J. W. WASHINGTON'S GRAND BARBER SHOP. The old permanent shop of the town. We decline the honor, but at the same time consider that the mighty truth may be seasonably spoken without manifesting an uncomfortable amount of vanity and ambition. Just two years ago I began my business career in this place—half my lifetime thus far spent, I have stood on the floor of our shop—day after day, and night after night, and with that lapse of time embraced by the mighty folds of that eventful period have I shaved nearly every body in the country (in common parlance) on the basis of public utility, and with that in view we are ready to shave them all again three hundred thousand times or more. Respectfully invites the attention of Retailers and others, that he has on hand, and will constantly keep all kinds of FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC LIQUORS, Consisting of Pure Brandy, Cognac, Cherry, Ginger, Rochelle and Oatard. Whiskies, Pure Rye Copper-Distilled, Monogabala, Apple and New York. PURE HOLLAND GIN! Wine: Champagne Wine, Sherry, Port and Claret. Crab Cider, Champagne Cider, N. E. Rum, Brown Stout and Scotch Ale. STOMACH AND BAR BITTERS. And all other Liquors which can be found in the city markets, will be sold at Wholesale and Retail. Every article guaranteed as represented. Also, a large lot of DEMIJOHNS and BOTTLES, always on hand. Orders promptly attended to, and public patronage respectfully solicited. G. NEFF, Sunbury, July 3, 1869.-1y.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON, Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPUDENCE. Weakness of the Seminal Secretions, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Langor, Low Spirits, Confusion of the Mind, Trembling of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of Liver, Lungs, Stomach, Bowels, &c., &c., &c., &c., arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses. Blighting their most brilliant hopes of anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered the ranks of the noblest of the human race, and who are now languishing in the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Married Persons or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency), Nervous Excitation, Palpitation, Dropsy, or other morbid, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. Johnston, confides in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Impotency, Loss of Power, Immediately Cured and full Vigor Restored. This Distressing Affection—which renders Life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. None who that understands the subject will pretend to present a mode of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS. Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders who keep them trilling month after month, with expensive and injurious compounds, should apply immediately to

DR. JOHNSTON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, and of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. Johnston has all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, uniting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

There are some of the sad and melancholy victims of this disease, who are afflicted with Back and Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Memory, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Denial, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

THOUSANDS of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, and their vigor, becoming weak, feeble, nervous, and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are almost insupportable, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

As a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of a certain vice, which is so common, and which is so easily avoided. Such persons must, before contemplating marriage, reflect that a sound and healthy body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection, that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

CELEBRATED REMEDY. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or a desire to conceal, leads him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease are fully developed, and he is attacked with sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the face, and a general debility, which, unless relieved rapidly, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object to the eyes of his friends, and is subjected to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or unskilful PRETENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly FLOOD, Mercury, or other destructive medicines, instead of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of health, they are left in a despicable state with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secrets, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, he is enabled to offer the most certain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world for all diseases of impudence.

DR. JOHNSTON, OFFICE, NO. 3, FREDERICK STREET, BALTIMORE, M. D. Left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number. If letters received without postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.

There are so many impostors designing and worthless impostors advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS. The many thousands cured at this Establishment, year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston, witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other parties, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the subject of this disease, speedily cured. February 18, 1872-1y.

Select Poetry.

BY R. W. EMERSON. Around this lovely valley rise The purple hills of paradise.

Oh, softly on your banks of haze Her rosy face for summer lays.

Beach along the azure sky The argosies of cloudland lie, Whose shores, with many a shining rift, Far off their part white peaks uplift.

Through all the long midsummer day The meadow sides are sweet with hay, I seek the coolest sheltered spot, Just where the field and forest meet— Where grow the pine trees tall and bland, And chatter off his merry notes, And fringed roots and pebbles fret The ripple of the rivulet.

I watch the mowers as they go Through the tall grass a white-shouldered row; With even strokes their scythes they swing, In time to merry whistles ring. Behind the nimble youngsters run And they toss their swaths in the sun; The cattle graze, while warm and still, Slope the meadow pastures, back the hill, And green wheat crinkles like a lark.

The butterfly and bumble bee Come to the pleasant work with me; Quickly before me runs the quail, And the red-winged blackbird, too; High up the lone wood pigeon sits, And the woodpecker pecks and flits; Sweet woodland music sinks and swells, And the thrush warbles in the dell.

The swarming insects drone and hum, The partridge beats his throbbing drum, The squirrel leaps among the boughs, And the woodcock puffs and puffs his nose. The oriole flashes by, and lo! Into the mirror of the brook, Two tiny feathers fall and float.

As silently, as tenderly, The peace descends on me. Oh, this is peace! I have no need Of friends to walk, or look to read, A dear companion here abides; And I am glad to see his hide. The body swells, and his voice, I lie and listen, and rejoice.

Gales & Sketches. THE BRONN MAN. A convict pressing his cheek against the iron bars of his cell—did you ever see that sight? Did you ever hear the dismal clank, clank of rusty iron against moldering wood, or the regular tramp of six hundred men, all of them wearing the bandages of sin and disgrace? Did you ever feel the cold, damp touch of the great wall, look up to the dim roof through the interstices of damp stairs; feel that all that great space throbbled with human hearts, trembled with human woe, and were not ready to weep at the thought of the bitter tears that had been shed beside the hard pallets?

Some of the most interesting scenes of a congregation are given over to hardness of heart. Yes! if one reads that stolid face and the But this prisoner, with his man jaw, his fierce, hollow, death-bright eye, his wide, white-seamed forehead, the gray hair standing back as if the hand had often pressed it with a saucer, with a grimace—what do you think his age was?

"Seventy." A poor guess; not yet forty-three. Oh, what a hard, stony face it was. "The man has no feeling," said the jailer; "neither shame nor grief. He dares any glance; he sneers at sympathy; he looks at his fellow-monsters as sometimes born—I think he is one."

"But his crime?" "But his crime?" at least he caused her death. She was a terrible woman, and neglected a little child, I think, so that it died, I believe; and he hated and finally killed it.

A history to make one shudder. He has never expressed remorse, and our chaplain sees him only for form's sake; it is impossible to keep up an interest in him."

And yet there were some remnants of nobility about him. Even the man had wife and venal record of Mr. Charles R. Buckalew.

It is charged, and we challenge successful contradiction, that Charles R. Buckalew, as a legislator, in open antagonism to old established and clearly Democratic principles, has advocated and sustained "special legislation" in the interests of monied monopolies and corrupt corporations, by which the honest and virtuous citizen has been encouraged and venality prepered at the Capitol of this Commonwealth.

GOVERNOR CURTIN. HE DEFINES HIS POSITION. A Letter to His Friends.

[From the Bellefonte Republican, Sept. 11.] The following letter addressed to Gen. James A. Beaver and others named below, and handed to us by the first named gentleman for publication, so clearly and emphatically defines the position of our esteemed fellow-townman, Gov. Curtin, as to silence the guns of the Liberal Democracy, and close the mouths of his enemies forever. It is to be regretted that the precarious state of Gov. Curtin's health prevents him from accepting the nomination, as he was the unanimous choice of the people of this county, and as we are assured, of the entire district for this office.

To JAMES A. BEAVER, C. C. HEMES, J. BEAUCHAMP, JAMES MILLER, JOHN JOHNSON, JOHN LEWIS, JR., A. O. POSEY, H. N. McALISTER, WM. F. WILSON, GEORGE W. YOUNG.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been so prostrated by illness, since my return, that I have not attended correspondence, and letters received remain unanswered.

My physician has peremptorily forbidden me to confer with my friends upon any subject at present, and I am now compelled to write by an amanuensis. Your letter advising me of the unanimous action of the Republicans of my native county, presenting me as a candidate for Congress, was received several days since, and I have received letters and telegrams from the other counties of the district, assuring me of the general desire to present my name as a candidate for that office. Such an expression of confidence and devotion coming from the people who know me best, and for whom I cherish the strongest affection, moves me with profound gratitude, and will be cherished among the most grateful memories of my life.

When the conflicts of ambition and the exacting cares of official life have given place to the supreme desire for the rest and quiet of home and neighbors, your kind welcome on my return calls for the sincerest expression of my thanks. But independent of my indisposition to enter the political canvas as a candidate and the contrary of a fierce political struggle of the issues involved in the contest, it is impossible for me to accept the honor you propose to confer upon me. My broken health forbids it, and its admonitions I must respect.

Be pleased, therefore, to convey to my friends in Centre county, and the other counties of the Congressional district, who in their kind partiality have thought of me as a candidate, my many thanks and declination. I have presented a note from Dr. Willard Parker to Mrs. Curtin. You notice his opinion is very decided, and you know quite well how eminent he is in his profession. I am encouraged by Dr. Parker to hope that after a little while of absolute rest, skillful medical treatment and freedom from care and excitement, I may become strong enough to undergo any convictions are well settled and will be frankly and fully expressed when I am able to do so with justice to myself.

Yours truly, G. CURTIN.
