

The Somerset Herald.

PHILADELPHIA, January 1, 1873.

3,000 KECS Of Butter Wanted.

We are in want of 3,000 kecs of butter for our immediate trade, and all farmers who will ship to us, we will pay early rates at good prices. We have many thanks for former patronage, and will return your liberal shipments. Very respectfully, &c.,

B. BROOK NYCE & CO.,

54 SOUTH STREET,
BALTIMORE, MD.

Cards can be had at all the stores.

The ice harvest has commenced.

A happy New Year to all!

Dear elder vinegar at Davis & Bros.

Sleighing parties are in order.

A good overcoat at Pisel's for $7.

A whole suit at Pisel's for $10 at Pisel's.

Fresh Oysters—30 cents a can, every performance.

Our waiter at SAMUEL SHAFER'S.

Our Elder-in-Chief fulfills from his new station.

Note the change in L. D. SUE & CO.,

and its Agents' price.

The weather is—All the blank to suit the temperature as you read.

Cards, tubs, buckets, baskets, rope &c., at Davis & Bros.

Gas-wanted for cash, at Cook & Beale's gas-station, Somerset, Pa.

Just received at Davis & Bros. a splendid stock of salmons & clams.

We have now on hand a large supply of justice-blanks and judgment notes.

1000 bushels of coal of Somerton's bank at four cents per bushel for fine.

100 empty flour barrels for sale at the lowest and best store of Cook & Beale's, Main Cross-street, Somerset, Pa.

No gain good resolutions, but don't renew them to paying material for that other place—we mean, don't break them.

A dozen or more fine lounge-pieces purchased in this vicinity, were started East on Monday morning.

Fine coal at Somerton's bank.

Four cent coal.

6 cents

8 cents

Soft-shelled oysters at Cook & Beale's.

Gas wanted for cash at Cook & Beale's.</p