ARISTOCRATIC DEMOCRATS.-The Democrats of old, known in Jefferson's time as Republicans were an honest, industrious believe in sinecures, or men holding offices without performing their duties. Not so with modern Democrats. Take for instance in a small way, Dr. Dewitt and his deputy transcribing clerk, and our recently elected county Auditor, Mr. Hottenstine whose Democracy is so highly concentrated in his own person that he has refused to do and see that it is done. The result is Mr. auditors have been obliged to do all the labor, while this high priest of Democracy has done nothing but annoy them in the made by the Commissioners to Mr. Hottenstine or any other dumb Auditor. From the Harrisburg Telegraph of Tuesday last. 1 Speaker Patterson Disgraced.

Last night there took place in the House of Representatives one of the most exciting scenes that has been witnessed in that body for many a day. It arose out of a oase and partisan attempt of the inexperienced and hot-headed Speaker of that body to trample on the constitutional rights of a minority member, and the cool and fixed determination of the member in questionand independent class of men, who did not | Wolfe, of Union - to resist such lawless and unwarranted usurpation.

The facts are substantially as follows

Mr. Talley, of Delaware county, made
