Medical.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.

Dr. JOHNSTON,
Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most certain, reliable, pleasant and effective remedy for all DISEASES OF IMPEDENCE.
Weakness of the Back or Loins, Stricture, Affecting of Kidneys and Bladder, Urinary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dropsy, Languor, Low Springs, Confusion of the Head, Trembling, Dizziness of the Heart, Timidity, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Stomach, Nose or Ears, Dropsy of the Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—these terrible Disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—these secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes of anticipations, ruining marriages, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN
especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of the young men of the most talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered the noblest ranks of the Army or Navy, or the most brilliant of professions, ruining marriages, &c., impossible.

MARRIAGE.
Married Persons (Persons) contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Debility, or any other Disqualification, should apply immediately.

Who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a Physician, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Generalist.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Impotency, Loss of Power, Immediately Cured and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the young men of the most talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered the noblest ranks of the Army or Navy, or the most brilliant
of professions, ruining marriages, &c., impossible.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Persons ruined in health by uncleanly practices who keep their disease secret, and who are taking poisons and injurious compounds,
should apply immediately.

Dr. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduated from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great debility, nervousness, palpitating heart, headache, indigestion, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by impure indulgence and uncleanly habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Loins, Pains in the Back and Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular
Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dropsy,
Nervous Irritability, Derangement of Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTAL.—The fearful effects on the mind are such to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil-forebodings, Aversion to friends, Pains in the Back and Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular
Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dropsy,
Nervous Irritability, Derangement of Digestive
Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

Miscellaneous.
SUNBURY MARBLE YARD,
Fourth Street below Market,
SUNBURY, PENN'A.
J. H. UNDERGROUND has returned from the Vermont Marble Quarries with 50 Tons of Marble for

Monuments, Grave-Stones,
Ac., &c.
He has bought at such figures that will allow him to sell better stone, for less money, than heretofore. The best Sutherland Falls Marble, which is better than Italian. Rutland is now sold as low as the Manchester.

To get ahead on the marble line, our Monuments, Grave-Stones, or other purposes, will find it to their interest to call and examine our large stock, as better bargains can be secured than buying from parties "huckstering" round the country.

All letters will be done in the neatest and most improved style.
W. M. DAUGHERTY.
Sunbury, Jan. 11, 1875.

THE KING BARBER SHOP IS THE SHOP OF THE TOWN—and long has been; ask history and she will tell you Men have grown old in our patronage—to the young men of the town.
To the young men of the town.
To the young men of the town.

And among the honored and lasting impressions of time, and the crash of revolutions in circumstances, we stand a living monumental monument of the ingenuity and perseverance applying to the identity of progression, fitting our vocation with the highest style of art and perfection, and aspiring to achieve the highest rewards of merit attainable in our humble capacity, and the sentiment of respect and approbation which the presence of superior appliances and establishment are always wont to inspire.

Always to please
We shave with care
Cut and comb with taste the hair;
Shampoo the head with soothing care,
And color the whiskers black or brown,
To suit the people about the town.
Then allow me politely request you to stop,
And not go just from around our shop-house, attended to, on those occasions when some have gone out for our use of the bath for principle—sacred and right—nor under the common secret and insidious guile of emulsion, for the end of a man's coat, or the color of his hair, ought not to affect his usefulness nor his qualifications. A fair charge is all that we demand, to give the proof to all the land.

Select Poetry.

HE IS NOT MINE.
It should be! And yet he is not mine;
My lips have never touched his marble brow,
Yet would his heart's blood flow like ruby wine,
If heaven should claim his dearest loved now.

He is not mine! Another's kisses press
My lips, which only breathe for him a prayer;
Another folds me in his warm embrace,
And only asks to hold me there.

He is not mine! No whispered word of love Has ever thrilled my heart, and yet I know Thoughts, pure as those of angels from above,
Of me pass through his brain in constant flow.

He is not mine! Yet in his eye's soft gleam
I ever read his language sweetly clear;
Eyes are interpreters of loves young dream—
And his assures me I'm his most dear.

Would he but speak—I'm held in thrall—
But breathe his love in my too willing ear, I'd rather hope of future bliss, and all,
For this one hour of heaven—his love to hear.

If he should die! If those deep, tender eyes Should veil their love beneath a frozen lid—
Those weak, pale hands whose slightest touch
I feel, should be no more to me a guide.

Folded, and in the coffin's gloom be hid—If that great heart, whose pulses ever beat True to the one who faith his life would save,
Should shut his pain beneath the daisies sweet,
My love's sad requiem should be his grave.

Who shall marry her?
A strong bond of friendship existed from their earliest childhood together. At Vernon du Pres and Henry de Savigny.
At college the same studies and pursuits were followed by both. In the same army they held the grade of Lieutenant, and served in the same regiment where, by officers they were called Castor and Pollux, Oristes and Pleiades, Damon and Pythias, and other titles as applicable. Years and experience ripened and strengthened their affection into the most scrupulous fidelity.
When about sixteen, the age when others are ingeniously exaggerated, du Pres and Savigny one day pledged themselves to each other as friends which death alone could part.

"Let us solemnly swear," said du Pres, "to share alike each other's pleasures, pains, fortune and misery."
"But suppose the time
