> FROM THE AMERICAN ! Great Ox Roast.

I am credibly informed that the Democracy of Sunbury got butcher Steel to purchase a large White Ox which they intend to roast at their celebration of the election of Charles R. Buckalew, and their Democratic candidates, preserally, in Northunberland county. The arrangements learn are as follows: The Ox to be dressed butcher Steel, and the skin to be stuffed and co Dutcher Steel, and the skin to be stuffed and carried high up in the air, in front of 50 torch-lights, the humps for which were stolen from the Republicans. C. R. Buckalew is to be mounted a stride the stuffed skin of the Ox, with Horace Greely behind him—the boor Ox to carry both—Buckalew weighing about 35,000, paunds and Greely about 80,000. The Ox is to be lost by Eighholtz, editor of the Democrat, the post of honor being given to lim in consideration of the haportest services he readered during the comparen. The pail bearers are to be John W. Forney, A. K. McChure, A. G. Curtin, and Ell Slifer, late Secretary of State, leaving General Cameron out in the cold.

I learn that, the roast will be deferred till Pat Hester is particued, who will superfutend the whole affair. The carcase of the Ox will be devented at a prominent saloon in town. 8 | voured at a prominent saloon in town.

Editor's Table.

SCHIBNER'S MONYHLY .- This excellent periodical is rapidly gaining in popularity over most of our monthlies. By judicious editorial management, and a corps of the ablest writers and artiefs in the country, now, after a two years' ca-50 reer, the prosperity and popularity of Seribners' Mouthly is a fixed fact. Its four half yearly volumes (November, 1870, to October, 1872, both ineinsive) contain nearly 2,000 pages buperlai 8ro., and hundreds of engravings, very creditable to our artists. Dr. J. G. Holland has had editorial charge from the beginning. He has properly availed himself of the recognized talents of many established writers as contributors. The result is a great deal of freshness of thought and of ex-g; pression. The first two years of Scribner's Monthly have exhibited a greater variety ky, of ability, of authors and artists, than, with CELEBRATED AMERICAN WASH- FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SUNBURY, in our knowledge and recollection, has ever before been presented in the same time and way. The November number, beginning the fifth vol-ume, presents a favorable opportunity for intend-ing subscribers. They will do well to obtain the work from the beginning.—Published by Scrib-ner, Armstrong & Go., New York.
