

The Somerset Herald. March 10, 1912. Published weekly by W. W. McKAIG & SON, proprietors at 253 Liberty Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Many of our people are busy making preparations for building as soon as the weather will permit.

A party of our young people visited Mt. Pleasant on Friday evening last. Nothing unusual about the trip, but the exception that every one in the party were dressed in their sleighs; not, however, a very different thing to do, owing to the drifted condition of the roads.

The Pupils of the Union School will have an exhibition in the Court House, at the close of their school, on Friday evening, March 16th, under the direction and supervision of Miss M. J. Galloway.

The following letter from John S. Mann, Esq., of Connersport, Co., N. W. Va., on the subject of the proposed extension of the Pennsylvania and West Virginia Electric Power Company.
