BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL

DR. JOHNSTON, Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, Involun-Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, Involun-tary Discharges, Impotency, General Debili-ty, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—these terrible Disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrons to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes of anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., imposespecially, who have become the victims of Soli-tary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might other-wise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE. MARKIAGE.

Married Persons or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely aron his skill as a Phy-ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Impotency, Loss of Power, immediately Cured and full Vigor Restored. This Distressing Affection-which renders Life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes de-ranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduated from one of the most eminent Col'eges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Pris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting

riage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Back and Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Mus-cular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Coneumption, &c.

asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons MUST before contemplating MARKIAGE, reflect that a sound mind and body are the mos necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection, that the happiness of anothe becomes blighted with our own. A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of his painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or unskillful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poi-Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer mouth after month taking their noxious or in-furious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life Vigor and Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. Jounston pledges him-self to preserve the most Inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most cer-tain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world diseases of imprudence.

How little we know of each other !

Select Poetry.

As we pass through the journey of life, With its struggles, its fears, and temptations Its heart-breaking cares and its strife. We can only see things on the surface, For few people in glory sin;

And an unruffled face is no index To the tumult which rages within. How little we know of each other ! The man who to-day passes by, Blessed with fortune, and honor, and titles, And holding his proud head so high,

May carry a dread secret with him Which makes of his bosom a hell, And he, sooner or later, a felon. May writhe in a prisoner's cell. How little we know of each other! That woman of fashion, who sneers At the poor girl betrayed and abandon'd. And left to her sighs and her tears, May, ere the sun rises to-morrow. Have the mask rudely torn from her face. And sink from the height of her glory

Of ourselves, too, how little we know We are all weak when under temptation, All subject to error and woe. Then let blessed charity rule us, Let us put away envy and spite-Or the skeleton grim in our closet, May some day be brought to the light.

To the dark shades of shame and disgrace.

A RAILROAD SMASH

Whoever has traveled much or little by ailroad knows how the faces of his fellow travelers interest him, how in the absence of anything else to occupy his mind, he will study them, trying to imagine the character and history of its owner. Such was the case of Charley Reymart, who was on his way to Chicago from New York. In the next seat in front of him sat a girl to you. whose beauty would have attracted his attention anywhere; but here he studied her youthful perfect features, her dark, her perfectly round neck and shoulders to thank you.' dream, of which the fair creature was the | bed again.

even amidst the surroundings. Already the sound of vigorously applied axes began to mingle with the groans of the less fortunate passengers, and Reymart knew that the wreck was being removed as rapidly as possible. Yet it seemed an age before they drew near his vicinity. He shouted to them, and they worked slowly in his direction. After awhile a ray of light streamed in, and fell up the face of THE SUNBURY AMERICAN his companion. His conjecture was correct-he saw the admired features of the beautiful passenger. A few minutes later and they were both lifted out uninjured, save by a few scratches and bruises. Reymart led his fair companion to a station which was but a few rods distant from the scene of the accident, and found her as comfortable a seat as possible. The other rooms were half filled with wounded, and a train was momentarily expected to convey them to the nearest city, which was Buffalo. Very soon it came. 'I presume we had better take this train,' said Reymart. 'If you think best,' replied the lady. He was flattered by her deference to his judgment, and politely escorted her to a

A Hundred Years Ago. One hundred years ago there was not a single white man in what is now Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana or Illinois. Then, what is now the most flourishing part of the United States was as little known as the country in the heart of Africa itself. It was not till 1776 that Boone left his home in North Carolina to become the first settler in Kentucky. And the first pioneers of Ohio did not settle till twenty years later still. A hundred years ago Canada belonged to France, and Washington was a modest Virginia Colonel, and the United States the most loyal part of the British empire, and scarcely a speck on the political horison indicated the struggle that in a score of years was to lay the foundation of the greatest republic in the world. A hundred years ago there were but four small newspapers in America; steam engines had not been magined, and locomotives, and steamboats, and railroads, and telegraphs, and postal cards, and friction matches, and revolvers, and percussion caps, and breech loading guns, and furnace. and gas for dwellings, and India rubber shoes, and Spaulding's glue, and sewing machines, anthracite coal, and photographs, and chromo paintings, and kerosone oil, and the safety lamp, and the compound blow-pipe, and free schools, and Brussels carpet, and lever watches, and

A hundred years ago the spinning-wheel was in almost every family, and clothing was spun and woven and made in the household, and the printing press was a cumbrous machine worked by hand ; and a nail. or a brick, or a knife, or a pair of shears or scissors, or a razor, or a woven pair of stockings, or an axe, hoe, or shovel, or a lock or key, or a plate of gloss of any size was not made in what is now the United States. Even in 1890 there were only seventy-five post offices in the country, and than 1,300 miles. Cheap postage was unheard of, and had any one suggested the transmission of messages with lightning speed he would have been thought utterly insane. The microscope, on one hand, and the telescope on the other, were in their inprovements, in their bearing on the comfort and happiness on mankind, than to any other which has elapsed since the creation of the world. With all these wonderful improvements within the century, who would allow such narrow and contracted views to a suitable
