Republican State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR: GEN. JOHN F. HARTRANFT. Of Montgomery County,

POR STATE TREASURER : HON. HENRY RAWLE, Of Erie.

Standing Committee Meeting. A meeting of the Northumberland County Re-Standing Committee will be held in the on Monday, August 2d, at 10 o'clock A. M. embers are requested to be present. EM'L WILVERT, Chairman.

TREATMENT OF THE RING TO HONEST OFFICERS.-For some years past, the Democrats have been unfortunate in the selection of men for county officers, and as experience has shown, the county are in slavery, and must be emancipated has suffered greatly in a number of instances, in a pecuniary way. And when the buzzards of the "Ring" could not fleece the county they turned their attention to stealing from their triends. In fact, this that they are afraid to whisper their trouhas become so notably glaring that one can scarcely judge, when a candidate on their ticket is successful, whether he really is a member of the "Ring" or not. But once arrange for a little espionage in suspected in a while one will come out without stain or reproach upon his conduct while in office. The "Ring" has been successful, and, like the spider, they have spun their net out so that their real work cannot be seen from an outside view. To learn their workings, and to understand them, one is compelled to enter the netted web, and become acquainted with their operations. Those in the past who showed an unwillingness to join the "Ring" have received punishment that will last for life, and they scarce understand how they were made sufferers. When honest men in their party, succeed in getting office, they become the first victims, if strategy will accomplish the result. It is but a few years since an honest man was elected to the office of County Treasur- animal; and yet, according to the Eagle, er. When it was found that really an up- bere is the way they do it in Reading : right man had got the office, and the probabilities were that but little would result to benefit the"Ring," he was beset by sharp- liest times, which we find in the holy scripers who portrayed to him a path strewn tures, will be astonished to learn that with flowers, while the spiders encircled about a dozen ladies of this city, married him with a web. Governor Hartranft, says the Pittsburg Telegraph, who is to-day as popular, as it is possible for a public man to be, having by his admirable conduct of the affairs of his high office won the regard and approval of all parties, is of the opinion that the Republican State ticket will be elected by a handsome majority. The Governor is not inclined to be enthusiastic or to "slop over" in his estimates or expectations, but in the Democratic ranks in this State is is rather given to looking squarely at both touching to behold.
