BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debilisty, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Languor, Low Spirits, Confesion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of Liver, Lungs, Stormach or Bowels—these terrible Disorders Stomach or Bowels-these terrible Disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth-those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes of anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impos- ket street.

TOUNG MEN especially, who have become the victims of Soli-tary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might other-wise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with fall confidence.
MARRIAGE.

Married Persons or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, (Loss of Procreative Power-Impotency), Nervous Ex-ritability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Neryous Debility, or any other Disqualification, *peedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. ATTORNEY AT LAW AND may religiously confide in his honor as a gentle-man, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Phy-ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Impotency, Loss of Power, immediately Cured and full Vigor Restored. This Distressing Affection-which renders Life miscrable and marriage impossible-is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect lourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection, that the happiness of another omes blighted with our own A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes | Pocket Books, Dairies, &c. a horrid object of commiscration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

THE TWO TRAVELERS.

WM. CULLEN BRYANT'S NEW POEM.

T'was evening, and before my eves

For every shape as real seemed

I saw a weary traveler go.

As those that meet my eye to-day.

The air was thick with falling snow;

Driven o'er that landscape bare and bleak,

The snow-flakes smote his withered cheek,

Yet on he fared through blinding shows,

And murmuring to himself he said;

"The night is near, the darkness grows,

Deep deep each Autumn flower they hide ;

And higher rise the drifts I tread.

And they who journeyed by my side

Are lost in the surrounding night.

We parted with the sad farewell

"And I, who face this bitter wind,

Must end my journey soon and find

A frostly couch, a frozen sleep,"

As thus he spoke, a thrill of pain-

And when I opened them again

I started with a-glad surprise.

'Twas evening still, and in the west

A flush of glowing crimson lay,

That promise of a glorious day,

Shone with the hues that tinged the sky,

Gleamed with a brightness from on high.

O'er shadowy vale and gleaming height

I marked his firm though weary tread,

Pass o'er that traveler's placid mien.

The lifted eye and brow screne,

nd saw no shade of doubt or dre

And others came, their journey o'er.

I saw the morrow there and biest

The waters, in their glassy sleep,

And rugged eliff and barren sleep

And one was there whose journey lay

Into the slowly gathering night;

With steady step he held his way

"I loved them; oh, no words can tell

The love that to my friends I bore ;

Of those who part to mest no more.

And o'er these snowy hillocks creep,

Shot to my heart; I closed my eyes,

And onward, through the frozen mist,

Before the whirling guests of air,

And gathered on his silver hair.
