SLUICING HIM DOWN .- A lady had gone to visit a young couple of the better class of the poor. The husband being a stoker c. a railway, they were about the reach of want. The visitor thought they might go to church on Sundays, and she said so to the young wife.

'Will you please walk in till I show you something? was the woman's answer, and SOUR STOMACH, she conducted her visitor to the little kitchen, where her husband sat by the fire. He had just come home for half an hour to have his tea. He was, of course, in his working clothes, and his face and hands were of deep oily black, after the manner of stokers. 'Now, ma'am,' said the woman, 'you see that man. That's my husband; and I'm bound to do a part by him, ain't I ?

'Surely,' said the visitor, anxious to uphold the duties of matrimony.

'Very well, then. I pass my Sundays a-washing of he! Never a blessed moment has he to wash himself through the week NERVOUS -out early and late, and half the night too, and blacker nor any crow all the while. Well, on Sundays it is fitting and proper that he should try to look like a Christain, if he can, so he sets me to it after we eat our breakfast, with a bucketful of soapsuds and a scrubbing-brush, and I rubs him off and on all day, till my arms ache, and he ain't much better than he wor; and then after we has our ten he says to me-'Come, Sally, have another try-there's a brave wench,' and I goes at him again and sluices him down till you'd think a born nigger 'ud come out white, and, if you'd believe me, ma'am, when I polishes him off with a No other Bitters in the universe can equal them. dry towel afore he goes to bed, he's only a lack space for detailing the availability of the Bitters, light brown after all !'

HER BILL OF DIVORCE.-A few days since a well-dressed couple, in the prime of life, stopped at a hotel in a country town, and sending for a justice of the peace, informed that functionary that they wished to be married.

The justice said "all right,' and inquired their names.

After being told it struck him that he had performed the same service for the lady some years before. Upon inquiring if such was not the case, she said she had been married previously. 'Have you a bill from you former husband ?' asked Mr. Justice. 'Yes,' she replied, 'I have a bill.'

This being satisfactory the ceremony was you that it contains nothing that can be injurious in any performed and the couple were declared 'man and wife.'

As they were about departing, the justice, who had never seen a bill of divorce,' and having a strong desire to behold the the document, thought this an excellent opportunity to satisfy his curiosity, therefore said to the lady :

'Have you the bill with you?' 'Oh yes,' she replied.

'Have you any objection to allowing me to see the bill ?' said our friend. 'None whatever,' she replied.

Stepping to the door and calling to a little boy some three or four years of age, she

'Here, bill, come here quick; here's a the public, for the cure of gentleman that wishes to see you.' The gentleman wilted.

Tar even in its crude state has been recommended by eminent physicians of every school. It is confidently offered to the afflicted for the following simple reasons:

1. It cursts, —net by alruptly stopping the cough—but by dissolving the phlegm and assisting nature to throw off the unhealthy matter causing the irritation. In cases of scated consumerson it both prolongs and renders less burdensome the life of the afflicted wifeer. 2. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain, and subduing inflammation.

3. It runnings and anniches the Blood. Positively curing all humors, from the common PIMPLE or ERUPTION to the sewerest cases of Scrofula. Thousands of affidavits could be produced from those who have felt the beneficial effects of PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The en-riched and vitalized blood per-meates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secre-tions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon. This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or ac-companied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably kesitate to give it a trial. See that each bottle has PER!

A Grand Gift Concert. A GRAND GIFT CONCERT be given at Sunbury, Pa., by the Independent WASHINGTON STEAM FIRE COMPANY, On MONDAY, JULY 13, 1874. the tickets are all sold before that time, who due notice will be given of the time.

A full Drawing Certain.

Owing to the Panic, and in order to meet the general Owing to the Panic, and in order to meet the general wish and expectation of the public and the ticket-holders for the full payment of the Gifts announced, the management have determined to postpone the Concert and Drawing to the date above stated.

The object of this enterprise is for the purpose of securing a Steam Fire Engine, which will be an advantage to all neighboring towns accessible by rail, from the fact that it will be an Independent Company. And as we have never failed to discharge our duty when called upon, we certainly will be able to accomplish more good with the aid of a steamer. There is no less than nineteen large and small towns within thirty miles of Sunbury, all of which can be reached by railroad, thus affording the facility of assisting any of those places in less than an hour stime; while at the same time our town will not be unprotected. Our project being a laudable one, we be unprotected. Our project being a laudable one, we feel confident that all the tickets will be disposed of by time above named for drawing.

EDUCATION OF FARMER'S WIVES .- Farmer's wives should study economy-economy of money, economy of time and economy of mind. Mest all of us think we know how to save, but we do not. It is not economy for farmer's wives and daughters to stand out in the snow on butchering day, and clean and wash hogs' entrails, just to save what little fat there is on them for soap 12.55 p m grease. I have known farmer's wives and 5.05 p m daughters to do this when the whole amount 2.15 a m saved would not be worth twenty-five cents, and 8.50 a m their husbands and fathers at that time were 10.30 p m | worth $30,000.

I know farmer's wives who are so anxious to make money that they never allow their children 10.05 a m to have any cream or good, rich milk to eat with 7.20 p m their mush. They give their little ones blue 8.00 a m milk and sour yeast, seven days old (they say it 6.20 p m takes so much fresh bread for a meal they only 7.35 p m bake once a week), and the consequence is, the Renovo Accomod'n leaves Harrisburg, 8.25 a m children are made sick, the doctor is sent for and 1.55 p m his bills have to be paid, which are often as 3.10 pm much as all the butter will come to that the mother will sell in six months. THE NEW PEACH ENEMY.—We briefly alluded, last week, says the Denton (Md.) Union, to the new enemy in our midst to the peach tree. The insect is a small black bug to be found on the peach twig, and near the bud, by the hundreds. varying in size, when seen through a magnifying glass, common garden pea. They are found from the egg state, without apparent life, in all stages of development up to the full grown bug. Almost every remedy has been resorted to by Mr. J. W. Kerr, in an adjoining town, to save his young peach stock, but so far without success. He has resorted to coal oil, a strong solution of tobacco, carbolic soap and various other remedies, which are effectual in destroying the bug, but which also destroy the tender bud of For Mt. Carmel, Ashland, Tamaqua, Pottsville, the peach. These remedies, although proving effectual in destroying the bug and at the same time killing the fruit, were abandoned last week and a force of workers dispatched to the nurseries for the collection of the bugs. The day's labor resulted in capturing one bushel of bugs, the exact amount being ascertained by actual measurement, which were placed in a fire and burned. The second day was spent in going over the same trees a second time, when another half bushel of bugs were gathered and burned. Such is their power of reproduction. Mr. Kerr thinks he had not gone over more than the onetwentieth part of his nursery of 83,000 peach stock, the largest portion of which he believes to

It will destroy red and black ants, cockronches, spiders, chintz bugs, and all the crawling pests which infest our houses. Take two pounds of alum and dissolve it in three or four quarts of boiling water; let it stand on the fre till the alum disappears; then apply it with a brush, while nearly boiling hot, to every joint and crevice in your closets, bedsteads, pantry shelves and the like. Sugar barrels and boxes can be freed from aunts by drawing a wide chalk mark just around the edge of the top of them. The mark must be unbroken or they will creep over it, but a continuous chalk mark half an inch in width will set their depredations at naught. Powdered alum or borax will keep the chintz bug at a respectable distance, and travelers should always carry a package of it in their hand-bags to scatter over and under their pillows in places where they have reason to suspect the A. CANNING STRAWBERRIES .- "Daisy Eyebright" in the Country Gentleman, gives the following directions for canning strawberries, and making strawberry jelly: At the commencement of strawberry season make two or three quarts of white sugar into a thick syrup by dissolving it in hot water, two large coffee cupfulls to a quart. Boil and skim this, and put into a jug or bottles for future use. Put your ripe, fresh strawberries into glass cans. and fill up with the cold syrup nearly to the brim, as the strawberries shrink somewhat. Place in a kettle of cold water, putting the lids on the tops of the cans first, but not screwing them down. Let them come to a boil slowly; boil for five minutes, then screw down the covers tightly, and set away in a dark, cool place.

three-quarters of a pound of lump sugar. Boil for twenty minutes; turn into cups which have been previously dipped in cold water, and set in the sun for a few hours.
