SCHOOL BOOKS!

SCHOOL BOOKS!!

Full assortment at Miller's Drug & Book store. Also Bibles, Hymn Books and all kinds of Blank Books.

NOTICE.—All persons in Somerset township who have not yet paid their school taxes will save costs by paying me next Monday of Court. I will be in Somerset to receive the same. G. ZIMMERMAN.

SUNDAY, 3d inst., was Candlemas or Groundhog day; Friday, 14th, will be Valentine's day; Saturday, 22d, will be Washington's Birthday; Wednesday, 29th; Ash Wednesday.

CHAPPED HANDS, face, rough skin, pimples, ringworm, salt-rheum, and other curious affections cured, and the skin made clear and smooth, by using the JUNIPER TAR SOAP, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. Be certain to get the Juniper Tar Soap, as there are many worthless imitations made with common tar.

NO MORE EXPLOSIONS.—Go to W. W. Ross & Bro., and buy a box of PROF. ROSS'S NON-EXPLOSIVE LAMP POWDERS. It is the wonder of the world! It will positively prevent your lamps from exploding, and your lamp chimneys from breaking.

Go to fresh pork, for ear corn by sled load 25 cents per bushel, oats by sled load at 25 cents per bushel, Buckwheat flour at $2 50 per 100 pounds, Corn Meal at $2 50 per 100 pounds, best Family flour at $10 per barrel and everything else in their line at low rates, call at the Grocery & Feed store of Cook & Beerits, Somerset Pa.

The Purest and Sweetest Cod Liver Oil made by Caswell & Castwell's, made on the sea shore, from fresh selected livers, by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have once taken it prefer it to all others. Physicians have decided it superior to any of the other oils in market. jan. 1 1w.

A LIST of seasonable goods at Blymyer's Hardware Store.—The best Meat Cutters in the world, Sausage Stuffers, Coal Buckets, (very low,) Coal Shovels, Forks, Butcher Knives, Slaw Cutters, Horse Brushes, Sets of Ladles, Sleigh Bells—Almost Mops and Brush Holders, Soap Boxes for Buckets and Tubs, Porcelain Lined Pans, Stands, Stone Sledges, Wire Clothes Lines, Baskets, Step Ladders—in fact if you want anything at all in the Hardware line, go to Blymyer's Store for it.

THOMAS FLECK & COLBORN are hard at work. They have orders for brooms ahead and are unable to keep up, which they work the factory both night and day. Any one who ever uses one of Fleck & Colborn's brooms will be sure to inquire therefor for brooms made at their factory.

MARSHALL has moved into his new Drug store, we dare say one of the handsomest in Pennsylvania; the old shanty occupied by him since the fire has been removed and a Mammoth building now stands forth in all its glory. The front facing main cross street is really very handsome and would be an ornament to any town, but the front of the diamond is not so imposing and is greatly lacking of all architectural beauty.

The St. Louis Journal says: A young woman came into the office of this paper yesterday with a manuscript poem. It began with "The snow, the snow, the beautiful snow." His friends may get the body by employing at the basement and paying for the dirty goods box containing the remains of the deceased."

The Scientific American says: As the cold weather season is upon us, the following recipe for greasing the griddle is recommended: Take a turnip, cut in half, rub the griddle with the inner side, and it is said that the cakes will come off nice and readily, and the housekeeper will be rid of the disagreeable odor of burning fat."

The Hollidaysburg Standard, although opposed to the Local-Option bill, says that if the County will give a large majority in favor of closing the saloons. And the latter says that the majority will be over a thousand. The Hon. Thaddeus Banks, Democratic candidate for District Judge, is a member of the temperance men.

We learn that our old friend Isaac Yoder of Conemaugh Township, Somerset county, met with a serious accident on the 17th inst. He slipped and fell on the ice in his house and broke three of his ribs near the backbone, and otherwise injured himself. He has been confined to his bed since. His many friends in our town will read this with sorrow, and pray for his speedy recovery.—Johnstown Tribune.

We are sorrow to learn of the the painful accident to our friend, Mr. Yoder, and pray for his speedy recovery.

PRESCRIPTION INQUIRE THE TRUTH.—After the long and impartial testimony in the case of Dr. Keyser's treatment of Consumption, and all Chronic diseases, in an article published by that gentleman at 168 Fifth street, Pittsburgh, Pa. If it does not convince you, you are not within the reach of faithfully related facts. The Prescription made by Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure, has cured so many, and such marvellous ones, as to put all scepticism from the mind.—Any consumptive invalid, read it, and then act with decision and energy, and thousands of lives can be saved from an early and untimely grave. Do not believe interested and paid testimonies, but go to the fountain head, and consult the Doctor himself. Price per bottle, or $7.50 per half dozen.

LA COMANCHE.—Yesterday afternoon two hogs attempted to cross Will's Creek, on the ice. The sad fate of two of the hogs is a terrible warning to those persons who use the expression "As happy as a hog on ice," to express the extreme of elation, for the ice broke through, and all fell in and two were drowned.—The third undoubtedly would have shared the same fate, but for the kind offices of that distinguished Indian Chief, Dennis O'Neill, who appeared on the ground with his lasso, and after the manner of his tribe, he threw with unerring aim about the body of the imperilled pig and drew it from a watery grave, to the great relief of his fellow-pig and the edification of the assembled crowd who witnessed the feat.—Cumberland Times.

DETROIT, MICH., Jan. 27th, 1872.

A. PARKER, Esq., Pontiac, Mich.

I have subjected to a careful analysis a package of White Lead, branded "Beymer, Bauman & Co.'s Strictly Pure White Lead," Pittsburgh, Pa., and find it to be as represented, a strictly pure article, free from all admixture. Yours, &c., SAM'L. DUFFIELD, Ph. D. Consulting Chemist.

GARRETT, PA. Jan. 31st, 1873.

The undersigned have associated with themselves Frank Kennedy, of Hagerstown, Maryland, under the firm name of Earnest, Delp, Camp & Co., for the purpose of carrying on the business of manufacturing and selling lumber, at Garrett, Somerset county Penn'a.

3t. EARNEST, DELP & CAMP.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—A meeting of farmers and others friends to the agricultural interests of the county, will be held in the Court House on Tuesday evening of the first week of next court, for the purpose of electing officers of the Somerset County Agricultural society for the ensuing year, and to consider the propriety of holding a fair next fall. A full attendance is respectfully requested.

A. J. COLBORN, Secretary. C. C. MUSSELMAN, President.

THE UNIVERSAL VERDICT of all who have used or witnessed the operation of the Domestic Sewing Machine, is that it is the best ever offered in the market.

It lacks none of the good qualities of other machines, and its range of capacity is truly wonderful.

We would call the attention of all in want of a first-class machine to the advertisement of the Domestic in another column.

BOOKS POSTED.—I would advise my friends and patrons that my books are posted and ready for settlement. You will please remember that I am a serious sufferer by the calamitous fire of the 9th of May, and in order to rebuild and pay off my indebtedness, I must collect all the money due me on my books. I hope this notice will not be neglected, or I will be compelled to place them in the hands of an agent for collection. Respectfully,

Feb. 5, 3t. ED. M. KIMMEL.

THE justice of the verdict rendered by the public years ago in favor of the Mexican Mustang Liniment must be apparent to all who have used that famous preparation or seen it used. Its healing influence is irresistible. The most obstinate forms of neuralgic or rheumatic disease are totally cured by it, and that in an inconceivably short space of time. External injuries or sores, whether of man or beast, as well as all equine or human maladies for which a liniment may be used, are speedily remedied by its use. Remember it is not merely a palliative but an eradicant of disease.

AT a regular meeting of Somerset Lodge No. 185, I. O. of G. T. held on last Saturday evening, the following officers were installed for the quarter ending April 30th, 1873, by F. A. Smith, L. D.:—W. C. T., W. H. Rupple; W. V. T., Ellen C. Heffley; W. S., Chas. E. Herr; W. F. S., J. B. Hicks; W. T., Joseph Herr; W. C., Geo. F. Hemminger; W. M., Frank N. Cantner; W. I. G., Lena M. Durkee; W. O. G., Henry Lape; W. R. S., Binnie J. Simpson; W. L. S., Maggie Gilbert; W. A. S., Annie Stutzman; W. D. M., E. E. Walter; P. W. C. T., A. H. Coffroth.

The Lodge is in a flourishing condition and is doing much for the temperance reformation.

BERLIN, PENN'A., Feb. 5th, 1873.

The undersigned have on hand a large and well selected stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, ready made Clothing, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinetts, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Hosiery and Gloves, all of which we will sell from this date at largely reduced prices for cash or good produce. Persons who buy goods for cash will find it generally to their advantage to give us a call as we are determined to close out all of the above named goods by the first of April if possible.

LEARN A TRADE.—The annual report of Hon. J. P. Wickersham, State Superintendent of Common Schools for 1872, contains the following significant paragraph, pointing parents to the importance of having their children learn some useful mechanical trade. The statistics given are brief and startling. Mr. Wickersham says: "There are multitudes idly waiting for vacant clerkships and unfilled offices, while mechanical work, more honorable and more remunerative, invites on all sides the efforts of willing hands. It is a fact as startling as it is significant that, of 17,000 criminals in the United States in 1868, 97 per cent. of them had never learned a trade. Out of 240 convicts received at the Eastern Penitentiary last year only twelve had been apprenticed and served their time."

As conductor Maugle was switching off from the main track at Riddlesburg, with his train of empty coal cars, for the Six Mile Run branch, on last Wednesday morning, one of the shoes broke, and threw the engin, and train on the ties.—This frightened the engineer and fireman that both jumped off and left the engine open and moving rapidly up the track.—The Conductor, knowing of the close proximity to a trestle over a Run of some ten or twelve feet in height, at once sprang over his cars to the engine, and stopped the train just on the verge of the Run, without any serious damages. Thus the ready perception and devotion to his company's interests, enabled this man to save the destruction of an engine and many cars, that would have amounted to a good many thousand dollars to the Broad Top rail road.—Bedford Press.

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning a locomotive ran off the track near Stewarton, a station on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, twelve miles east of Connellsville. A wrecking train was sent to the spot to pull the engine on the track. This work was done by attaching one end of a heavy chain to the wrecking engine and the other to the locomotive off the track. Of course, when the wrecking engine started the chain was drawn taut, and it is supposed one of the links had a flaw in it, as it broke, and the chain flew to one side, knocking down two or three men who were standing beside the track. One of them, named Daniel Dougherty, a "division foreman" of track, was struck on the forehead just above the left eye and had his skull broken and the bones driven into the brain in a horrible manner. The other men were but slightly bruised. Mr. Dougherty was taken to Falls City, three miles from the scene of the accident, and was properly cared for. At six o'clock yesterday evening he was still alive, though it is thought that he cannot possibly recover.

Mr. Dougherty resides at Harper's Ferry, West Virginia, where he was a wife and family.—Cumberland News

JUST as our paper was being made up, we learned of a shocking accident that happened in the Lutheran Church at Jennertown, this county, on last Sunday night. The particulars as we have them from an eye witness are as follows

A protracted meeting had been in progress for some time, and on Sunday evening the house was crowded by persons from the village and neighborhood. Just after the sermon had closed, and as Rev. D. Stuft was exhorting the congregation, the large six lamp chandelier, which hung suspended from the center of the ceiling, fell with a crash to the floor below, in the midst of the audience, the lamps breaking and scattering the burning oil in all directions. The clothing of a Miss Sarah Dietz took fire almost instantly, and she was burned in a terrible manner. A little child of Mr. Adam Friedline, which was in its mother's arms, was also very severely burned. Those slightly injured, are George Johnson, hand smashed by being caught between the falling chandelier and the back of a seat; Miss Fisher, right arm burned; David Lape, right hand burned, and Rev. D. Stuft, hand burned. Of course the floor and seats, saturated with oil, were a mass of flames, but by the almost super-human efforts of the audience, the fire was extinguished by throwing on articles of clothing taken from the persons of those present. The greatest excitement prevailed, and numbers jumped out of the windows to escape the burning element.

The injured parties were attended by Dr. Covode, who did all that could be done to alleviate their sufferings. The lady and child mentioned as having been severely burned, were still living at last accounts, but both are reported to be in a very precarious condition.

An examination of the chandelier showed that the tap screw had been turned the wrong way by accident, not leaving sufficient hold upon the thread to support the weight. The fact that in a densely packed audience of 400 or 500 persons so few should be seriously injured in an accident so fearful in its character and so deadly in its consequences, must be considered little short of miraculous.—Democrat.

A BEAUTIFUL HANDWRITING.—There are but few of our readers who would not like to acquire a rapid and beautiful handwriting, for there is no one accomplishment so highly prized as this. The business colleges of the country have afforded the best instruction in this branch and have succeeded in producing the most accomplished penmen. The best penman in the country to-day is Prof. GASKELL, President of the Bryant & Stratton College of Manchester, N. H. There are few lovers of the beautiful art of penmanship who have not heard of this wonderful penman and many have seen specimens of his skill. His large specimens have attracted great attention in New York City and throughout the country where they have been placed on exhibition.

He is now engaged day and night sending out Copies for self-instruction, which he writes himself expressly for applicants, so that any one can learn to write at the home fireside. These contain full printed instructions, and are put up in large heavy envelopes and sent by mail prepaid for one dollar per package. They are all numbered and so fully explained that no one can fail to learn rapidly from them. They have been ordered by thousands—not by poor writers alone, but by the leading teachers of penmanship throughout the United States and Canada. Our readers will do well to write for a package, as nothing so complete, beautiful and useful for self-instruction will ever again be offered them.

Correspondence of the HERALD.

ATCHISON, MUSCOTAH CO, KANSAS, January 22d, 1873.

I think our Kansas winter is about over for this time. It was short, but severe. It commenced about the middle of December, and continued twenty days, as it it was in earnest. The snow continued to fall slowly until the ground was covered to the depth of about ten inches. On Christmas morning the mercury was down 12° below zero on the high prairie, and on the river bottom, at Muscotah, 18° below zero; but now the snow is about all gone and the frost is going out of the ground. The wheat is not much hurt by the winter. There is about one half of the corn of our county yet in the field, to be husked. It is quite a common thing to hear a man say that he has forty acres of corn to husk yet. White corn is worth 16 cents per bushel at depot; yellow, 14; oats 15; spring wheat $1 25; winter wheat $1 75; Hogs $3 75 per hundred; smooth native cattle $4 50. I enclose with this my subscription for this year and try to keep up with the times.

Yours,
W. H. PHILLIPI.

Correspondence of the HERALD.

During the cold snap between January 1st and 10th, while speaking of the intense cold and the low stage of water, an aged gentleman, with whom we conversed, remarked, that by the 12th, 13th and 14th of the month we would have plenty of water. Upon the rest of the party expressing doubts of this being the case, he rejoined I have never known the sign to fail. Curious to know what his sign was, we inquired of him what it was, and he said by looking at the Almanac you will see that these days are all in the sign of the crab, and we will be sure to have plenty of water then. He informed us that he had his information many years ago, from the senior Wolthope, of New Baltimore, (who was then quite an old gentleman), and that he had taken particular notice ever since, and never knew the failure of this sign. Whether the crab knows or not, the late high water testifies to the truth of his virtue in this case. Thinking there might be enough of interest in this for publication, I give it for the benefit of those who would be weather wise.

MAN IN GRAY.

EDITOR HERALD.—I see by the County settlement that our county does not owe a dollar and that there is a balance in the Treasury of $8,587 22. This healthy condition of the finances of the county reflects great credit on our County Commissioners and the County Treasurer.

I am informed that Mr. Roberts, our energetic and pushing Treasurer, for the first time in the history of the county, has made the collectors of taxes in the different districts settle the full amount of their duplicates within a year from the time they were placed in their hands, and that he proposes to do so next year—unless interfered with by the Commissioners, which will make the balance in the Treasury from $15,000 to $20,000. This much needed reform at first provoked a good deal of unfavorable comment, but as it produced this unprecedented balance in the Treasury and as his action is becoming better understood, it is getting the hearty approval of all our best citizens. Now that the county has the wherewithal, we hope the Commissioners will build a fire-proof vault for the Prothonotarys and Recorder's office's and put the Court House and Jail in proper condition.

Some three or four different grand juries of the county have found that the vault was much needed—the court has approved their action—and we see no reason why it should not be put under contract at once.

Our Book Table.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL for February comes out as fresh and vigorous as a crisp, seasonable, and in all respects salutary stock of reading matter can make a magazine. Opening its leaves, we find a good sketch and portrait of the regretted Norman McLeod, D. D.: also Speculative Non-Philosophy; What do We Live For? The Man of Three Dreams, especially notable now that his nephew the Ex-emperor is dead; Natural Death; American Shad Culture; Daniel Fox, the centenarian farmer; Classes of Society; Clara Louise Kellogg; Christian Charity; Harvey Prindle Steel, LL.D. eminent instructor of Deaf-mutes; Is Phrenology Dead? to which we respectfully answer, we think not; Rotation in Office; The Horse and Civilization; Early Mexican History, etc. Price as usual, 30 cents, or $3 a year. We notice that the publisher offers a premium of a new Chromo to new subscribers who send 30 cts extra for postage and mounting. S. R. WELLS, Publisher, 389 Broadway, N. Y.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—The February number of the Eclectic is an exceptionally attractive issue of this valuable periodical, almost every article being sufficient by itself to attract attention to the magazine. The leading paper is a very able analysis from the Edinburgh Review, of "The Progress of Medicine and Surgery," and this is followed by "The Royal Favorites of France," translated from the Revue des Deux Mondes. Two very striking papers—the gems of the last Blackwood entitled "Goethe," and "Middlemarch," are given, together with the most complete rescript that has yet appeared of Mr. George Smith's remarkable paper on "The Chaldean Account of the Deluge." Other important articles are "Dogs whom I have met," "Pope II.," "The Irish Brigade in the Service of France," "Tallegwand;" and the opening chapters of the new story, entitled "Too Soon," by the author of "Patty."

The Editorial Departments are full of good things, and there is a fine steel portrait of the dead Statesman, Wm. H. Seward.

Published by E. R. PELTON, 108 Fulton Street, New York. Terms, $5 a year; two copies, $9. Single number, 45 cents.

PETER'S MUSICAL MONTHLY, No. 66, for February, comes promptly to hand, and is, as usual, overflowing with melody. This magazine is furnished at the low price of $3 per year, and it contains more music in a single monthly number than can be bought in sheet-form for double that sum. The number before us contains: "Our Little Pet," a beautiful ballad by the famous song-writer, Will S. Hays; also, "Gone to the Heavenly Garden," "Mattie May," and "Give my Love to all at Home;" Two-part Songs, "Fold we our Hands in Prayer" and "Far from my thoughts." Together with the following Instrumental pieces: "Clear the Track," four hands, by Ed. Strauss; "Christmas Gift March," "Sweet Thoughts," and "Silver Cloud Mazurka," by J. Spindler.

As a Trial Trip, the Publisher offers to send, post-paid, three back numbers of 1872 for 60 cents, or six back numbers for $1. Send on your orders, and our word for it, you will get ten times your money's worth of choice new music. Address,

J. L. PETERS, 599 Broadway, New York.

THE ALDINE for February is in every respect equal to the sanguine expectations excited by the January number of this remarkable periodical, of which each issue appears to be the climax until its successor appears. The opening illustration is a magnificent, full-page by J. D. Woodward, of the scene on Rus Falls, which is certainly one of the most delightful pictures which it is possible to conceive. Further on we have three smaller illustrations by the same artist, all in the whole being illustrative of articles on Virginia scenery, with especial reference to the Blue Ridge. Mr. Woodward, as a draughtsman, certainly will rank with Thos. Moran, and we shall always regard the specimens of his exquisite taste in landscape as among the foremost attractions which the shrewdness and tact of the publishers offer the patrons of The Aldine. "An Attack in the Snow," by J. C. Brown, a spirited sketch, is worthy of that eminent artist's reputation and it is in the exhibition of work from the pencil of the first painters in the country, that The Aldine is unique. We will only notice further that the publisher offers a premium of a new Chromo to new subscribers who send 30 cts extra for postage and mounting. S. R. WELLS, Publisher, 389 Broadway, N. Y.
