ABOLISHED .- The train agents, for some time employed on the Northern Central Railroad, were taken off yesterday, the let inet. The duties of an agent was to lift the tickets from the passengers, while the conductor had jurisdiction over the running of the train. It having been fully demonstrated that the train agents were an expensive luxury, they were withdrawn.

The season of the year is approaching when to own a wheelbarrow were a sure passport to an insane asylum or the gallows.

THE speiling mania is getting so prevalent that it is customary to ask a man to "smile" in the following way : "Will you spell a drink with me !"

THE TAX ON NOTES .- And now the decision of that irrepressible United States revenue comin saloner is to the effect that notes made payable ni a bank must be stamped as checks are. Beware, and pay yoar tax of two cents for the estimable privilege of drawing your note or there will be a detective after you.

S. B. BOYER and 'L. H. Kase, Esos., have moved into their Lew offices in Wolverton's law building, on Second street, and have fitted them up in a style equal to a Philadelphia office. Judging from these handsomely furnished offices, the law business is improving. It is cer tainly better than the printing business, and their customers appear to pay up more punctual, nithough they do not derive as much benefit from the law as they do by reading.
