WHERE IS YEREES ?-Among the incidents of the meeting on Wednesday was the following :---As the procession of carriages were passing the Court House, the editor of the Democrat was flying about in an excited manner, asking everybody he met "where is Yerkes ?" "Where is Yerkes ?" Some one inquired why he was so much interested in Yerkes. The reply was they had both come to grief. One had lost his character, and that other had lost, what is to him worse, the county printing and the Sheriff's advertising. Hence their mutual sympathy.

87513 74 of T. D. Grant, on Arch street, and others which have escaped our memory. E. T. Drum-heller, proprietor of the "City Hotel," though a Democrat, kindly permitted his Republican boarders to illuminate their rooms in his hotel, which made a fine appearance. The late victory ice to the laboring man not to sell his Orders to these men unless he gets tull value for them. We intend to have the whole amount of the duplicates collected forthwith, and most respect-fully request that all those who have not yet paid their taxes to prepare promptly to do so, for the collector will call on you any day, as we are com pelled to call on him very shortly for the whole amount of his duplicate

Very Respectfully, SOL. MALICK.

[FOR THE AMERICAN]

AUGUSTA, October 24, 1872.

After the parade the meeting was organized in the Court House by the appointment of Joseph Bird, Esq., President, John Haas, Capt. A. Culd-well, J. L. Hammer, A. Dinius, A. Blasser, Juo. Mn. EDITOR :-- I do not wish to go into cor-respondence with any editor in the county, but when I read such lies, low and vulgar stang, as was published in the North'd County Democrat, gaman, P. H. Moore, Col. C. Neff and Chas. Boyer as Vice Presidents, and Wm. A. Sober, of last week, I could not refrain from saying a word. Now we all know that the present editor d Samuel Raudall, as Secretaries.

The Court House was filled to overflewing and any were unable to secure seats. Col. F. Jor-n was introduced whose speech was replete th facts. He was followed by Gen. Hartranft, C. Simpson, Esq., of Northumberland, and foreas Henry of Northumberland, and on the Sth of October. According to Provide c. simpson, Esq., of Autonomeriand, and ofessor Bruce of Pittston. All of the speakers ged the importance of the voters to turn out the 5th of November next. The audience showed their great earnestness for the Republican cause by their attention to the speakers nutling of us who live to see the next Presidential elec-after 10 o'clock, when the meeting adjourned by giving three hearty cheers for Grant, Wilson and the seven hundred votes in Northumberiand counties of the seven ty. If the present editor of the Democrat is left alone, he will bring it certain. Now I say to the to the Gazette and American "lay low-keep shathe Republican cause. towns who arranged matters to carry out the dy, say nothing," I am sure the brilliant intel-above programme are deserving of credit for the lect of the editor of the Northumberland County above programme , are deserving of credit for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon taem. Had the day been clear, there is no doubt, taem. Had the day been clear, there is no doubt, from what we have since learned, that at least ten thousand persons more would have been add-ad to the meeting. Lelegations from all the towns on the North and west tranches were pre-regited from participating in consequence of the indicatent weather. Notwithstanding this draw-tack, the whole effair was a success, and a good account may be expected from this and neighbor-ing counties for Grant and Wilson on Tuesday who oth of Yerember.

On motion, Council adjourned until next Tucsday night in reference to the slaughter houses P. W. GRAY, Clerk,
