

Humorous Sketches.

WASTING sweetness—putting your arm about a pretty woman.

As you cannot avoid your own company make it as good as possible.

WHY is it which has a mouth and never speaks, and a bed and never sleeps?—A river.

Mrs. GREEN'S never husband is like a tailor call; he always will smoke when he goes out.

WHY is a woman living up two pair of stairs a perfect good thing?—Because she's a second floor.

The latest philanthropist is around with a subscription to purchase the freedom of Powers' Greek slave.

Two things in this world that should not be trifled with—a woman's opinion and the business end of a wasp.

WHAT is the difference between an overcoat and a baby? One is what you wear and the other is what you want.

A MINNETA paper tells a sounding story of a sixteen-year old boy who has "made a violin out of his own head."

WHEN a Chicago mad gets rich he writes to eastern publishing houses and tells them to send "half a ton of books with gilt on."

THAT farmer understood human nature who said: "if you want to keep your boy at home, don't be too hard on the grindstone when he turns the crank."

A LITTLE boy in Maine entreated his mother to tell him some stories about bad boys, and upon her expressing astonishment, said that he "wanted to find out how they got out of schools."

DARLING to mamma, who superintends cook's operations—"I wish I was a pudding, mamma." "Why?" "Cause I should have lots of sugar put into me." Mamma take the hint.

"TAKE back this centennial beef and bring me some that grazed in Boston common before the tea party," thundered a guest at a hotel, to a waiter the other day. We wonder if he meant to be sarcastic?

A MILD-TEMPARED man who had fallen on an icy sidewalk, picked himself up with theolley; "I don't cherish the least ill-will, but for interesting reading matter commend me to the obituary of the man who owns the sidewalk."

Agricultural.

TO OBTAIN FRUIT FROM BARREN TREES. A correspondent of the American Agriculturist says in relation to obtaining fruit from barren trees:

What is more ungrateful than a ragged evergreen tree?

EXERCISE OF ANIMALS.—An experienced farmer says that in all schemes for feeding animals in yards and stables, instead of allowing them to graze their own food in woods or pastures, there is one great loss, and that is the loss of the physical exercise in order to have the best of health.

WORKS IN HORSES.—A correspondent of the Mass. Ploughman says: I once had a valuable animal, a most perfect horse, and he was kept in the stable for a long time.

LINE IS CHOICE.—There is said to be carried off from the nine pounds of line in twenty-five bushels of oats, and fifteen pounds in thirty-eight bushels of barley.

PLANT TREES IN WASTE PLACES ON THE FARM.

EARLY THRESHING.—Lancaster County, Pa., is in possession of one of the finest threshing machines that I have ever seen.

TESTING MEASURES.—One of the little things which a farmer may neglect of his little things is that of testing field and garden scales before planting.

CONCEALING THE SEEDS.—There are an occasional few farmers who will plant their seed in a hole in the ground, and then the seed will grow.
