

It is said that the authorities at Washington have ordered Twenty millions of the new postal cards as a beginning, and that additional orders are crowding in daily.

ANDY JOHNSON proposes to again swing around the political circle as a candidate for Governor of Tennessee. He is just now testing the mind of the people preparatory to announcing himself. He will make things lively if he goes in.

The municipal elections in North Carolina, recently held, show large and encouraging Republican gains. Raleigh, the seat of government, goes Republican by majorities ranging from 300 to 750—a Republican gain of 500.

The Democratic press appears to have united in an appeal to the Democrats of the Sixth New York district to send Hon. S. S. Cox back to Congress as successor to the late JAMES BROOKS. It is seldom that such unanimity of feeling is exhibited on any similar question.

The Ku Klux are again rearing their heads in Tennessee. A Collector of Internal Revenue informs the Department, that he has been notified to remove certain officers out of his district within thirty days, or he will be put to death. He has concluded not to comply, and his office is said to resemble an arsenal.

Who burned Columbia, South Carolina, during the late war, is a question that will probably have to be definitely settled ere long. General WADE HAMPTON asserts, that it was fired by the troops under General SHERMAN, while Generals HOWARD and SHERMAN just as positively allege, that it was set on fire by the Rebel soldiers, and was burning when they marched into and took possession of it. Certain citizens are making claims for cotton lost in the conflagration, and hence the effort to fix the responsibility on the Federal troops and make the Government responsible.

The city of Scranton in this State, already famous for its election frauds has lately added to its celebrity. At the municipal election held last week, the Democracy boasted of electing their ticket by a majority of 449, on a small poll. Since then we learn from the newspapers, that the election officers of the second district, ninth ward, have been arrested for knowingly taking the votes of unqualified persons, and have been bound over in the sum of $1,000 each, for their appearance at the next criminal court of the county.

DEATH has been very busy among the prominent men of this county within the last week. On Thursday last week HON. JAMES BROOKS, member of Congress, died at his residence in Washington. On Monday HON. JAMES L. ORR, of South Carolina, and U. S. Minister to Russia, died at St. Petersburg. On the same day HON. HUGH McALLISTER, a prominent lawyer of Centre county, in this State, and a member of the Constitutional Convention, died at Philadelphia. And on Wednesday HON. SALMON P. CHASE Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, died in the city of New York, where he was on a brief visit to his daughter.

The refusal of Congress at its late session, to take action on the troubled condition of affairs in Louisiana, is bearing its anticipated crop of evil fruit. Emboldened by the neglect or refusal of our law makers, to interfere in the behalf of peace and good government the faction pretending to have carried the State at the last election have set themselves up to oppose the police sent to install and assist the regularly appointed local officials. An attempt has been made to assassinate Governor KELLOGG. Stores have been broken open and seized in various localities in New Orleans, and if the latest dispatches are worthy of belief, blood has been spilled, and a general insurrection is threatened in some of the parishes.

Death of the Chief Justice. Salmon Portland Chase died at his daughters residence, in New York city, yesterday morning, from paralysis. He was born in Cornish, N. H., January 13, 1808. His father was a poor farmer, in a poor town, but brother to Philander, who became Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church in Ohio in 1819, and in Illinois in 1836; and whose influence was a great value to his nephew. This uncle assisted the future Chief Justice to procure an education; and he was graduated from Dartmouth College in 1826, with a reputation to solid attainments rather than genius or brilliancy. He went to the city of Washington, taught while reading law with Attorney General Wirt, and was admitted to the bar there in 1830. A month after admission he was induced by his uncle's position to remove and commence practice at Cincinnati. Here he compiled the Statutes of the State, was the solicitor of several banks, and transacted the ordinary business of a young lawyer until the hostility of the pro-slavery party to James G. Briney enabled Chase to win notice by opposing it. He anticipated a subsequent decision of the United States Supreme Court in 1837, when denying, in behalf of a fugitive slave who was his client, that the law empowering State magistrates to try such cases was constitutional, and he defended several slave cases. After supporting Harrison's nomination for the Presidency in 1840, Mr. Chase took a leading part in forming the party that, though varying phases, matured into the Republican. As candidate of the Liberal party for Governor of Ohio, in 1841, he formulated and expressed that position to the existence and hostility to the spread of slavery that a great value to his nephew. This feeling, and contributed to the Free

CIVIL WAR IN LOUISIANA.

Latest From the Infected District.

New Iberia, La., May 6.—11 a. m.—The Metropolitan force, in possession of St. Martinsville, Monday at noon. That night two Metropolitan scouts were dangerously wounded in the suburbs of that town, one of whom has since died, skirmishing has been constant since. A conference between the leaders of the conflicting forces was held yesterday. The Metropolitan force wanted to know which of the officers they were about to install were objectionable to the people, and what they wanted. The residents replied that the men were satisfactory if commissioned by Governor McEnery; that the citizens only wanted the Metropolitan force to leave the town, and not interfere with their local affairs. The women and children are still in the town.

Kellogg's Judge, in company with his district attorney and Congressman Darrell, have gone to St. Martinsville to open court to-day. The citizens' force is variously estimated at 200 and 400 men, with two pieces of artillery. It is reported that the Kelloggites are organizing negroes, consequently the whole population are watching with no general engagement has yet occurred. Business is generally suspended. A severe storm has prevailed since noon yesterday. News from St. Martin's and adjoining parishes creates much excitement in this city. It is understood that a movement is on foot to seize the stations of the Metropolitan force in the interior. Political complications are increasing. The residents claim that they are daily gaining strength, while the Kelloggites aver that all opposition is disappearing.

A large meeting was held this afternoon at the city statute, on a national street, and was addressed by General Hugh J. Campbell and others. The object of the meeting was to endorse the action of the people of St. Martin's parish. Another squad of fifty Metropolitan soldiers, it is said, will leave tonight to reinforce St. Martinsville. The evening papers report that Kellogg offers $250 in State warrants as a bounty for the Metropolitan force to go into the country. The commander of the Metropolitan at Martinsville appeals to Kellogg to send a mounted force to assist them. BISHAMPTON, La., May 6.—P. M.—The Metropolitan force, all over this parish, and the people are determined to resist. Forty Metropolitan soldiers arrived here to-day. They are closely watched by citizens, and it is said that any overt act on their part will be promptly resisted. Contrary to ordinary usage, citizens are fraternizing with the Metropolitan force, and are fully determined. No negroes are on the streets, and the town is seemingly quiet, but all are on the alert.

FRANKLIN, La., 10:25 P. M.—The latest information from St. Martinsville. Great excitement prevails. The telegraph office here is thronged with anxious men.

FIRING ALONG THE PICKET LINE. NEW ORLEANS, May 6.—10 P. M.—The situation at St. Martinsville is unchanged. There was heavy firing on the picket line this afternoon, the citizens driving the Kellogg pickets. No casualties are reported. A battle may take place at any moment.

It is reported that Kellogg's army has been defeated at the bridge between Teche, preventing any attack from the rear.

Several gun stores were broken open by a mob to-night and robbed of their contents. The excitement in this city is subsiding, since it is reported that Governor McEnery has consented to send a company of Federal troops to protect the Metropolitan, who seem to be in danger at St. Martinsville. The residents seem to have them in close quarters.

No Metropolitan are on their backs to-night, those in the city being concentrated about the stations. It is understood that those who refuse to take rifles are allowed to quit. Several have left the force, declaring they would not take up arms against the people of the State. Mudge's gun store was broken into by a mob to-night, and its entire contents carried off. No policemen were present to protect the property.

It is understood that an arrangement has been made between the Federal officials and Kellogg by which, under the plea of enforcing civil process in the city, United States troops will go to-morrow to the relief of the Metropolitan at St. Martinsville. De Balanche reports to Governor McEnery that he holds the Metropolitan in check. At the last accounts there had no general engagement.

Another Bridge Accident—Three Men Killed and Eight Wounded. ST. LOUIS, May 5. A terrible accident occurred yesterday afternoon at the bridge erected on Lawrence river, on the northwestern extension of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, fourteen miles from Sedalia. The false work erected for facilitating the construction of the bridge sank into quicksand, upon which it rested, causing with it the bridge, and twelve workmen, and precipitating all into the river below. Wm. McVey, Peter Conner and Hardy Fynch were killed outright, and eight others wounded, two not being expected to recover. The bodies of three killed were recovered last night, and Sedalia, where an inquest was held.

Another Bridge Accident. LOUISVILLE, May 5.—Advices from Princeton, Ind., last night, state that an excursion train left that place on Saturday night on the Louisville, New Albany, and Chicago Railroad, for Mount Carmel, Ind., carrying about seventy-five persons. In backing the train from Mount Carmel to Princeton a number of cows suddenly crossed the track, when the conductor, Henry T. Hayes, who was on the rear platform, promptly signalled the engineer, but it was too late. The cars ran over the cows and plunged down an embankment eight feet high, turning the cars bottom upwards.

The passengers were immediately rescued. The train was immediately started on its way, and the conductor, Henry T. Hayes, who was on the rear platform, promptly signalled the engineer, but it was too late. The cars ran over the cows and plunged down an embankment eight feet high, turning the cars bottom upwards.

Donald McKay—Donald McKay, who figures in the Modoc war as the commander of the Warm Spring Indians, (our allies), is the son of a Scotch settler of the same name and an Indian woman, and is consequently a half-breed. He is said to be an educated man, and during the war the South was the colonel of an Indian regiment in the Union service. He now holds a temporary commission from the Government as Captain.
