the late Fair, S. Fausti has appeared to please everybody judging from the number of persons calling in to supply themselves with a stylish tie. He has still some more left.
