It is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fauld medicine can be carried high my and perfectly applied to all parts of the affected massl passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the extarrhal discharge generally proceeds. The want of success in treating Catarrh here-tofore has arisen largely from the impossibility of applying remedics to these activities and chambers by any of the ordinary methods. This obstacle in the way of effecting caresis eathirely overcome by the invention of the Donche. In using this instrument, the Find is carried by its own weight no sauffing forcing or pumping being resulted, up one nostril in a full scently flowing stream to the highest portion of the husel passages, passas into and thoroughly cleanees full the tribes and chambers connected therewith, and flows out of the opposite nostril. Its use is pleasants and so simple that a child can understand it. Full and explicit directions accompany each instrument. When used with this instrument, Dr. Saro's Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head?" by a few applications. Symptoms of Catarrh. Frequent head ache, dischange fulling into threat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick menus, purulent, offensive, &c. In others a dryness, dry. watery, weak or infansed eyes, stopping up or obstruction of massl passages, ringing in eara, deafaces, hawking and coughing to clear threat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice aitered, massl twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizations, onlarged tonsits, tickling cough, &c. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
