1st. That the thanks of the Institute are duthe Shamokin Glee Club for the excellent music discoursed during our successive sessions. 2d. That the grateful acknowledgements of this Institute are hereby tendered to Prof. Beard and Miss Parsons, of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School at Shippensburg, for the gems of instruction and information so liberally en to us as a body of instructors. 3d. That it is the scase and belief of this Insti-tute that the Legislature of the State should, and of right ought to, enact a law requiring every Board of School Directors in the Common-wealth to grant the time for Institutes to the teachers of the respective discrets, and requiring said leachers to attend the Institute and to work when there, especially if called upon by the Su-perintendent; or should repeal the present law compelling County Superintendents to call a meeting of County Teachers' Institutes.

4th. That it is to be regretted that some of our teachers stand aloof from Institute work, and even oppose them altogether, not withstanding the evidence they have of the immense amount of good which has already resulted from them, and the visible signs of what benefit must and will necessarily flow from continuance of properly conducts. Teachers' Institutes.

5th. That we highly appreciate the interest manifested by the citizens of Shamokin, in their large and orderly attendance upon our meetings and in the hospitable manner with which they entertained us while among them.

6th. That we fail not to appreciate the mas-terly manner with which our County Superin-tendent continues to conduct the functions of his office, and the manifest improvement in the schools and school buildings, from year to year, during his wise administration.

7th. That we return our heartfelt gratitude and acknowledgment to the Great Presider over all the assemblies of the world, for the unanimimanifest benefit we have received, and for the prective good that is to result from our having assembled in Convention.

Signed by Committee,

S. P. FINK, MARY RAUP, W.E. DEIBLER. The resolutions were all adopted but No. S, it reference to legislative action, that one in parti-cular being opposed by some of our teachers, who, instead of showing an example to the young teachers, by the interest they should have taken in the Institute and its workings, were di-rectly opposed to every project brought forth by that body.
