I'm fond of that dog ?

Well, I ought to be

For he saved my life,

And is fend of me.

There-do you see-

I was look with the fever.

And down so low

I made up my mind

It was on the cards.

I hadn't a show :

And good by, Joe!

For the doctor left.

Doctors in them days

I lay there alone-

Only my dog.

Went for their pay

Not a man would stay

Just where I could see him.

And put his head:

He felt what I suffered.

Knew what I said,

And wouldn't believe

I was almost dead

He sat by my bedside.

Always in sight :

He seemed to know

He wouldn't lie down.

I felt if he did-

And night after night.

That my head was light:

And the dog was right

And I think so still-

should lose my grip-

Broke up the chill,-

Death could not kill

Was something to me

I lead a rough life.

I get and I spend

Lose what I lend:

It came to an end

You have a friend

Get a good dog, sir.,

Pay what I borrow:

I loved a woman-

He was my will:

He put out the fever.

Day after day,

That's just where was-

It was-Pass in your chips;

Played out, you may say,

When my chum ran away

I had to go:

He comes and puts His naw on my knee

He knows what I'm saying-
