The town is beautifully laid out, and many of the streets present a business aspect. It is also a point of three railroads, the Shamokin Value and level and the heavy rouse at level and the heavy rouse at two dollars is equivalent to twenty cents per hour. Most of the strikers say they are willing to work an extra hour or two if they are paid for it. The extra hour and a half would amount to thirty cents per day; not a striking difference certainly. But then the strikers want ten hours acknowledged as a day's work, which the mill owners do not wish to concede. It strikes the mill owners do not wish to concede. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS and BARKS, (or as medicinally termed Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingreatients not being used. Therefore in one bot-tle of this Bitters there is contained as much me-dleal virtue as will be found in several gallons of ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital princi-ples extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, where they are compounded and bottled. Containing no spir tuous ingredients, this Bitters to free from the objectious urged against all oth-ers; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use; they cannot make drunkards, and cannot, under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.
