People Will Talk. You may go through the world, but 'twill be very

You'll be worried and fretted and kept in a stew, For meddlesome tongues will have something todo, For people will talk you know.

If generous and noble, they'll vent out their spleen, You'll hear some loud hints that are selfish and and went unheeded.

This unrivaled Southern Remedy is warranted not to contain a single particle of Mercury_or any injurious mineral substance, but is Or slight inclination to take your own part, They'll call you an upstart, conceited and valu. But keep straight ahead, don't stop to explain, If threadbare you dress, or old fashloned your hat, Some one will surely take notice of that,
