The Somerset Herald.

WEDNESDAY. - - - - March 1, 1871.

PERE ridler vinegar at Davis & Bros.

MALLORY & Bro.'s Liniment. Largest bottle for the money and the best.

JUST received at Davis & Bros. a splendid stock of tobacco & cigars.

CANNED fruit of all varieties, at W. W. Davis & Bro.

2,000 bushels of coal at Stutzman's bank, at four cents per bushel for fine.

WE have now on hand a large supply of ladies' blanks and judgment notes.

DR. Morrison & Bro.'s Liniment, for all aches and pains.

JUST received a large lot of prepared Oyster nut, Catsup, Pickle Sauce, French Mustard, &c., &c., at W. W. Davis & Bro.

PERSONS wishing a good dish of oysters, will find it, one door east of the "Barnes House."

MR. JOHN SNOKE will please accept our thanks for a copy of the North Census of the United States.

THE personal property of Isaac Dybert, late of Quemahoning township, will be sold at his late residence on Thursday, the 30th inst.

THE coal at Stutzman's bank,
Stove coal, - - - - 4 cents.
Range coal, - - - - 6 cents.
Lump coal, - - - - 8 cents.

REMEMBER.—Rev. Wm. STEWART will preach a Temperance Sermon, at the M. E. Church in Somerset, on Sunday evening, March 10th, at 7½ o'clock P. M.

THE total number of blind persons in the State, as shown by the last census, here to 1,767, making one blind person to every 1,981 inhabitants.

W. W. DAVIS & BRO., have just received the largest and best selected stock of groceries, Confections, Tobacco and Cigars ever brought to Somerset.

WE are under obligations to Hon. J. R. McMillen and D. W. Will, Esq., for a copy of 1870's Legislative Hand Book, and a copy of the Pennsylvania School Report.

IN North continues as it has commenced, it will be the best winter month of the year. The ground is now covered with a heavy snow and the sleighing is elegant.

OUR people are taking advantage of the cool sparkling. Hundreds of loads of cross ties, stock, the lumber, &c., have been delivered at the railroad depot during the past ten days.

A spotted horse belonging to Daniel Flint escaped from his brother on Sunday morning last, and ran into the corner of A. J. Gilbert's house, breaking a window and corner in glass.

SAINTS, Evil Spirits, all shades, suitable for parties or the street, just received at MRS. ZAP. D. TAEBWELL'S "Fashion Bazar," No. 6 Mammoth Block