Doubtless It will prove meeting of the Sunbury Mutual Saving Fund & Building Association, the officers and directors visited the office of A. N. Brice, Esq., the soliciroof the Association. In a short time after, Mrs. Brice invited the visitors into the dining room where a table was set with a bountiful supply of good things for the inner man to which the party did ample justice. Coffee, "par excellence," and oysters in every style, were abundantly served. No liquor being visible on the occasion, made the party feel as though they were doubly thankful to mine host and hostess. Before retiring a vote of thanks was returned to Mr. and Mrs. Brice for the rich and sceeptable treat. Appropriate remarks were made by T. H. B. Kase, Esq., and A. N. Notice.—"Whiskey Drips" is the peculiar and suggestive title of an intensely interesting and exciting book, written by United States Detective Office, James J. Brooks, of the Internal Revenue Denartment. It contains, first, a series of interesting sketches, illustrating the various evalues of the law and its reaching by the White sions of the law and its penalties by the 'Whis-key Rings," including not only illicit distillers. but men of apparent respectability, and even of-ficers with Government appointments. It gives a circumstantial account of the attempted mur-der of Officer Brooks, giving an inside view of the causes which led to the only authenticated instance of hired assassins in the United States. It is writted in a vigorous, spley style, and well illustrates that "truth is stranger than fiction," or all that is here written, the Author asserts to be strictly true. We recommend it for a close pesale. It is handsomely printed and illustrated, elegantly bound in morocco cloth, yet sold at the low price of $2.00, the publishers desiring to give t the widest circulation. As it is issued by cription, it will not be found at the bookstores, will be malled free on receipt of the adver tised price, or delivered through an agent. As reliable canvassers are wanted, we advise any of our readers, who are out of employment, to apply for its agency to the publishers, William B. Evans & Co., 740 Sansom St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY .-- It has now stood the test of time, and received in ap-proval not only that popular verdict which in the United States has called for over fifty million copies of the Webster series, but the thorough endorsement of our best scholars, as put forth individually, and in the pages of the authorita-tive periodicals. It is not only to course Profestive periodicals. It is not only, to quote Professor Stowe, "in many respects the greatest lite-rary work which America has ever produced," but it is in many respects the greatest literary work produced in any nation or age .- New York

T'NOUT be deceived, but for coughs, colds, sore throat hourseness and bronchial difficulties, use only Wells' Carbolic Tablets. Worthless imitations are on the market, but the only welentide preparation of Carbolle Acid for Liung diseases is when chemically combined with other well known ramedles, as in these Ta-blets, and all parties are cautioned against using any other.

In all cases of irritation of the munous membrant these Tablets should be freeley used, their brant these Tablets should be freeley used, their cleansing and healing properties are astonishing. Be warned, never neglect a rold, it is easily cored in its indiplems state, when it becomes chronic the cure is exceedingly difficult, use Weils' Carbolic Tablets as a specific.
