reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote communial happiness. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melan-choly reflection, that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this borrid disease make their appearance, such se ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the month or the bones of the nose fall in and the victim of the same of the nose fall pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, , and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts

If they do not they raise by their nobleness or degrade by ence. As mothers they are artificers who give the initial touch that lasts for life, and as they complete what the mother began. Society is moulded mainly by them, and they bring up their daughters upon their pattern. It is surely week and silly to blame society for its ignoble tone, or the young for their disorders. All men want knaves. This is illustrative of the feeling the correcting influence of social opinion. Youth , too, will be ever disorderly, if it gets the chance, and the race has not yet ment by their own wisdom the gaps left by the inexperienced and ignorant of youths to guide right the steps that are apt, without that guidience to run astray, and to guard against passions, emotions, desires HOW INDIANS CURE MEAT AND that if left to themselves, bring only disaster, but which guarded and directed may be turned to the best of ends. For ourselves we regret to see the rapid extinction of motherhood in its beat sense, and decline to accept the modern loose-handed chaperon as its worthy substitute. We repudiate the plea of the insubordinate of the young, as often put forward in the defense of the new state of things, for it is simply nonsense. The young are what the mothers make them, just as society is what the matrons allow it to be and if mothers did their duty we should hear no more of the
