SUNBURY, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1872.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL DR. JOHNSTON,

Tup De Graff's 🔊 EYE AND EAR

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—these terrible Disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes of anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impos-

MARRIAGE.

Married Persons or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, (Loss of Procreative Power—impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

pany Patients to our Institution for operations. By request of many Citizens, we will attend to Impotency, Loss of Power, immediately Cared and full Vigor Restored.

This Distressing Affection—which renders Life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will protend to deuy that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those failing into improper habits than by the prudent? What a pity that a young man, the hope of his Orders promptly attended to, and public patronage respectfully solicited country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons M'ST, before contemplating MARRIAGE, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote commutal happiiess. Indeed without these, the journey through ife becomes a weary pligrimage; the prospect lourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melau-choly reflection, that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and improdent votary of pleasure finds that he has limbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as alcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, pro-1.351,007 gressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fail in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

Flour, Feed, Fruit and Vegetable Store, It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE ctims to this terrible disease, through falling to the hands of Ignorant or unskillful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poisson, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer menth after mouth taking their noxions or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life Vigor and Happiness, in deshaving just opened a Store at the above place, where all kinds of of the best brands of will be sold at greatly reduced prices. To such, therefore, Dr. Jourston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable Secreey, and from his extensive practice and observations in he great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most cer-tain, speedy and effectual temedy in the world

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION.

Resolutions Adopted Indorsing Grant & Wilson and the Pa. State Ticket.

[From Washington Republican, June 19.] It is well known that Republican assointions exist in the District, composed of residents of the States, among whom are many of the most active politicians of the country. We propose from time to time to publish the action of these associations, which may be regarded as a fair expression of the people of the States.

Last night the Pennsylvania association passed the following resolutions, indorsing

Grant and Wilson : Whereas, the National Republican Convention, held at Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th instant, in its regularly constituted and organized capacity, nominated for President Ulysses S. Grant, of Illinois, and for Vice President Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts; and

Whereas, the said convention established certain cardinal principles as the groundwork of our party superstructure, and to which it pledged the fealty of the loyal, patriotic and law abiding people of the land

Whereas, it is proper and in accordance with time-honored custom, that the people subscribe to and ratify the action of those who have carried out in good faith the nominees and the platform of principles of the Philadelphia convention; and that while accepting the theory that "men are nothing, and principles everything, will so devote our time, talents and energies, to the advancement of beih, that at the end of another administration the great mission of the Republican party will have been so far accomplished that it can be said to the world the United States have peace under U. S. Grant. Resolved, That Gen. U. S. Grant, by his valor as a soldier, by his signal success as a general of our armies, by his achieve-ment of victories which redeemed the country from the thraldom of a terrible and bloody war which threatened our liberties, by his able and unprejudiced administration of civil athers when the country was trembling throughout its length and breadth from the suicidal policy of an apostate President, was entitled to the Presidency of the United States for four years and received it; and that his devotion to the in-terests not only of the Republican party, out of the country at large, his honest and faithful collection of the public revenues and prompt reduction of the national debt, able and economical administration of all

TRUE LOVE. WOMAN SACRIFICES ALL HER WEALTH TO KEEP HER LOVER FROM BEING SHOT-HE COMES TO AMERICA AND SHE POLLOWS.

[From the St. Jaseph (Mo.) Herald.]

Yesterday, in one of the Catholic churches in this city, there was celebrated a marriage in which John Holtzman and Catherine Metz were made one. There is not much in the simple announcement, yet thereby hangs a tale which we give to our renders as it was told us by a friend of the bridegroom. During the war between Prussia and France, Holtzman was one of those who was bound to render service to his country. He was engaged to be married to a girl named Catherine Metz, and not liking the idea of exposing his valuable person to the bullets of the French-men, he conceived the idea of emigrating to a country where he need not become a bold soldier unless he wished. But then a little pecuniary difficulty presented itself. He hadn't the means to pay his passage out of the country, and in his extremity he ap-plied to his flance. She had, with an eye to some day keeping house with Holtzman saved up her wages, and fortunately had it er possession at that time about $200. This she freely gave to her lover, who bade her a fond farewell and secured a passage for America. Gradually he worked his way to this city, but fortche which he courted so sedulously, never smiled on him ing to consummate the vows he had spoken.

If I cannot get you to sign the total abstinence pledge, binding until you are twenty-five, I would be glad to have you promise attitude and a gentle feature, as it perceived five, I would be glad to have you promise three things: First never to drink on the sly, alone; second, never to drink socially, treating or being treated; third, when you drink, do it openly, and in the presence of some man or woman whom you respect.

Now, boys, if you wish to be generous and treat each other, why not select some other shop beside the liquor shop? Sup-pose, as you go by the post-office, you say, "Come, boys, come in and take some stamps." These stamps will do your friends a real good, and will cost you no more than drinks all round. Or go by the

How does it happen that we have fallen into a habit, almost compulsory, of social asked to, when really you do not want to. When a man has treated you, you feel mean and indebted, and keep a sort of account current in your mind, and treat him. And so in the use of just that agent, which at the very best is a dangerous one, you join hand in hand to help each other to ruin, instead of hand in hand to help each other to temperance. - Thos. K. Beccher,

THE LABOR MOVEMENT.-The seriousness of the labor troubles in New York. may be understood from the fact that the eight-hour movement has spread from one many thousands, who have resolved to stop work unless the hours be reduced. Rumors of threats and violence had been rife, not only towards laborers who refused to participate in the strikes, but in one instance aginst employers and capitalists. One man, who professes to speak for the eight-hour strikers, announces in the columns of a city paper that, rather than give in to the ten hours, "we would hazard our lives and lay their (the employers') factoresents the spirit of his associates, and the executive committee of the eight-hour general movement, to bring such influence to constitute eight henrs the legal day's work in the State of New York, as it is now in the United States government mechanical employments. There should be, there- cut and lodged grasses being, of course, exfore, no need of the police of the city of New York to repress disorder, as has been the case in a few instances.

A Remarkable Prophecy.

The following, which is known as 'Mother Shipton's Prophesy,' was first published in 1488, and republished in 1641. It will be noticed that all the events predicted in it, except that mentioned in the last two lines—which is still in the future—have already come to pass :

Carriages without horses shall go, And accidents fill the world with woe. Around the world thoughts shall fly In the twinkling of an eye. Waters shall yet more wonders do; Now strange, yet shall be true. The world upside down shall be, And gold be found at root of tree. Through hills men shall ride, And no horse or ass at his side. Under water men shall walk; Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk, In air men shall be seen, In white, in black, in green. Iron in the water shall float, As easy as a wooden boat. Gold shall be found and found In a land that's not now known. Fire and water shall wonders do, England shall at last admit a Jew. The world to an end shall come In eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

MULISH.-There is a man out in Oregon who has a mule. A few days ago he was driving the animal across the prairie, when courted so sedulously, never smiled on him and he began to despair of ever being able to send for his "Dolly Varden" or return- to move on, but without success. He beat it, he coaxed it, and he cussed it, but it re-He wrote to this effect, and on Saturday last was agreeably surprised by receiving a telegram from her dated in New York, informing him of her arrival there, and her way, examined the free works, and calmly winked at the man. Then the man thought intention to immediately come to St. Jo-seph. She arrived here yesterday morn-be would build a fire under the mule; but ing, and ere noon the happy couple were made one. Such devotion ought to meet with its reward, and we hope the newly married couple may never regret their action.

It was of no use. The man went home.

CURING HAY .- In regard to the curing of hay the Journal of the Facm remarks as follows: "With their carefully prepared roots and herbs, many of our mothers or grandmothers could as well alleviate the ills of humanity as can many of collega-bred M. D.'s; but note with what care tailor's store and say : "Boys, come in and bred M. D.'s : but note with what care take a box of collars." You drink many a time when or maxims shall we follow; certainly, after due reflection, all will admit that hay cured in the shade is superior to that cured in the sun, whereas the former method requires more labor than the latter. In auswer to the above interrogations both the price of hay and the price of labor must be taken into consideration; therefore, in general, we reply : if labor is plenty and hay commanding large prices, cure in the shade; but if labor is high and hay at low figures, cure in the sun. There are also other matters to be taken into account. Thus a large crop of clover should invariably be cut and partially wilted, gathered trade to another until the hosts number up in hay-cocks of suitable size and allowed to sweat a day or two; then open the same and, after an hour's exposure to the sun, it will be in most excellent condition to store away for winter's use. Therefore cure clover in the shade or cock, not simply be cause the aweating process is so highly beneficial to this particular grass, but because, if the crop be large, it will require, to sufficiently core it, at least one or two days' exposure to the sun, andf as a matter of necessity, exposing it to the night dew, ries and houses in ashes." CARE OF CALVES .- A celebrated Irish farmer gives this advice to one young in the business: "As a breeder you must be careful not to lose the calf flesh. If you do so by starving the animal at any time of his growth you loose the cream - the covering of flesh so much prized by all our retail butchers. Where do all the scraggy, badfleshed beast come from that we daily see in our fat markets, and what is the cause of their scragginess? It is because they have stinted and starved at some period of their growth. If the calf flesh is once lost it can never be regained. A great deal of tallow may be got internally by high feedimpossibilities.
