SUNBURY, JUNE 21, 1873.

Some time ago the democratic papers were quoting Major A. R. Calhoun as a government robber, and now they quote him as a sound democrat who denounces the G. A. R.

WE are importing too much silk, brocade, velvet, cloths, jevrelry, wine, etc., our own manufactories of fabrics are neglected, to enrich those of the old world, and the money which ought to be invested at home, is flowing to Europe, to enrich its retail merchants and be squandered on its artists. More money will be spent in Europe this year, by American importers and travellers, than has been paid there by the same people for the last decade. We will suffer for this extravagance. It is bad housekeeping.

It may be of importance to such as are in the habit of fishing with any kind of nets to know that by a law of last session, which appears to be general, they are liable to a 15th day of June and the 10th day of Aumst. They are also subjected to an imprisonment not exceeding hix months.

STOKES AGAIN .- He is to have a new trial as the Court of Appeals, has unanimously agreed upon a reversal of the decision of the Supreme Court in his case. If "hope springs eternal in the human breast" without any special jucitements, this man certainly has, in the laws delays and this final triumph, some ground for his confidence that he will escape the scaffold.

PENNSYLVANIA stands second on the list for expenditures for public schools, the aggregate being over eight millions and a half of dollars. New York expends one million more, but Pennsylvania schools are not behind in efficiency-although there is yet much to learn before the system in any of the States becomes perfect, and fulfills in the highest its mission of general free education for the people.

According to the report from Washington the total amount of the back-pay "grab," which might have been taken by Senators and Representatives in Congress, but which they refuse to receive, is over $192,000. Forty-six Senators and Representatives have refused to receive the amounts awarded to them by this scheme of grand larceny. It is known that some other members did receive the amounts, and disposed of the same either for charitable purposes, or for the advantage of institutions or objects within their districts of a public character. These members will probably insist that they were not guilty of keeping the grab, and, therefore, ought not be censured; but if they took his farm, with $5009, taking a back mortthe money the subsequent disposition of gage for life for the support of himself and wife. APPALLING STATEMENT, -The Brooklyn (New York) Eagle makes the appalling statement that over three hundred bodies, with every evidence of violent death upon them, have been found in and about that city during the past twelve months. A few of them were recognized by friends and privately buried, but the great majority remained unidentified. Many of the dead were children, a few were old men, but the mass were composed of the mature and strong of both sexes. IMPORTANT INVENTSON. - Railroad Trains Reporting their Progress by Electri-city.—A patent has been secured for an electric railway reporter or signal, which is operated on ordinary telegraphic wires attached to tappets, so placed as to receive the weight of the car wheels, which thereby open and close the current of electricity. which current striking upon a bell or bells or miles, if advisable, in advance or rear of A signal, stationed at a crossing, will be rung instantaneously at any fixed distance as the train approaches, thus giving fair notice to all persons to clear the track. One of these alarms placed at a station will report a train, tappet after tap-pet, until it passes on to the tappets of the next signed station, where a similar report is made, and so on to the end of the route. If a train is delayed or wrecked it will be immediately reported at the station and other trains regulated accordingly, by which means hundreds of lives and vast quantities of property may be saved. The Trial of the Modocs.

SAN FRANCISCO June 13. A dispatch from Boyle's Camp dated June 11th, says that the Modoc captives will be taken to Fort Klamath, where the commission will sit to try them. Some of the wounded soldiers have been already sent to Fort Klamath. It is generally thought that Bogus Charley, Hooker Jim, Shacknasty Jim, and Steamboat Frank, who volunteered to aid in capturing Cap tain Jack, will escape punishment as murderers, but those who are not tried for murder will be forwarded to Alcatras, in San Francisco harbor.

Major Jackson's troops will start for Fort Klamath this evening to prepare for the reception of the Modoc prisoners.

THE MASSACRE OF INDIAN PRISONERS. A dispatch from Jacksonville, Oregon, says General Ross and the Oregon volunteers bave just arrived. They deny that the massacree of the Modoc prisoners was committed by the Oregon volunteers, and declare that they had other and better opportunities for killing the prisoners if they had desired to do so.

ARRIVAL OF INDIAN COMMISSIONERS. BOYLE'S CAMP, Tule Lake, June 11 .-Last evening Hon. J. K. Luttrell, Con-gressman elect from the Third district, Judge Steele, Sheriff Morgan, J. S. Mat-thews and E. This morning Captain Jack, Scafaced appears to be general, they are liable to a Charley, Boston Charley, Schonchin, fine of one hundred dollars for fishing with Mose, William, Princesses Mary and Lizaugthing but hook and line, between the zie, were escorted to the office tent under a corporal's guard, so that Judge Steele might talk with them, and gain such in-formation as might throw light upon certain acts which are now enshrouded in mystery.

Jack, Schouchin, Boston and Mose, were in chains; the others were loose. The captives formed the usual semi-circle in the tent. Jack had an ugly, sullen look, ap-pleased at being brought forth for a talk. The dark lines about his eyes, which are bright and glittering, indicate that confinement even in a large airy tent is beginning to wear him. Restriction of his liberty has a greater effect on him than the suspense about his future fate. Only a few days since he told the officer in charge of the prisoners that his Indian heart was dead and his body cold.

All that he wished was that Lizzie, his fayorite squaw, might be allowed to sit beside him. His request was granted and the squaw came to him. During the interim he and Schonehin sat on a dry goods box and Lizzie squatted at their feet.

A Torrible Tragedy in Maine.

BELFAST, June 16 .- At daybreak this morning, Almond Gordon, a farmer living near Thorndike Station, and his wife and youngest daughter, were found murdered in one bed, and his little son, 6 years old, who slept in a crib in the same room, fearfully wounded, and the house set on fire. All the bodies were much mutilated.

A bloody axe with which the slaughter was done was found near at hand. A younger brother of the murdered man is now under arrest, charged with the crime. The alleged cause of the bloody work was a dispute about some property. The suspected man appears perfectly calm and manifests no anxiety

On Friday last, a most fiendish murder occurred on Elm Fork of Trinity river, near the village of Head of Elm, in Cook county. About ten o'clock, a Mexican who was one of the hands employed, and who was acting as cook, stealthily procured an axe and commenced in cold blood to murder the unconscious sleepers. He succeeded in killing four, when, just as he was in the act of despatching the fifth one, the sleeper suddenly awoke, and discovering his danger, gave the alarm, and be, with the remaining ones, escaped.

One of the murdered men had his head completely severed from his body, while the others were mangled in the most ghast-ly and unrecognizable manner. The Mexcan was not looked upon as being dangerous, and no cause was given for this fear ful deed. The only object was to secure the money and stock belonging to the party, which the fiend was only prevented from doing by the alarm which was given, during the excitement of which he precipitately fled .- Dallas (Texas) Herald, June 7,

The authorities hold that pleted to be voted upon at the next October | they are ever on the lookout for cholera and kindred diseases, but they do not anticipate that the former will reach this port at this time, yet it may, as any single passenger from a village in Europe or elsewhere infected with the disease might take passage on board a crowded ship, and after departure contaminate the majority of his or her fellow passengers. This risk has been deemed one of dauger for years, and now is held as such by the medical gentlemen there in charge, but not more so than during many seasons past.

> RASCALITY OVERDONE. A potable event which has been anticiwith much interest in all business and insurance circles, was the annual elec-tion of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, held on Monday last. A peculiar interest attached to this meeting, as, for the past year, this company has been made object of fierce invective and abuse by black-mailers of high and low degree and black-mailers of high and low degree and by the lesser satilities who revolve in there train humble imitators of the notorious English.
