' A bill is now before Congress to increase the Presidents salary to $50,000.

Judge Kelly has been very properly placed at the head of the Centennial Committee in Congress.

John J. Patterson was on Monday last, elected United States Scuator from South Carolina by the Legislature at Columbia, on the first ballot.

GENERAL HARTHANFT, on the 2nd inst., retired from the office of Auditor General, a position he has held for six years directly from the people, and five months from an extension of time by the Legislature. During the time of General Hartranft's occupancy of the office nearly twelve million of the public debt have been paid and the revenues of the State have been faithfully. collected and applied to the various objects for which they were appropriated by the Legislature. We fully endorse the declaration of the Harrisburg Telegraph that he has made one of the best Auditor Generals the State has ever had. This opinion is fully shared by all who have had business with the department during General Hactand a administration. General Harrison Allen accumed the duties of the office on Monday, and we look to him for a contin-uance of his predecessor's watchfulness and fidelity to the public interests.

----This action of the several Electoral Colleges thus far reported, shows that there was an entire lack of unanimity among the Liberal and Democrat electors. Those of Georgia gave a portion of their vote to Gratz Brown for the Presidency, and divided the balance among several candidates. Those of Maryland and Tennessee cast their entire vote for Hendricks.

A passing policeman, then learning of the fire inside, caused the fire origines to come to the spot. The fire by this time had made considerable headway.

The ladies were in a wild state of excitement; the carpets were still covered with water. A poor servant girl was found on the third floor, writhing in agonies of pain, her body frightfully burned. The shreiks of the servants in the upper stories were heartning, as the firemen were making their way to rescue them. Large crowds had in the meantime gathered in the streets. To add further dishonor to the dead, and insult to the living soldier. Mr. Sumner's resolution should be amended so as to read. in order to promote fraternal feelings between the two sections lately at variance, all resolutions of thanks to officers or soldiers for gallant conduct in the late war Congress. All medals awarded for distinguished services on the field of battle shall There were five hundred guests in the be recalled and destroyed, that the sight of them may not offend the age of our brethren of the late (so called) Confederate army, and that national unity and goodwill among follow citizens may be promot-

Is this the same Charles Sumner who once stood so nobly in the defence of our "Boys in Blue," and the honor of his country? Stricken in years, and disappointed in hopes, he has become source against his friends, and in charity, we say it too with sorrow, we can only attribute such conduct to a softening of the brain.

The House of Representatives evidently means business. On Thursday last it passed an important bill providing for an addition to the Navy. It provides for the ed that gross carelessness was apparent in building of six sloops of war, three of which are to be given to the lowest bidder, and to be constructed in private ship yards. On Committee of Ways and Means, providing investigated. There are various statements for a reduction of the officers and expenses ocrats concede a saving of $1,700,000 under the operation of the bill. The change made by the law of last summer providing for a reduction of the number of collectors does List of Jurers for Adjourned Court. not meet the wishes of the revenue department. This bill does away with all the Assessors, and places the entire work in the hands of the collectors.

Mr Dawes made the important announcenent, in the discussion relating to the reduction of internal revenue expenses, that it was the purpose of the committee of Ways and Means to strike out all that remains of the internal revenue tax, except that on liquors and tobacco. This news will be received with gratification by the country. Such legislation shows the con-tinued purpose of the Republican majority in Congress to do what is for the best interests of the people, and to fulfil pledges heretofore made. It is likely another Census will be taken in 1875, as a bill has been introduced to that effect, and referred to the Committee on Centennial Anniversary.

Judge Mercur resigned his seat in Congress a few days ago, to enter upon his new position of Associate Justice of the Sup-preme Court, an honor lately conferred on him by his numerous friends in Pennsylvania. This resignation of the Judge leaves a vacancy in the House from the 13th Dis-trict, and should be filled by one at least equal to Mr. Mercur. Dr. James D. Strawcidge having been elected to represent that district in the 43d Congress, his friends here hope he will be elected to fill the unexpired term of the Judge, as he is a proper man, every way qualified, and this short experience in parlimentary rules would more ably fit him for the whole term to which the people of that district have but lately elected him. During the vacation of Congress I spent considerable time in Sunbury, and while there boarded with "mine host," E. T. Drumbeller, of the City Hotel. I found his house very desirable as a stopping place; line rooms, good and clean beds, splendid parlors, and the table, prepared by his good lady, equal to the best, and sufficiently tempting to please the taste of the most particular epicure. Mr. D. deserves the thanks of your people for beautifying their town with so splendid a struc-ture, and should receive a liberal patronage from the public. The first of a series of four sociables was given last evening by the Pennsylvania Republican Association at Masonic Temple. M. A. Mr, Shissler then gave an account of the work done by the Association during the late Presidential contest; the number of documents sent to all parts of Pennsylvania, and contradicted the lie that the work of the National Committee was done by clerks detailed for the purpose from the various Departments, thus cheating the Government, for the work was all done after office hours—a free offering, for the good of the country. Continuing, Mr. Shissler said:

"Some persons choose to call us the bread and butter brigade," I wish to call their attention to the fact that we were Re publicans before we received our bread and outter from the Government, and that we remained Republicans through the Andy Johnson administration. We were ap-pointed because we were Republicans, and had served our country in her hours of peril -we are Republicans from principle, not

I can be sold as the property of Francis Spacement. may know them and they know us, I can assure them they are not invited from selfish motives. It is as much for their interest as our own. They must remember that their reputations is, to a certain extent, in our hands. We see them here every day and night. We know where they go and what they do. We know the truth or falsity of the charges made against them by evil disposed persons and the partisan press. When we go back to our homes in the State, we are asked a thousand and one questions concerning them and their character and standing here. The partisan press is very unserupulous in its criticisms of public men, and makes some very grave and serious charges against them. Whether they are true or false they create an impression on the mind. We are questioned on the subject. We confirm or refute it by our answers as we are supposed to speak from a personal knowledge. We all know how villainously our noble President has been assailed. If he is guilty of the one thousandeth part that was charged igalist aim he is indeed a bad man, but the result of the recent election showed conclusively that the people of this country did not believe them. We were here and saw him daily, and knew them to be false. We denied them in our conversation, and in our correspondence with our home papers. I will venture to say that there is not a gentleman here who has not been asked concerning the truth or falsity of some of the base slanders published against him. The members of the different State organizations in the city have done as much towards refuting the base slanders circulated against him as any other medium in the country. And such is the case, also, in reference to our Senators and Representatives, and all other public men, Therefore I think it is to our mutual interests that we should be well acquainted with each other."

I have given you but a brief portion of Mr. Shisslers' address, and in an imperfect style, but I was forced to condense it, as I did not like to ask too much space in your valuable columns. The speech was well received, and frequently applauded. The House of Representatives has passed a joint resolution to adjourn over the bolidays from December 20th to January 6th. After that time you will hear from me again. Yours, Fraternally, II. D. W.
